SPIRITUAL WARFARE

PRELUDE READING ENIGMAS

Reading is to indulge in experience by entering into a state of ascension through interpreting and calculating the sum of enigmas that manifest as the interrelationship between people, places, articles, and letters/symbols. Every word is a puzzle and the letters are the pieces. If an automobile is identified as a “vehicle” because of its “parts,” shouldn’t that teach us that words are not only spiritually connected to the concrete or abstract article in question, but that the word is a “mirror” of the thing. The word car symbolically reflects an actual automobile. If I read the word “airplane” I’m entering into the “presence” of an airplane spiritually speaking but because the word isn’t accompanied by a noun, adjective, and verb my experience is regulated to an object that might or might not be functioning in its designed capacity. As soon as I’m informed that someone is flying the plane, depending on my experience with aircraft I will become stimulated throughout my senses. Through the letters and words I’m looking into a mirror that either encourages or discourages experiences.

Blind people read through touch which is called Braille. We read through our nose, tongue, ears, soul, spirit, and mind. Reading isn’t merely contact between the eyes, a text, and your mind. It’s a “contact” with a “door” or “opening.” Everything can be opened up through concentration and meditation. There are degrees of reading. Basic reading is to walk to the threshold of a building’s roof, but second level reading is when you jump and fly off of the roof and through the air like a bird by investigating what lies behind the veil of the communication which is the message which is full of lessons. True reading is forensic. We’re speaking of hermeneutics, exegesis, translation, and interpretation. Reading is a science. The Greek word is “anagnosis” it means, “to ascend through science.”

Our eyes are like heat-seeking binoculars in that we practice surveillance (sur-veil-lance) as a consequence of our interests and aims. When we make contact with that which we are hunting we begin to adjust our focus and “lock-in.” You aren’t separated by distance with respect for what you “behold” because images enter into your eyes, mind, and then memory if allowed. That which you behold doesn’t only come to you, you also travel to it. You meet with what you behold at the threshold which I call “The point of visual collapse.” To give an illustration, it’s like when two teams play tug- a- war; there’s a line in the middle that determines the winner based upon which team can drag the other team over the line. Crossing the line represents failure to commit to success.

Hollywood uses this “technique” occasionally when they show a scene where a person is looking at someone and then the look turns into a stare, and this is when the director “zooms” the camera into the object of observation, but even if the person who is being observed isn’t looking back at the “watcher” the director still zooms in the second person to the first, thereby creating a point of visual collapse. We’re talking about astral-projection. A camera “snatches” the spirit, image, and likeness of a model. The secret to the point of visual collapse is the law of publicity. The law of publicity says that anything that exits private dominion has granted “permission” to citizens of the commonwealth to act upon that publicized thing with respect for civil laws of obedience and criminality. In orthodox Israeli and Islamic sectors the perverse sexual projections of publicized flesh and physique is controlled by aesthetical laws that identify such overt acts of whoredom as criminal. Leviticus 18; 6 reads, “ None of you shall approach to any that is near of kin to him, to uncover their nakedness: I am the Lord.” Of course this text is speaking of blood relations but it also concerns spiritual relations. Spiritually some people are daughters, fathers, aunts, uncles, brothers, cousins, mothers, and sisters.

On planet earth, after The Kingdom of God, the next most powerful people are doctors. Everyone who becomes sick must go to see the doctor. In secular and religious academia the highest degree that can be earned is that of the doctorate. There are doctors of business, science, history, medicine, etc. If doctors earned their degree by reading the necessary teachings, and passing their examinations shouldn't the first lesson of the doctorate concern learning how to read on deeper levels of spirituality? There are sickening words, sounds, smells, and sights. Isn't a beautiful landscape that depicts nature in its fullness a healing sight? Secular culture and society attempts to remove the beauty of God's creation by placing it in the background as a secondary necessity. Yehovah, Iesous, The Holy Spirit, and Angels are our doctors!

When people have their eyes examined the “doctor” asks them the question: Same, Better, or Worse? This is an important question. I was perusing through a book by author Jim Collins called GOOD TO GREAT and he expounded in an anecdotal style how foxes though considered to be an attractive and clever animal always fall victim to the wisdom of the hedgehog. He taught how the fox can always use his wit to get close to the hedgehog but at the last minute the hedgehog rolls his body up into a ball of spikes. The Greek word for weapon “hoplon” means dangerous at all points. We must learn how to read spiritual balls because they are dangerous. A ball represents unstoppable revolutions/cycles. A ball is a 360 degree sphere meaning that it is perfect on all sides. Its body has no hindering “parts.” It can roll over or conquer many things. A ball rebels against gravity by bouncing back up when it is dropped. Wrecking balls smash through brick walls! A spiritual ball is a masterpiece that always works and never loses its interest. Balls represent anything that is a vehicle that ushers one into a perpetual contact. A pendulum is a ball because it swings/rolls, but what’s interesting is that its motion is enslaved by magnetic poles of attraction. A ball can “stand” when spinning on an axis of gravity whereas other objects will fall off. It’s ironic that the Hebrew word for sin means to miss the target, and in the world everyone is trying to hit a target, but not with acts of obedience with respect for God’s word, but with basket, foot, golf, pool, soccer, and tennis balls! Satan’s name “diabolos” means “via balls” or the “thru-thrower.”

We are all trying to enter “in” to something. That thing has depth. The deeper we enter in, the more instrumental we become. One’s position is determined by their degree. In a pool swimmers must pass a test before they are granted permission to enter into the deep end. In the deep end the foundation isn’t the pool’s floor but rather the swimmer’s skill in staying ascended.

If knowledge catapults people to great heights ignorance must keep them grounded. If a man leaves his mate because he finds out that she is a cheater he can never go back to her because that would be to violate his own conscience. The swimmer in the shallow end can’t use the diving board. Deepness is a level of magnificent indulgence. It’s the fulfillment and superimposition of what was promised in a preview. A woman who is deep in her pregnancy is “showing” and doesn’t entertain thoughts of abortion. A cop who is deep undercover can’t just pull out of the investigation because it will jeopardize lives. It takes years for someone who is deep in the streets to transition their way into a Judeo-Christian lifestyle.

A person who played cards as a child and began to bet small change amongst friend but ended up in casinos as an adult ventured in too deep. A woman who fornicated and asked men to help her with her bills but then became a high class prostitute ventured in too deep. She felt that she should be financially compensated for her affection via a business transaction. She begins to feel like she can't go back to sleeping with men without being paid.

Many times when people are in too deep either they think that they can't "return" to a beginning point or they feel like doing so would necessitate them having to play the fool. Some things are irreversible. To someone who is deep in the spirit, a person who is deep in the flesh looks like a lower creature. College students don't fit in with kindergarten students unless they're teaching a class. In wildlife we can see that everything operates within its own habitation. The problem that certain people might struggle with is the transition of order. When an employee becomes a boss their relationships must change and many times both the boss and the employees wrestle with the sociology of change. Should a person who was short growing up but who grew to be tall act like they're still short in order to make their short friends feel comfortable?

Those who advance aren't to be blamed. Many times the ones who quit and became dangerous to themselves and others are to be blamed for their willful negligence. There's a difference between pride and confidence in one's ability through the grace of God. They reap what they sowed. There are people who are deep in the world because they want to be. There are people who are deep in the spirit because they want to be.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Israel was in the season when kings went to war but the Bible informs us that King David stayed in his castle. He didn't go in deep and therefore he wandered in his leisure. Bathsheba was a beautiful woman whose husband was at war, but she chose to enter deep into the world of sensuality by bathing nude on a roof near the King's castle. David and Bathsheba "met" in a bad spiritual state. David went deeper by inquiring about her to his staff who "knew" that she had a husband. He then went deeper by inviting her to a private session with him, and even deeper when they committed adultery. When she left if he thought that everything was normal again he must've been surprised when she returned and informed him that she was pregnant! Now they are both in a deep spiritual state.

King David then goes deeper by inviting Uriah her husband back from the war under the guise of Kingly pardon. David wines and dines Uriah in an attempt to make him go home to Bathsheba so that they could have sex so that when she had the baby Uriah would've thought that the child was his seeing that he was discharged around the same time. Uriah revealed to King David through his refusal to return home how loyal and deep he was in the war. After several attempts King David finally feels that he must go as deep as possible by instructing his general to kill Uriah by placing him on the frontlines of the war. What was really deep was the way King David did it. He wrote the instructions or contract for the death of Uriah in a letter and told Uriah to deliver his own death warrant to Joab! Joab was in too deep because he followed through with the instructions. After the death of Uriah, God revealed that He goes the deepest because He told Nathan the Prophet to tell David that He knew what he did and that the child that Bathsheba was pregnant with would die in judgment. Violation of depth can be dangerous.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

INTRODUCTION ESCAPE FROM BABYLON

We are all born into a labyrinthian program. The key is to figure out the mystery of what transpired before we were born. There's no conception without planting seed. The impregnation births an umbilical "cord" which is a lifeline between the child and the nurturer. Abortion is to kill the child and sever the cord. If the child survives long enough to switch environments, one cord is justifiably cut and others are formed with respect for the nurturing channels that we plug into.

They say that history is "his-story." Job 9:24 warns, "The earth is given into the hands of the wicked: he conceals the face of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he?" Satan admitted in the wilderness temptation that he establishes officials over worldly governments, but we don't find this truth in the history books!

Satan's physical kingdom was created in the spiritual kingdom of heaven. He became the great red dragon, and his government is described as having seven heads with crowns that represent a complete government. He is also described as possessing ten horns that symbolize a powerful military force. The Bible teaches us that Rome/Babylon is the consummation of all world empires, so this means that his senate, congress, and executive branch were created in heaven. After we receive this intelligence we are informed that a war broke out in which The Archangel Michael and "his" angels defeated Satan's kingdom and they were cast down to earth. As soon as we learn about this satanic Babylonian occupation by condemned angels on planet earth we are informed in the next chapter that their goal is to enslave humanity through a satanic economic system sponsored by The Antichrist, the world government (United Nations) and banking system! The world will be forced to pledge their allegiance to Satan by voluntarily receiving a technological implant microchip. Whoever refuses the implant will be financially and socially ostracized seeing that they won't be able to buy or sell products.

Satan as the father of Babylon revealed to us that his first objective was to corrupt distribution. If he can't stop a million books on Christian-Deliverance from being published he'll attempt to sabotage the printing press so that a million books will be printed but they will be full of errors and damage. He wishes to control the creation, licensing, and distribution of products. Babylon attempts to establish foreign and domestic embargos on authentic ministry material. If Babylon "floods" the world with pornography and lust are they not encouraging child birth for the purpose of killing half via abortion and using the other half to possess demonically or enslave through the brainwashing of multi-media? There must be Nymphomaniac spirits that govern his Sex Industry. We learn from The Book of Enoch and Genesis that he sponsored and taught Cain's line how to advance through the science of economy, machines/tools, architecture, and musical instruments. It's ironic that Babylon and its Catholic church are known for financial pomp, magnificent architectural feats, mammoth geo-engineering machines, and wonderful musical orchestras.

The Bible forbids provoking, or indulging in another person's nakedness. In Numbers 33:52 Israel is commanded to, "destroy all their pictures, and destroy all their molten images, and quite pluck down all their high places:" The Hebrew word for pictures is "Maskiyth" it is defined as any kind of impression that is made upon a surface. We are speaking of portraits, photographs, and motion picture films! Not only is there a spirit of perverse voyeurism over Babylon but each generation of humans that Satan's kingdom possess publish and sell pornography.

Ham is the father of Babylon and the pervert. Through the line of Cain and Ham we find the lands of Sodom, Egypt, Babylon, and Canaan Etc, Babylon has attempted to master financial entrapment through its father Nimrod who was the first great hunter who mastered traps and snares. Financial entrapment involves unrighteous laws that place criminal blame on those who violate false contracts! This is the story of the 666 implant. Nimrod founded Babylonian ideology therefore he birthed the campaign for the building of The Tower of Babylon. It was the first New York Empire State. Abraham was called out of Babylon by God. Because in Daniel we learn that Satan's statue represented 1. Head-Babylon 2. Chest and Arms-Persia 3. Belly and Thighs-Greece 4. Legs-Rome, we should learn that all of Satan's other kingdoms were predecessors and successors to Babylon. Egypt represents forced slavery, but Babylon represents assimilation via education, diet, and ostentatious luxury. Why do people sell-out or become traitors for Babylon? The answer involves the bribe. In Daniel the government established idolatry laws to force acts of sin and direct praise. Daniel and his Hebrew brothers rebelled against both laws and were sentenced to death by fire and beast but God delivered them in each case! In the Book of Esther Queen Vashti refused to attend the king's pompous party and was dethroned. If they can't change you they will try to buy you!

The key to dominion is to regulate "time" and "space" which represent schedule and real-estate. We are speaking of occupation/employment and real-estate/paying rent! In the scriptures God gave man money in the form of seeds. Seeds represent, even in economics, the law of reciprocity which truth is that when you plant or invest a seed, the seed will multiply by myriads! There are many kinds of seeds and "Wells/resources" but to name several we are speaking of vegetable and wheat seeds, breeding animals such as sheep and chicken that produce commodities, and wells, which are natural resources such as water and oil wells! Babylon seizes land through secularism in order to control the seeds, breeding, and wells. The only form of financial stability left involves products, labor, and service. Babylonians only purchase sinful products, hire people to labor in sinful activities, and provide sinful services! Satan didn't want people to have an independent medium of exchange in the market-place so he created government sanctioned money as a “promissory-note” as if the money is backed up by gold or silver. Money represents something valuable that can be used with respect for “trade-leverage.” The Mark of the Beast suggests that money will become an electronic record whose value will really lie in the hands of the “technological-bankers” which will be those who hold the power; not to pass financial paper-notes but to program financial increases and decreases! The power and value will shift from an object to a person or computer who rewards those who sin and then open up their “satanic purse” (666 implant.) The conquering of time and space was accomplished hundreds of years ago when the Catholic church named the seven day work week after pagan Gods. Monday-Moon day, Thursday-Thor’s day, Sunday-The Sun’s day. They accomplished the same with the months. July-Julius Caesar month, August-Caesar August month, March- The God Mars. They even renamed the planets. Mercury, Venus (Lucifer), Mars, Jupiter Etc. We’re speaking of Time, Real-Estate, Employment, and Finance. Babylon’s religion is Greco-Roman Mythology.

Isaiah 14:12 asks, “How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer,” Lucifer means “Venus,” which represents “lust,” but it’s first and foremost the planet that “blocks” the Earth from sunlight when aligned.

Image and estate must signify a marriage of identity because Jude 6 reads, “And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.” In Revelation 12, Satan’s sin and perversion of image instigated a war! Revelation 12:7-9, “And there was war in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world; he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him."

Psychological absoluteness is a product of contrived environments that creates the illusion of uniformity via mental encroachment. 2 Corinthians 4:3-4 reads, "But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them." Satan represents "democracy," meaning governed by the people. God's nation, Israel, was created to be a theocracy! A theocracy is governed by God and his elect officials. Satan's global kingdom is called Babylon.

A secular theocracy attempts to pervert truth by mixing paganism with religion. In a theocracy, the government, academia, arts, sports, medicine, entertainment, marriage, aesthetics, and culture are channeled through a Judeo-Christian world view! Abraham is the father of Israel's religion. Jacob is the father of Israel's nation. David is the father of Israel's theocracy.

Theocracy, monarchy, and democracy are founded upon the supremacy of "bloodlines." Iesous still has a bloodline operating on earth via Joseph, Mary, and his brothers and sisters! Man's bloodline is perverse due to Satan's poisoning of Adam and Eve. Therefore, the worldly aristocratic royal bloodline is a scam that "really" relies on the privileges of breeding, grooming, education, technology, and travel afforded by wealth! Aristocrats are born into a life of privilege and opportunity.

At the time of Iesous' birth, Israel was a theocracy operating like a democracy as we see from the spirit over the crowd when our Lord's life hung in the balance as they cried, "Crucify him." A foul image has been placed on Judeo-Christianity by Satan's kingdom just as the Romans used to place the criminal charges on billboards over crucified victims. Iesous was executed as a criminal, and his charge was sedition, blasphemy, and usurpation of Herod's kingship which charge is essentially impersonating a king! Iesous birth was humble; it wasn't in an aristocratic setting. Luke 2:7 informs us, "And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes: and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn." Luke 6:20 reads, "Blessed are ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of heaven."

Revelation 18:2-10 reads, "And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her. And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.”

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER ONE THE ARMOR OF GOD

το πανοπλια θεος

Everything operates according to an established system of organization. Chaos is misplacement. Efficiency is to accomplish the desired effect by placing an instrument in its designed environment. A fish out of water dies. Even whales become stranded on the beach when they forsake their depth. What good is a professional pool player who owns a top notch stick but has no table and balls? Placement allows practice. Foundation is anything that supports the weight of a thing. To put-on is to activate by touching. When men and women put-on cologne or perfume, it is for the purpose of “awakening” the higher sensuality of smell. What are the things that are sleeping in your being? Why would you allow yourself to be provoked into a behavior that you didn’t know was lying dormant in your soul? What are you capable of? Triggers rarely if ever resemble the activation and consequential result. If you don’t comprehend triggers, you will become shocked by the activation and result.

When foundations crack or break, we begin to feel like we are falling. We either “dress” or we find ourselves “wearing” a decoration that was placed on us. How many things do we “turn on” every day? Televisions, radios, computers, cars, stoves etc. Action is powerful because it is to “change” environments. If I throw a ball at someone, they must react. They will either catch it or allow it to hit them. The Apostle Paul instructed us in Ephesians 6:11 to, “Put-on the entire armor of God...” Spiritual rape can also manifest through a forced reaction. Because Satan attacks us with his wiles, we must “Put-on” God’s armor. Adornments create presence. Whether a person who is wearing a gun or knife uses it or not still creates a “presence.” Presence manifests when you feel a “vibe,” but it also represents potential. The presence of certain things is really a “threat.” A threat is a hostile promise that has yet to unfold.

THE WILES OF THE DEVIL

What is a wile? It’s an evil event that was planned involving a large group of possessed souls intended to sabotage an unwitting victim. Surprise birthday parties should give you a clear picture of how Satan schedules his events. An event can only be justified based upon an occasion. An occasion is the reason for a celebration. Some occasions conceal the event, and some events conceal the occasion.

Satan makes films which consist of talented actors, writers, directors, stuntmen, and producers. They congregate for months or years to complete a project that will be released to the entire world, and think that they partook in art, not knowing that they were a part of a wile of Satan.

Lack of preparation testifies to one’s foolishness. Every significant move that we make is an “adventure.” Many times when people suffer calamity, they end up listening to the people around them ask the question, “How could you have allowed yourself to walk into a trap?” Foresight and hindsight gives you twenty-twenty vision! Praise God for his deliverance!

WE WRESTLE NOT AGAINST FLESH AND BLOOD

Who cares about authority figures and rank? How come when people become dissatisfied with service in business they ask to speak to superiors? The Apostle Paul informed us that we are fighting against fallen angels who possess humans and who operate like pieces on a chess board. Rank teaches you about a person's degree of excellence, and it shows you where you stand in relation to the design. Obviously, there are different ranking systems. You must look at the criteria for positioning someone within a numbered system. In war, they call it breaking through the ranks.

STANDING

Standing is to operate freely, openly, and authoritatively in the place where you belong. If there's opposition, it is so that you won't attempt to stand. When you fight to stand, which makes it more difficult, you are still standing! Fighting in many ways is a higher form of standing because it causes you to excel to greater heights than before you were attacked. People stand financially, socially, sexually, athletically, fashion-wise, etc. God enables us to stand. The Apostle Paul teaches us that to stand we must master "the power of pro-creative sexuality." One of the most powerful forces on planet Earth is sexuality because it is what preserves the race and populates the world. The good news is that it's a powerful attraction and manufacturer that can be "concealed." The power and attraction of it is founded upon "exposure." This should teach us that sexual attacks are aimed at the eyes, ears, and flesh. The text reads, "having your loins girt about with truth."

Standing is emotional and it involves courage. Triumph must be at the expense of those who might try to trick you into thinking that you aren't successful or that you shouldn't be acting in such an open way and manner. Satan isn't going to just sit back and watch you triumph, and he isn't going to verbally, physically, or spiritually validate your success. How many times have we watched celebrities in the world break down emotionally at the moments of their greatest achievements? Standing is emotional just as falling is emotional. Standing at first involves what you try to do, but then it turns into who you are! Your heart is your being. An attack on your heart is an attack on your identity. The text reads, “having on the chest plate of righteousness.” You need your feet to stand. Satan will try to cripple, blind, maim, or kill you. Spiritually your feet represent your “leaps.” Moves are life-changing actions that destroy past troubles. Every situation in life that we find ourselves in, whether good or bad, involved our feet bringing us to that “place.” Your feet reveal your intentions. The text reads, “having your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace.” Know who you are trying to evangelize to!

The most important weapon we learn is the shield of faith. Blocking saves your life. Faith itself has saved your life! What are we trying to block? The Apostle Paul teaches us that Satan’s kingdom uses long range weapons. Long range weapons remove the appearance of the users of those weapons. When you see a person who looks suspicious, you have an idea of what they are “carrying;” but when long range weapons land near or hit you, it causes you to wonder where the shooter is hidden. The text speaks of multifaceted weapons such as fire tipped arrows. Not only does the arrow stick in you, but the fire also sets you aflame; so even if you remove the arrow you’ll still have to extinguish the fire which the shield of faith does!

Standing is ideological. Are you saved? Can your Salvation be taken? Knowing the truth of this matter will bring you eternal “comfort.” It’s an area where you won’t feel threatened or jeopardized. The text calls this the “helmet of salvation;” it will encourage you to fight more bravely knowing that if you do die you will have eternal life in heaven.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

How can you fight with no “offensive weapon?” To slay is to kill by striking with sweeping strokes that almost appear to be malevolently poetic. Intelligence is the ability to perceive the interrelationships of things. Satan’s kingdom fights intelligently. The sword of the spirit is the oracle of God: the omniscient, omnipresent word. It’s truth and doctrine. You can’t have one without the other.

How can you stand without praying? Pray, pray, pray, pray, pray, pray, pray! Build a wall of prayer. Prayer works and stretches beyond the physical limitations of our hands and feet, just as our words travel the world. Rebukes, binding, loosing, and exorcisms involve our efforts, but prayer involves praise, and asking God to provide us with that which we are struggling to obtain! If we don’t put on God’s armor, we won’t be able to stand against Satan’s kingdom!

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER TWO THE BATTLE FOR THE MIND

Proverbs 25:28 "He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls."

Life and death decisions are made every day. In dangerous times we are forced to make "judgment calls." Balance is symbolized by the number two. We have "two" eyes, ears, nostrils, hands, feet, lips, and arms. Equilibrium/balance is maintained by cross referencing weights or virtue and vice. Our mind is similar to a scale containing "two" measuring containers and a middle pillar. Equal balance in the traditional sense removes "contrast" with respect for equal leverage. Merchandise of varying values when brought into equality through trade channels oftentimes reflects no similarity in appearance, quality, or quantity.

The decision making faculty of our mind is constantly searching and "weighing" things in order to "arrive" at conclusions. The decision making process involves implementing and rejecting. "Confusion" is a state of inactivity with respect for decision making, and judgment calls! 1 Corinthians 14:33 teaches us, "For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace." Confusion hinders progress. Confusion can't even enter into one's mind if the person doesn't "commit" to the act of trying to solve an enigma that doesn't concern them. Isaiah 9:5 teaches us that confusion is associated with noise, "For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise." Our invisible warfare shouldn't become a catapult of confusion just because we don't always see it with our two physical eyes. Hebrews 11:1 teaches us, "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Isaiah 11:1 speaking of Iesous reads, "...and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:"

Inactivity appears to spectators to be the fruit of many things including confusion. Those who are affected by popular opinion or satanic culture are in danger of embracing a false diagnosis which obviously leads to a false medication. One of the most "freezing" attacks of Satan's kingdom involves "shock tactics." A paralyzed mind is one that has been confronted/ smashed with something extraordinary that is totally illogical to one's reason. Once a person becomes "accustomed" to maniacal circumstances, shock has the potential to resolve into acquiescence. Anything Satanic that you whole heartedly reject could manifest as "trauma" when you are confronted with that omen; because trauma is to trigger a revisitation of something that at one time shocked you. A vehicular operator might go into shock after being in a life threatening accident, and then suffer trauma whenever they witness another accident not involving them. They were traumatized by the horrible experience. These two altered states affect the will. The "will" involves the strength of your determination to accomplish a goal. Every action performed by people, or groups is an act of the individual or collective will. Shock and trauma tend to remove the consciousness of one's will to act. Your will is active in every area where you have decided to succeed.

Negative feedback and apparently ineffective responses will undoubtedly affect a novice's will and determination to act. Iesous taught us in Matthew 11:17 that we have a select audience, "...We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented." In such a case one might consider "the ministry" as being merely an interruption and obnoxious distraction.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Oftentimes when we attempt to maneuver in an important area we are oftentimes confronted with “memories,” which either encourage or discourage us. Memory is a component of our soul and mind that evolves based upon self commitment or outward impressions. Some occurrences are so impactful and impressionable that we will remember them whether we wish to or not! Memory is abstract storage that when evoked and conjured up recreates the feelings, and emotions, of significant experiences. To forget is to cancel the value of a memory. Proverbs 10:7 reads, “The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.” Our past, attempts to live in our minds as a form of abstract “memory-lane.” 2 Corinthians 5:17 teaches us, “Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.”

The enemy hunts us in our minds. He wants us to operate in a state of emotional fragility. Emotions are powerful spirits, urges and expressions that govern our character. Some of the major emotions are joy, love, anger, jealousy, fear, and hate. We operate according to emotions that we feel, but all things make us experience certain feelings that trigger emotions. Perverse feelings create perverse emotions. Emotions are difficult to control, which teaches us the importance of them as an underlying factor in the paths of success. As saints we must change how we felt about many things in the world, and about our emotional responses to sin and injustice. Ecclesiastes 8:5 teaches us, “Whoso keeps the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man’s heart discerns both time and judgment.”

Our temperament is an integral part of our will. It represents the faculty that estimates what we will allow and what we will punish. Our temper doesn’t only concern our “emotional reactions” it also concerns our verbal and physical responses. How can you possibly acknowledge that which you will execute, without constantly revisiting it in your mind? And how can you acknowledge that which you won't do without exercising the same practice? Certain people have appetites for particular emotions and temperaments. Some people feed off of the energy of anger, the sensuality of lust, and the ambition of greed. Satan uses appetites, cravings, fetishes, desires, lusts, and passions as weapons in spiritual warfare. We must be able to tolerate temptations. Matthew 4:3 reads, "...And when the tempter came..." Our emotions and temperament will be tested whenever the tempter comes. The word "temperament" means, "measurement."

We are driven by our passions! The "passions" that we had in the world become frivolous burdens once we enter into "The Kingdom." Passions are bodies of life-callings that co-inside with one's talents, gifts, and focus. God has given us passions such as praying, teaching, preaching, reading, healing, and ministering. When our worldly passions are removed we could begin to feel that our heart has been changed. We might feel like we've been robbed of something that we cherished. That our dreams have been murdered. But any passion that God has removed was done so for an excellent reason. Our passions excite our soul, spirit and mind. There was a time when we couldn't have imagined that we would lose our passions for fashion, athletics, and finance.

Our imagination is created from the images that we receive. Imagination involves what is possible and that which could be considered fantasy or a dream. Basically we're speaking of things that one might consider to be out of their reach and beyond their potential! Some of us nurtured sinful ambitions in the world before God granted us salvation!

Consciousness is the root of focus. Anything that is in your scope of vision whether mentally or visually affects your conscience and subconscious. Your conscience is your moral compass but it also concerns everything that you're conscious of. Sinners don't think in the truest sense; they stress and worry. They walk in a different spirit and zone. Ephesians calls their zone "the course of this world."

Prophetic abilities involve reading present or future events with your mind via God's input. The Holy Spirit communicates to our mind. 1 Corinthians 2:11 reads, "For what man knows the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God." The prophetic mind reveals secrets. We read in 1 Corinthians 14:24, "But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believes not, one that is unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all: And thus the secrets of his heart made manifest;"

Mentality is your style of thinking; it is associated with intellect and attitude. Mentalities are formed based upon "big" ideologies such as race, religion, region, finance etc. Intellect is one's faculty of perception and intelligence, which involves how you look at and define people and circumstances. Your mentality dictates how you feel about something which is called attitude. Feelings and attitudes differ in that feelings are real time, but attitudes are pre-developed. Meaning that you will form attitudes before you walk into certain situations. This should teach us that, you will experience certain feelings "at the onset" of certain endeavors. Attitudes are pro and reactive.

I was shown a book by a former acquaintance and told to find the picture; but the picture was obviously what was in my face, or so I thought! Several other people who had been instructed to indulge in the same test became animated when they saw something that I missed. I grabbed the book and looked again from a “frontal peripheral” viewpoint and began to notice a picture “pop-out” from beneath the main picture! I learned from that experience the lesson of dynamic focus. There are so many areas of the mind that we must focus on!

If we don’t awaken to our identity, how are we supposed to succeed in life? The battle for the mind has a lot to do with “interests.” Know your interests! Emotional and mental breakdowns are the product of “damaged collectiveness,” which manifests via division or fragmented bodies. We can’t afford to allow all of the aforementioned spirits to operate turbulently in our souls. I’m speaking of inner conflicts. Many of the problems in the world are external, but we learn from scripture that the main one, which is sin, is internal. James 4:1 asks, “From where come wars and fighting among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?” Romans 8:6-7 warns, “For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God:”

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER THREE THE BOOK REFORMATION

Jeremiah 17:1 “The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars;”

The truth is an accurate depiction or authentic occurrence that aligns with divine law or “evil.” Since the beginning of civilization the pen/engraver has been used to reveal secrets and record the human experience. King David in Psalm 64:2 spoke of “..the secret counsel of the wicked;” Who are the people that get granted the exclusive privilege of listening in on the confidential conversations of powerful men and women? Psalm 18:21 teaches us that, “Death and life are in the power of the tongue...”

To those disciples who have “transcended” the physical world, walls are “mirrors” that reflect either honest or deceptive projections. Words are “serious,” they have the potential to baptize us in different spirits. Proverbs 18:4 reads, “The words of a man’s mouth are as deep waters,” The tongue and pen/ engraver are similar in that they both “pronounce,” but only one records. The Hebrew word for “pen” is “et” it originates from a root that means, “to swoop down upon,” this definition derives from the fact that the Hebrews used bird’s claws for pens. Planes land, in a sense, only to refuel, because they are created to stay ascended.

Recklessly putting pen to paper in the name of secular freedom doesn’t grant one impunity from the consequences of slaying souls with sharp swords that drip ink instead of blood! Anything that has the power to capture the human experience becomes evidence and a witness. Today we use capturing devices such as cameras, computer software, keyboards, voice, and video recorders. Court room artists capture the scene by drawing the occupants of the event.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Writing and drawing are very similar in that, when writing, one describes spoken words, ideas, or scenery by engraving symbols, but with drawing one duplicates images in his imagination or that he sees by engraving myriads of shapes and colors. A picture enables you to witness what has been revealed in a presentation forcing you to figure out what it is that you are seeing. That's why many pictures are accompanied with captions, and films use subtitles. We can't always trust the aforementioned.

In contrast to pictures, we have words which are "names." Words describe a thing, but pictures show you a thing. In order to solve a picture or word, you need access or the privilege to "handle" the picture or word.

The Bible informs us that God created Adam, but it doesn't inform us that God taught Adam how to talk as parents teach their children. The scriptures inform us that Adam named the animals, but he might have also drawn the animals in the sand. Adam had to have been the first one to engrave and draw what he heard, spoke, thought, and saw. How did The Book of Enoch survive the flood? Noah, after the flood, must have been not only the preserver of human life but also of truth, the written word and engraved pictures. Engraving and drawing is a distinctly human trait that is perfected based upon one's "signature" that manifests in strokes and weighty or light impressions. A computer device lacks the ability to capture the human "touch" of art.

In A Universal History of the Destruction of Books by Fernando Baez, he writes, "In Greece, the partial elimination of the archives was authorized, as happened in 405 B.C.E ...the process by which the senate practiced the 'damnation of memory,' obliterating the memory of all those it classified as infamous. Among other things, damnatio memoriae erased the name of the affected person from all inscriptions, books, and monuments. Anyone who tears apart or burns a book repeats that classic pattern.”

Capturing-devices preserve memory. To destroy evidence is to destroy witness and memory. When the Hebrews created their alpha-bet, they must’ve been regarded as cryptic symbols that were esteemed by the enemy as ciphers and puzzles that were to be solved. If you try to read literature from a foreign nation, the letters will appear to you as being cryptic symbols. During World War II, the Germans were communicating with each other using machines that created cryptic messages that utilized numbers and letters. In the scriptures, we have an example of password and cryptic enforcement. In Judges 12:5-6 we read, “And the Gileadites took the passages of Jordan before the Ephraimites: and it was so, that when those Ephraimites which were escaped said, Let me go over; that the men of Gilead said unto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay; Then said they unto him, Say now Shibboleth: and he said Sibboleth: for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him, and slew him at the passages of Jordan:”

To obtain another nation’s royal and library books meant that you had access to their secrets and technology! The authors of these manuscripts and books sometimes wrote in code to conceal the vision. In Isaiah 29:11-12 we read, “And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed: And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.” Reading is the phenomena of self-enchancement via intellectualizing symbols that translate into mental pictures that stimulate the senses creating an experience. Today, books are made of paper, leather, and ink, which necessitate a multitude of sacrifices involving the aforementioned: 1. trees 2. Animals 3. Dye. Even the Holy Book of Israel was covered by blood. In Hebrews 9:19 we read, "For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people," Blood and censorship of literature has plagued the truth since the dawn of civilization. Satan's Catholic Church is the number one antagonist concerning preserving what 1 Timothy 4:1 calls, "...the doctrines of devils..." In Fernando Baez's book he writes, "What alarmed the Roman Catholic Church was not Protestantism's teachings but its success. In 1542, Pope Paul III created the Sacred Congregation of the Roman Inquisition of the Holy Office. The medieval inquisition was ruthless with regard to all heresies that might cause political problems, while the Holy Office focused on theologians and priests, tracking down any suspect idea through a network of spies and mercenaries. Pope Paul IV, a fanatic who suffered enormous emotional problems, ordered the Holy Office to make a list of the books most dangerous to the faith, and in 1559 the fearsome Index Librorum Prohibitorum, or Index of Prohibited Books, was first published."

The Holy Bible has the power to impart the Holy Ghost, eternal life, and supernatural gifts upon its readers. Saints are witnesses to the witness of the power of God's word. The orthodox churches of the East and West have both propagated false dogma and doctrine for the benefit of their own satanic exploits. In 2 Timothy 3:16 the Greek word for "profitable" literally concerns finance! The church was instructed by The Apostle Paul to create doctrinal books from the Bible. We read in the aforementioned passage, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine..." An authentic doctrine is divine evidence and an authoritative point of reference. In Evidence by George Fisher we read, “Relevant evidence’ means evidence having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of the action more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence.”

Every government is ruled by either a Sacred Book or Pagan Document. Aristocratic youth leaders of the world are groomed, bred and educated for success in Ivy League academies. Most of them are biblically illiterate or erroneously indoctrinated. Josiah was a young aristocratic king whose government guidance counselors had neglected to provide him with the Torah of teachings and laws that were necessary to govern Israel according to God’s orders. We learn in 2 Kings 22:1-2 that Josiah was unswerving in his limited knowledge, but nonetheless ignorant of many things because of the absence of this Book that Satan had removed from the land. We read, “Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. ...And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.”

Josiah didn’t have his priorities in order because he didn’t know them. In good faith he sent his scribe to the Temple to make sure that the construction team that was working on the restoration of the Temple was being compensated, but in the midst of this misallocated financial inquisition we read in 2 Kings 22:8-11, “And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the Lord. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of the Lord. And Shaphan the scribe showed the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he tore his clothes.” When Josiah found out that he had been tricked, and that there was only one “master copy” of the book left, he sent a commissioned team to Jerusalem to authenticate it at the word of a prophetess. After the authentication, he held a theocratic inauguration to celebrate the retrieval of the lost Book, which was attended by government officials and the citizens of Israel.

King Josiah’s Book Reform involved destroying idolatrous priests, orgy-groves, sodomite whorehouses, and occultists. When Josiah died, his son became king, and Shaphan’s son was also a scribe who worked under Josiah’s son Jehoiakim. The Book that Josiah found must have been destroyed by Satan except for a copy brought back from the Babylonian/Persian captivity by Ezra, because God commands Jeremiah to write a new book with the help of Baruch the scribe. Josiah’s son didn’t react like his father did. He instead threw the book into his fireplace. In Jeremiah 36:22-26 we read, “Now the king sat in the winter house in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him. And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth. Yet they were not afraid, nor tore their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words. Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.”Neither Jeremiah, Baruch, nor Josiah’s son protected this book as his father protected the Torah; therefore, God made Jeremiah write a new book!

Satan has a global Publishing Empire, and he attacks God's word through false translations of the Bible and publishing his own pseudo Christian books. Because Satan destroyed Enoch's book, we are left with only short quotes in Peter and Jude's Epistles. As Judeo-Christians, we must place our biblical and doctrinal literature under the highest security.

CHAPTER FOUR PRICED ABOVE RUBIES

Everything has a value. Value is estimated via analyzing availability, materials, imports/exports, distribution, labor, and utility. Jewels are called so because of their rarity. Jewelers cross reference gems, which is an interesting topic because it involves “attaching” jewels of different value in order to “create” necklaces and rings. Most jewelers won’t create a chain containing diamonds, emeralds, and fake silver or gold. How many of us have found ourselves deceived by “fool’s gold?”

There’s the expression, “don’t throw the baby out of the window with the bath water!” John the Baptist taught us that Jesus would separate the wheat from the chaff. Cheap products are dangerous when they are placed in a situation where lives are forced to depend on them. It would be like if you took a professional race car driver and put him in a Lamborghini with cheap rubber tires; he’s likely to end up in an accident.

Value systems vary across gender, and cultural lines. The Jews are called “The People of the Book.” In Samson, James L. Crenshaw writes, “Dying words linger in our memory long after other pronouncements have fallen victim to the oblivion of past time. So significant were deathbed utterances that a literary form evolved early in ancient Israel governing the character of testaments. A patriarch’s final wishes established destinies. His sons and grandsons waited anxiously for the paternal blessing, and implemented it by word and deed. The occasion of the dying word was solemn, one could even say sacred. For it was then that a father voiced his most precious wish for his children, and at this time that his priorities captured the imaginations of all involved.” Sinners don’t value a relationship with God, but yet they hope that he will hear their last words in times of near or sudden death.

There are places where precious things can be found, and where they can be purified and polished. Job 28:1 teaches us, "Surely there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they refine it." Souls are precious despite the fact that abortionists consider the value to only exist when souls are outside of the womb in a natural birth. While the child is in the woman's belly abortionists consider the soul to be of no value! Value must be taken out of many things; this is why you oftentimes witness trainers encouraging and driving athletes to tap into their inner strength. How do you know what is inside of you unless you pull it out? Job 28:2 teaches us, "Iron is taken out of the earth, and brass is molten out of the stone." Value is a creation therefore it has limitations set by the creator or creators. Everything is measured in space and time. I'm sure that you've heard of the expression, "diamonds in the rough." There are precious jewels that are or have been buried in darkness. Job 28:3 "He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death." Death casts a shadow!

In the East water was and is very valuable because of Middle Eastern climates. Spiritual water is that which quenches our soulish thirsts. Excess of value doesn't always signify longevity because we read in Job 28:4 "The flood breaks forth out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men."

There are valuable paths. Some things come along with the territory. Valuables in the secular sense have no moral absoluteness. Birds monopolize jet streams, Vultures track dead bodies, and those prey who travel in the paths of lions are constantly warned when the lion roars. Job 28:7-8 teaches us, "There is a path which no fowl knows, and which the vulture's eye has not seen: The lion's whelp has not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it." What is more valuable than a relationship with God and the benefits of wisdom that derive from it? Wisdom can only come from several places, 1. God 2. Angels 3. The Holy Spirit 4. People 5. Books. Job 28:12 reads, "But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?"

Why do people of modest means always worry and ask about the price of things? Value must be investigated. Job 28:13 reads, "Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living." In prisons convicts get killed over cigarettes and candy bars, in homeless shelters used clothes are very valuable, the homeless fight over recyclable redemption cans! Commercial products in the world are devalued through the "excess" of industry. Supply and demand forces industry to produce products that lose value because of their excess.

A price isn't only a salary-ceiling it's also a security measure that removes the possibility of purchase. Some things are out of people's price-range. Job 28: 15 speaking of wisdom, reads, "It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof." Exchange involves products changing from "hand to hand" where two parties "claim" to be providing something of equal value. Many professionals receive compensation for the wisdom that they provide their clients, but wisdom can't be bought in the sense of cancelling a debt. How are we indebted to those who teach us dark wisdom? We aren't indebted; we rather become enlightened and warned! Job 28:17-18 warns, "The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold. No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies."

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER FIVE DIABOLICAL

An Action is an attempt to “Change” (placement,) by attacking a target with one’s choice of a “body” of armor and weaponry. The armor and weaponry is either “Alive/exploding” or “dead/inactive.” Change is rearrangement. It’s to change the “range” of something. Range is to establish order by categorically placing things in “harmony” with their relative power with respect for their counterparts. Action is the fruit of the mind’s plan. Fruit is anything that is produced from something else. Change is the fruit of action. A seed is a body compressed into a feasible size that allows the impregnation of a womb. We are speaking of the law of Growth and Nurture. That which is nurtured will grow and that which has grown was nurtured. The seed’s guaranteed potential is only promised based upon the “womb of nurturing.” Just as electricity requires a positive and negative charge, all things require a seed and womb in order to birth a harvest.

The mind calculates and arrives at conclusions that instigate actions toward goals. A plan is a calculated series of harmonious steps. The mind can choose to conceal a plan, but the execution of a plan will always reveal the mind that created it. So, in a sense, action is the unveiling of the mind. The “hatching” of the plan is the “opening” which creates a “wedge” that blocks closure. The Bible teaches that without a planned course of action the people perish. Proverbs 29:18 “Where there is no vision, the people perish:” You should be able to see the vision in your mind before you witness it with your eyes!

The mind consists of your will, emotions, intellect, intelligence, wisdom, mentality, feelings, attitude, heart, style, likes, dislikes, knowledge, consciousness, gifts, focus, senses, and strength. The collaborative effort of the mind is the government of the body.

The U.S Government is comprised of Executive, Educational, Financial, Legislative, Military, and Judicial branches. The mind of America is its governmental doctrine. Everything is governed. The universe is governed by laws. Laws represent either justified or condemned actions. Every action is either legal or criminal. The survival instinct is dangerously strong with respect for humans and governments. Survival doesn't only concern preserving life; it also involves birthing life. In China, currently there's a ban on how many children a couple can bring into this world. The survival instinct involves either an innate self defense mechanism or formulated plan. Impregnation is to orchestrate the surrender of the will of the opposite sex in order to dominate with the intention to impregnate with seed that reproduces the genetic make-up of both people. Impregnation without consent or permission is called "rape." People, descriptions, things, places, actions, governments, and the mind can be raped. Everything in the earth realm that is born is comprised of "two" seeds-masculine and feminine.

On 9/11 the mind of America was attacked! The Twin Towers represented the mind of finance, the Pentagon the mind of military, and the White House the mind of Executive power. Satan's mind was concealed "behind" iron curtains and silk veils until certain "actions" were executed. The word "Hijack" means, "to seize control of the operators of "moving" vehicles whether on the ground or while in the sky." It's a spiritual robbery and hostage situation. There are also psychological hijacks. In 2 Corinthians 10:3-6 we read, "For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:(For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds;)

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; and having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.”

Satan’s kingdom understands the principle of knowledge and ignorance. This principle has the potential to instill arrogant confidence in those who might feel privileged and secure based upon another person’s incompetency, which might inspire them to restrict or ban literature in an attempt to oppress the poor, as took place with respect for African American Slavery. You would think that everyone would feel safe if everyone became aviation experts, but the argument can be made that the more people who learn how to fly planes increases the potential for hijacks. Because not everyone knows how to fly a plane, people feel as if this inadequacy guarantees their safety! Systematic oppression attempts to regulate education, career requirements, resources and their allocation.

Satan wasn’t concerned with the planes; he was concerned with the “operators.” It’s dangerous when you think that you can’t be “REPLACED.” Satan attacked America’s NATIONAL SECURITY. Security manifests in so many forms. We carry social “security” cards, people purchase life “insurance,” and almost everything is guarded in some way. Satan attempts to get “IN.” He got into the Garden of Eden, Eve, The Holy of Holies, Judas Iscariot! Who can afford the price and cost of the security system that keeps the DEVIL out?!

This was the first attack on the mind. It was an attack on the mind’s confidence in some ridiculous safety that is supposed to arise from the exclusivity of knowledge and exclusion of ignorance. When Satan planned the attack he knew the amount of damage that would be caused. How can ignorance make an “assessment?” The blueprint reveals the strength of a structure. Traditionally in war, strength isn’t only assessed based upon materials and their compatibility or even the concrete elements that threaten them; instead strength is often assessed based upon “accessibility.” America doesn’t believe in Satan or his kingdom so therefore they didn’t believe or know that they had been assessed. They also felt that the materials that would be needed to cause such damage weren’t accessible. The American mind didn’t consider airplanes as being potential “weapons of mass destruction.” What about the team? When we think of American teams we think about sports teams and the Olympic mind which is driven toward the gold medal. This team of terrorists wasn’t concerned with winning a trophy their mind was trained to believe that victory comes from a suicidal death in the authority of a holy war! America didn’t imagine a death squad of suicidal fanatics trying to win at the game of destruction. We are speaking of diabolical secret agendas and the teams that work together to accomplish historical feats of destruction.

Satan’s kingdom also understood the power of threats. The terrorists didn’t smuggle bombs onto the planes, because they couldn’t, instead they used small knives, physical and verbal threats. The control was “psychological.” Was the threat real or a lie? They did actually have a bomb, but the bomb was the plane itself. So, we should learn from this historical lesson that the mind will freeze the actions of the body at times based upon a “bluff.” A bluff is a colloquial term used to describe a deception that is being promoted as truth by enforcing the lie with bravado and exaggerated arrogance. I can imagine that some people had the mind to say, “If you have a bomb, let me see it?” The terrorists were outnumbered and the passengers had more weapons. How many plastic knives, forks, sharp keys and belts did the passengers have?

The key words here are safe and mind. The mind builds safety nets, and if they don't work the mind doesn't feel safe. Satan attacked the American Mind and its comfort with respect for safety. Whatever the mind thinks affects the entire body through the neurological system. Not only did two out of the three targets suffer devastation but several other buildings were "rocked." To rock is to shatter the foundation and structure of an establishment.

Ultimately it was an issue of "air-traffic control." The planes weren't flying under or over the radar; they were American airplanes that didn't inspire any suspicion. Isn't there a lesson to be learned here about spiritual warfare and spiritual air-traffic control? 1 Corinthians 2:16 reads, "...we have the mind of Christ."

Psalm 64 reads, "Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy. Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity: Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words: That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not. They encourage themselves in an evil matter: they commune of laying snares privately; they say, who shall see them? They search out iniquities; they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them and the heart, is deep. But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly shall they be wounded. So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away. And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing. The righteous shall be glad in the Lord, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory."

CHAPTER SIX STARTING AND FINISHING

Luke 14:28-29 “For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and count the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Lest haply, after he has laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that (behold it) begin to mock him,”

The ultimate form of agreement is co-operation, not of a group, but of mind, heart, soul, and spirit. Remain “ONE” in your mind’s focus. Collaborative efforts share responsibility, blame and reward whereas individuality doesn’t. The mind is the “head” of government. In Nehemiah 4:6 we read that the people had a “mind to work/build.” How can we stay focused on building without “Mind-Consciousness?” Where is your mind?

Iesous taught us that when undertaking a building project one of the first principles that we must apply is budgeting. Unfinished or error plagued buildings, books, films or music are a testimony of the builder’s incompetency and lack of foresight. Iesous taught us that they will mock such attempted feats. Planning determines whether an idea can be accomplished or if it will end up being written in the history books as a failed attempt. Oftentimes people celebrate success when it was really a failed attempt. The first structure that is laid down after determining the project is the foundation. So, in a sense, the first ideological principle of building involves the foundation of “COMMITMENT OF COMPLETION.” I can imagine how many companies and professionals have been sued for violating contracts by failing to fulfill contractual obligations.

Our work will be scrutinized, critiqued, and labeled. We will have lovers and haters. Building requires knowledge, real estate, time, resources, and patience. One of the greatest stumbling blocks to building is “architectural-naturalism!” This involves building with the mentality of planting. You can’t control how what you plant grows and turns out, but when you build you can cultivate the growth. Artists struggle with this concept because art is natural and technically based. Building is essentially technical! Almost every art form struggles with the technical aspect that contains it. An author is free in his literary expression, but what he writes with his pen must be technically structured with correct grammar and punctuation. I’m not teaching that we must meet “industry standards” with respect for everything worldly, but we must meet kingdom standards.

In Boston, MA, when they built the multi-billion dollar Big Dig project everyone was excited because of how they felt the bridge and tunnel would turn out, but when it was “so-called” completed several people suffered injury and death. Upon investigation detectives found out that the companies were using inadequate materials. Anytime that you see something that is wrong if you don’t correct it, it must be for several reasons. 1. You’re waiting for an opportune time 2. You’ve passed over it so many times that you don’t realize that it has turned into neglect. 3. If what you are dealing with involves others, you assume that they won’t mind the mistake 4. You don’t care. 5. You don’t know what a mistake is! 6. spiritual warfare 7. sabotage

Most masterpieces took years to build. In Nehemiah 2:10 we learn that when the enemy heard that “...there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel they were grieved exceedingly.” In 2:19 it reads, “they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, ‘What is this thing that ye do? will you rebel against the king?’” Are we supposed to not build because of how Satan’s kingdom will feel about it? In Nehemiah the word “repair” is used 35 times! In 4:1-3 we read about the enemy "...he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. And he spake before his brethren... and said 'What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned? ...Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall."

People build many things, but only that which remains was built correctly and guided by God's grace. Everything around us was built. Every relationship, culture, book, picture etc. We call things that fall apart "cheap." I heard a teacher, teach the truth that every piece of the body contains the strength and genetic DNA of the whole body. One missing screw can cause the collapse of a book shelf that once held the weight of hundreds if not thousands of pounds of literature. When things prove their worth we call them "faithful." This doesn't mean that the thing is old it means that it's time tested. Even when projects look completed companies hire inspectors to investigate the quality and safety of the structure. Things that are aesthetical aren't necessarily free from the duty of performing a life saving function. People are concerned about the beauty of their walls and floors, but those walls and floors must be able to withstand pressure. Beauty doesn't remove strength. People have this misconception. Actually, beauty and strength are synonymous. Don't start if you can't or won't be allowed to finish!

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER SEVEN THE ARCHITECT

"All warfare is founded upon deception"- Sun Tzu

Life is growth, development, and maturity. I heard a preacher say, "no investment, no return." If you don't plant a seed and nurture it you won't birth and reap a harvest! Babies grow when they're fed in three stages 1. liquids 2. soft food 3. strong meat. The Apostle Paul wrote in Hebrews 5:12-14 "For when for the time you ought to be teachers, you have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. For every one that uses milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness: for he is a baby. But strong meat belongs to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil."

God created man to build and control planet earth. The Hebrew word for create is "bara" it means to create through the process of feeding. You must feed and fuel whatever you build. God told Adam in Genesis 1:28 to, "...replenish the earth: and subdue it." There are many types of architects. Noah built a ship, culturists build popular culture, weapon specialists build weapons and armor, and technological specialists build computer software. How did an architect become thus? Learning through trial and error! Anyone who claims to have achieved perfection without failure is a liar-God excluded! Building necessitates "material." Building strengthens and provides shelter. Planting necessitates "seeds." Planting requires patience and provides fruit. Fishing requires lines, hooks, and bait. Sewing requires "needles," "patterns" and "knots" that create "coverage/ clothing" and it keeps things knit together tight!

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Veiling necessitates walls/coverings which are either honest or deceptive.

First you need a target. A target is a bull's eye. Second you need a compass. Ship-Masters operate in a different element where landmarks are rare and the foundation of water is determined by the winds. A compass allows you to determine what direction you should move in when the so called light house workers fail to guide the ships home. Your target determines your projected direction. The principle directions are north, south, east, and west. Next you need a clock. Time alerts you to the importance of when you need to move in a certain direction. The architect sets "deadlines"! If Satan tampers with your target he's trying to manipulate your compass and clock. You need a Hammer! The Hebrew word is "Maqqabah" or Maccabee it means "perforatrix." To create a path by hammering through walls! Your will is your hammer. You need your tool of choice. The real tool of the architect is the Pen and ruler (measurement instrument). How could a construction team build a city with no blueprint? A blueprint can't be constructed without a Pen. A pen is a sword; they say that the pen has killed more men than the sword. A pen or sword is anything that leaves impressions. Your memory is carved out by the shape and spirit of images. In Psalm 45:1 we read, "...my tongue is the pen of a ready writer." A sword symbolizes the weapon and tool because it "MEASURES VALUE." Every weapon and tool is crafted by a ruler and sword! A pair of scissors is a sword and pen because words are carved into wood. Welders use high-fire (temperatures in the thousands) to cut iron and steel.

The value of anything is its measurement and its measurement was calculated using some kind of sword and measurement device. You need a foundation. A foundation is a "Platform." I define foundations as "The Strength of Where?" Where's the strength of your operation. Where is the place that won't collapse under pressure. You can build there and on that substance. Aristotle said in Metaphysics that everything has (substance-quality-quantity.) Our platform and foundation is the second heaven. We operate inter-dimensionally. So, our platform is elusive.

The Architect's Book is the Holy Bible! His second sword is the doctrine of spiritual warfare. If we were to draw a triangle to represent Satan's pyramid of power the top point would represent Government architects/ collectors of secrets that build THE HOUSE OF TRAPS. "Intelligence" is real time information spied by espionage and sabotage agents for the purpose of deliberation at the roundtable where the secret counsel of the wicked is propagated! Next we have THE ART OF FIGHTING. The most dangerous weapon in war is a SPIRITUAL BOMB. The architect writes martial arts books to provide to his enemies, so that they will fight him on his terms! He teaches them how to lose to him. Sun Tzu's classic The Art of War can be summed up in thirteen chapters; 1. unveiling plans 2. financing war 3. ritualized attacks 4. military science 5. energy 6. strong and weak points 7. maneuvering 8. styles of attack 9. travelling and marching 10. terrain or ground 11. the nine situations 12. attack by fire 13. the use of spies. Lastly we have THE RITES OF RITUAL. The ceremonies of life or death. The main "players" in the world are architects, fighters, and performers of rituals!

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER EIGHT CONTAINERS CONTROL POWER

Isaiah 44:13 “The carpenter stretches out his rule; he marks it out with a line; he fits it with planes, and he marks it out with a compass, and makes it after the figure of a man; according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.”

Power must be controlled by containers. Power has an aim and determination as does the container that controls the will of the power. The container doesn't have a stronger will than the power that it contains it merely directs it through ACCOMODATION. It doesn't control the power it only controls the channel or direction that the power travels. If it were to attempt to control the heart of the power the power would destroy the container. A flock of sheep are contained by the control of a shepherd. A bomb is controlled by its body and detonation timing device. The mind is controlled by the communications that we allow to enter in. Satan wants to seat images on the screen and in the chairs of the theatre of your mind. It's called MEMORY-MAKING.

The world seeks to purchase the image and likeness of celebrities. A person can use an image intellectually for many reasons. Iniquitous images have a shelf life. Images die when we don't breathe life into them! First we see the container. Then if we have spiritual gifts we see the control, then the communication or instruction. Everything is a seed. The communication tries to control you. The control will attempt to place you in some form of container. A whore who impregnates a man visually through her pornographic appearance plants the seed through his eyes, so the power/seed is inside of him. Then he feels an energy trying to control his sexual desire by trying to make him masturbate. He isn't contained/arrested until he enters into a bathroom or the intimate location of his desire. So the communication is lust, the controlling influence is masturbation, and the container is oftentimes a bathroom. Control is the successful accomplishment of instruction. Uncontrolled desires are like wild animals who have broken out of the zoo! THE OPPOSITE OF A CONTAINER IS AN OPEN-DOOR!

2 Timothy 2:26 “And that they may recover themselves out of the trap of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.”

Galatians 5:24 “And they that are Christ’s have crucified the flesh with the desires and lusts.”

Romans 1:26-27 “...For even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the women, burned in their lust one toward another;”

Writers in Hollywood write “screen-plays” which means that they wrote a theatrical play specifically for the purpose of filming it. Authors, at times write books that producers read and like and want to produce. The producer finances the film. The writer creates a story and characters and then writes it out. Even with the budget, screenplay, and actors, the film won’t work unless it has a good “director.” The director is a container that controls the communication. He directs or gives direction to the film. He provides music for the scenes, edits the film, and decides when a scene was acted out how he feels it should’ve been executed. You’re seeing the visualization of what was written through his eyes. So, this teaches us that containers are directors. Laws govern desires. The law of permission based admittance founded upon financial compensation stops many people from indulging in their desires. Pedophilia isn't currently being contained in Singapore because it's legal and prostitution has a price and cost. How many desires would people indulge in if their desires were legal and for sale?

1. DESIRES FOR SEX
2. DESIRES FOR MONEY
3. DESIRES FOR JUSTICE
4. DESIRES TO KILL
5. DESIRES TO HELP
6. DESIRES FOR POWER AND RESPECT
7. DESIRES TO BE LOVED AND ACCEPTED
8. DESIRES TO SMELL, LOOK, LISTEN, TASTE, TOUCH
9. DESIRES TO ACHIEVE AND TAKE
10. DESIRES TO LEAVE OR TRAVEL
11. DESIRES FOR PLEASURE
12. DESIRES TO DESTROY
13. DESIRES TO QUIT OR DIE
14. SECRET DESIRES
15. PERVERSE DESIRES
16. DESIRES FOR FAME
17. DESIRES FOR SELF PRESERVATION

CHAPTER NINE TRANSCENDENCE

Genesis 6:4 "There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God (fallen angels) came in unto the daughters of Adam, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown."

God created man with two bodies. One spiritual, one physical. The angel's of God and Satan's angel's have the power to manifest through a theophany. A theophany is when a spiritual being manifests in a physical body. 1 Corinthians 15: 37-44 "And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be. but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or some other grain: But God gives it a body as it has pleased him, and to every seed his own body. All flesh is not the same flesh: there is one kind of flesh of men, another of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: ...So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:...There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body." The flesh is called "the old man" but the born-again soul is called "the new man." (Ephesians 4:22-24) A soul is a spiritual body comprised of soul, spirit, and mind. Sinners are born in a state of spiritual death. They're slaves to their flesh. In Romans 7:24 Paul asks, "Who shall deliver me from this body of death."

When sinners repent they're asking God to forgive them and to rebirth their soul, spirit, and mind. The Greek word used in Ephesians for "inner-man" is "eso" which is where we get the word esoteric meaning "inner meaning" or "secret." Our souls are born into the second heaven. The first heaven which is planet earth Ephesians 2:2 teaches us is controlled by Satan; the text calls him "the prince of the power of the airwaves.” We were born the first time into a spiritual prison. A prison is a restricted environment governed by security guards. The masses must be controlled. The animal kingdom is called “wild-life” because animals don’t operate according to any governmental system. Power uncontained is dangerous. Cords contain and control electricity, USB devices contain and control information, films, books, music, and art.

What is birth, and is it new? Solomon taught us in Ecclesiastes 1:9 “...there is no new thing under the sun.” Birth is the emergence of a reproduction caused by planting a seed. Iesous said in John 3:6, “That which is born of flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.” Many so called Christians are merely religious sinners. They aren’t saints, because a saint is born-again! A newly born-again believer is going to begin to manifest Christ-likeness. Our first birth involved us being born into a physical and spiritual architecture. Our second birth involved the same. This is called “naturalization.” THE WORLD WAS BUILT ON LIES AND FALSE BALANCE.

The mind is the soul’s brain. The brain is the body’s mind. The brain is a part of the flesh. The mind is a part of the soul. The flesh is temporal, but the mind is eternal. If the brain and mind act based upon self or outwardly induced instructions, we must pay serious attention to instructions. We don’t want to act on evil instructions. Instructions are another word for technology. Technology means, “the logic of executing plans.” One must be instructed as to how to succeed and those instructions will instruct one to use a certain type of technology! The technology itself will instruct all of the components within that machine so that the body of the machine can operate smoothly. Hebrews 4:12 teaches us that God’s word is a sword that separates the flesh from the spirit, meaning that sometimes our flesh can mesh with our mind, and at those times we need to separate the two. So, the word is instruction and technology! Aesthetics, words, architecture, expressions, gestures, colors, and all things instruct us. Instruction is the force of a projected action. In Psalm 23:1 King David wrote, "The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want." If you can't identify the shepherds, you can't identify the instructions. Psalm one teaches us that on our way to success we walk, stand, and then sit. Where are we advancing? revolting? relaxing? When we were born-again we walked with the two legs of our mind, eyes, ears, nose, and mouth in obedience to the instructions that we received because we hadn't investigated to find out who the real shepherds were. Therefore God delivered us from false instructions! Instructions lead to doors.

There's a world behind every door/gate. It's important to identify the doors because once you enter into a door there's the potential of you becoming hypnotized, and once inside, some doors lock. The degree of doors involves 1. invitations 2. keys 3. burglary. Hypnotism is to arrest the mind. People can also find themselves emotionally arrested. Instructions can lead to spiritual arrests. Architecture was created using GOVERNING POWERS. Every door is an outlet socket. We plug ourselves into doors. Everything shoots spirit and energy. Composite ingredients are things that "produce" products. Pay attention to the "cause" in order to learn about the effect. Almost everything has an ANSWER! Fire evaporates water, water quenches fire, paper covers rock, rock breaks scissors, and scissors cut paper. Everything showcases its purpose. Everything has a spiritual electromagnetism or repulsion. In the second heaven we can plug into electrical outlets, and people, places, and things have the potential to plug into us, because we too are electrical outlets. We don't want to plug into suicidal, pornographic, or homicidal electrical outlets. Sometimes when we touch a door knob or other surface we create an electrical spark in our finger tips. This should teach us that our eyes and ears can be electrocuted via what we see or hear!

The key to comprehending birth is “awareness of self,” which involves the ability to “SEE YOURSELF.” Your mind isn’t born until your soul becomes aware of it, and your soul isn’t born until your mind becomes aware of it! That which is born without acknowledging the birth is dead in a sense. Such a person has no identity therefore they have no purpose, and aimlessness is a form of slow death. In Acts 19, Paul met some believers who conceived salvation through the baptism of John but because they weren’t baptized with Jesus’ baptism, they hadn’t been born-again. They were aware of their spiritual death, that’s why they were baptized the first time, but they weren’t aware of the rites of the ritual that brings about the new birth.

How many people really comprehend the concept of fighting? We fight every day! We fight financially, romantically, socially, athletically, and religiously. Fighting is to project violence toward an enemy and to block that which is “aimed” toward you. You can’t fight in the flesh, because that’s not where the fight takes place. I heard a story from Tov Yom Glaser about a king and his army who marched through a forest and saw multiple bull’s eyes with arrows stuck in the “heart.” The king said, “I desire to meet the man who possesses such accuracy?” But when he met the man and asked him, to his surprise the man said, “my secret is that I shoot the arrow FIRST and then I paint the bull’s eye around the arrow!” This is the law of FIRSTS. In order to fight “professionally” you must FIRST be in the right place. You must walk through that DOOR. Fighting is learned through humbling one’s self to discipleship. First one must enter a “school.” Then one must study and master the book of the doctrine of spiritual warfare. Next one must learn the disciple’s chosen weapon. Next, one must train to master weapons. Then one must form special teams. Then one must compete to see where they stand in rank, this creates a throne based upon victory. Lastly one must promote the throne.

One fights to build and destroy the rites of rituals. Everything is ritual in a sense. If a ritual was a balloon the rites would be like the helium that lifts it. Meaning that when you find yourself fighting against a satanic ritual, Satan has tried to fill your balloon with spirit/wind! Spirit must be aligned with ritual because if they aren’t aligned, you will see the ritual but you will notice that it has no life in it!

A ritual is essentially societal and behavioral architecture. When one’s spirituality becomes a continuous “peak performance” one sees only worship or idolatry. We worship God! Sinners are idolatrous. Idolatry is to worship a shape, image, and promise. Physique is logo. Logo is the new word for “idol.” A logo is a shape that has been invested with an image that guarantees a blessing. Logos are pregnant. Idols/logos are keys that open the door to fantasy. They promise the fulfillment of desires. A seductress who showcases her body via “skin-tight” prostitute attire is trying to show you her shape/logo. Her sexual body parts have been idolized. Nike shoes used to promote the catch phrase “just do it!” When “consumers” saw the Nike Check logo they immediately thought of the instruction “don’t think, Just Do It!” and you’ll be successful. When a man sees a seductress promote her symbols of sex he’s seeing and experiencing a pornographic kaleidoscope of sexually arousing images. Film is said to be a string of images that are connected and shown so fast that it appears to be one stream of unbroken footage like when cartoonists draw pictures and then flip them. This artistic “technique” gives the optical illusion of a “motion picture.” The corporate body of seductresses in any given city is creating films in men’s minds via streams of pornographic and pedophilic images. Nakedness isn’t merely unclothed skin; it’s also the unveiling of physical “physique!” Everyone is a “director” and directors frame “scenes” to give you perspective and “viewpoints.” Whores direct their sexuality in order to reach their goals.

What is the door to insanity? Reception of any kind, obviously, allows entrance. If you think that you’re crazy, you’re devaluing your mental capacity which will cause you to alter your behavior. If you alter it by embracing a worldly mind-set, you will become crazy, because the world is insane. People are oftentimes accused of insanity based upon them acting upon a truth that others consider to be a lie, or have rejected and are trying to act like they believe it to be a lie! The Apostle Paul was preaching and teaching Festus in Acts 26: 24-26 and Festus accused Paul of being insane, “And as he spoke for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, you are beside yourself, much learning has made you crazy. But he said, I am not crazy, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness. For the king knows of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.” SANE-MAKING IS THE OPPOSITE OF CRAZY-MAKING!

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER TEN INTELLIGENTSIA LITERATI

2 Corinthians 15:33 "Be ye not deceived, for evil communications corrupt good manners."

Identification is the process of investigative prodding in an attempt to force the manifestation of one's root/core personality trait; which is their central communication. Some people reveal it, and some conceal it, or haven't discovered it. The primary characteristic determines the instrument of expression. To solve, equips one with the mandatory "means" that are needed to respond/act; for the aim of communication is intercourse/exchange. A conversation at one level is a "fenced" verbal discourse between two or more people that reflects a body of ethics, and inspires movement/action. On heaven and earth there are many styles of communication. Communication is expression, or a "break-through." Expression is pushed through the instrument of language. To name several styles, there is 1. verbal 2. physical 3. spiritual 4. symbolic 5. cryptic 6. literary 7. musical 8. numeric 9. pictorial 10. sign language.

The phrase "lost in translation" attempts to affirm that whenever an original idea is transferred to an audience using a foreign instrument, the message is altered because of cultural eccentricities. Words are the building blocks of life. Genesis 1:1 in the Hebrew reads, "In the beginning Elohiym created the Heaven and Earth." Matthew 12:36 reads, "But I say unto you, that every useless word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment."

A phenomenon is the regular or occasional symbolically supernatural occurrence/appearance of something that is oftentimes only perceivable to the higher senses. Inspired speech is the phenomena of evoking explosive, spirit filled formulaic symbols of intelligence.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Hebrews 4:12-13 reads, "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of Him with whom we have to do." The word "sword" also refers to judgment and communications that "sever." In Jeremiah 9:16 God says, "... and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them." Satan too, sends swords after us with the intentions to destroy us. In this case the sword would be symbolized by a group of people, or things whose spirit manifests a destructive effect. The word spirit contains two words; 1.spirit 2.ritual (spi-ritual). Satan attempts to thrust us through with a sword, because whatever spirit that he uses in an attempt to impregnate us, that spirit has the potential to birth a ritual in our behavior!

Everything communicates, and things are devices/creatures. The Greek word for "creature" is "ktisis." It is defined as a created living organism that has the potential to imprison or set free. The sculptor obtains "material" in order to fashion it into a model, but he removes the waste and excess marble. Jeremiah 18:3-6 reads, "Then I went down to the potter's house, and behold, he wrought a work on the wheels. And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. Then the Word of the Lord came to me, saying, O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the Lord. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel." The root of the word "communication" is "communion." If you can't reach a goal, then it is because you have not removed that which is in-between you and that thing! Based upon accessibility, things are evolving via sharing, fellowshiping; and exchanging thoughts, tastes, energy, and spirit.

The world abounds with alleged antidotes that are supposed to cure the spiritual sickness of sin; but they don't work. These pseudo healing contrivances oftentimes contribute to a person entering into a worse condition or becoming addicted. Matthew 8:16 reads, "...and He drove out the spirits with his word." In John 6:63 we read, "The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life." Words identify spirits; but 'the word' isn't comprised of only letters or spoken words, it's also a communication. For instance, satellites transmit spirits; which they call television signals, that "contain" images and words, but without an antenna/ receptor you won't be able to "see" the communication. Our souls and spirits are like satellites/radar. Everything is projecting and receiving. Spiritual sensitivity enables us to snatch the word out of the air like an antenna enabling us to see the spiritual picture. 2 Corinthians 3:6 teaches us that, "the letter kills, but the spirit gives life." How does the letter kill? The letter kills because it can be used to disguise spirit. Many people find themselves set-up and ambushed by enemies without having seen the plot unfold; the reason the enemy is so successful is because he uses all of the right words in order to lure the victim into his trap. If the person would not only regard the words, but also try to discern the spirits behind the words; along with the historical and temporal communication of the person or group they would be able to see the picture for what it really is. Someone who hates you, can't say, "I love you" in sincerity, because the spirit of hate can say, "I love you." What you must do is; discern which language a spirit is using.

In life there are traps. A trap is a person, place, or thing that invites its victim by "presenting" bait. This also means that there will be a myriad of evil spirits functioning together. The spirits will manifest through the medium of devices, and the language that is being utilized. Things are spirits defined by words. Everything serves a purpose. This should teach us the lesson that we must identify relevant communications. In Hebrew, the letters which are symbols have been ascribed oracles that give “further” meaning to the words. The “meaning” is “the exact interpretation or translation.” In Luke 11:54 we read, “Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.” Jesus understood the spirit behind their questions. Matching your spirit with the situation will enable you to answer the enemy’s question correctly. Homonyms are communications which are different spirits, but are identified by using the same name. New Words are created over time; this phenomenon occurs when something new is identified. Racial slurs and proper etiquette are used with respect for class and poverty when addressing someone; but these words contain two different spirits. one is the product of respect, and the other of racism, disdain, and repugnance. A word is a piece/morsel of information. A sentence is like a string of pearls. It’s a string of words that communicate “more” to the listener, observer, the one who touches, feels, or senses. A paragraph communicates ideas. Chapters in the spirit communicate plans and strategies. We are seeing these types of communication in the spirit world. People, places, and things are communicating thoughts, ideas, plans, and strategies.

A book communicates the witness of a history; including lessons that must be learned with respect for a dynasty. A dynasty esoterically represents a line of succession through transmission. Certain books belong to the legacy of a literary dynasty. A book represents physical evidence. Abstract evidence can be questioned because it’s not tangible. This is why sometimes when people tell people that they love them; they receive antagonisms with respect for their affirmation of something abstract not being accompanied by something concrete. If someone claims to be a comedian; someone might say, "Well then, tell a joke!" Everyone that you know has a book in the spiritual realm. It's their testimony. whether it has been written down or not. Words are containers for spirit. As a glass can hold water or juice; words and books hold spirit. A book is memory. Memory is any device that holds information absolutely without loss.

It's a great tragedy; seeing that inexperienced "reformers" always get attacked or assassinated. The reformer is using the same words and scripture, but obviously the spirit and doctrine behind the words angers those who have established false tradition. A reformer is trying to "re-form," or shape things back into their original construct.

What are reformers usually accused of? They are accused of being radical, which means "revolutionary," or of misinterpreting or incorrectly translating scripture. There's a small difference between a hypocrite and a bigot. A hypocrite is an actor who contradicts his or her confessed convictions while trying to not get caught, but a bigot is an actor who doesn't care if he gets caught. Iesous rebuked the people in Mark 7:6-7 saying, "Well has Isaiah prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, THESE PEOPLE HONOR ME WITH THEIR LIPS, BUT THEIR HEART IS FAR FROM ME. HOWBEIT IN VAIN DO THEY WORSHIP ME, TEACHING FOR DOCTRINES THE COMMANDMENTS OF MEN."

Your personality is a word. Your personality is the complete genetic makeup of your communication. The Holy Spirit has changed your D.N.A. (Deoxy Ribonucleuc Acid).

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Words have D.N.A which is an acid or chemical solution that carries or holds (memory) the genetic information which determines individual hereditary characteristics.

Fallen man promotes beauty second to financial security. The promotion is of a model that is to be imitated. The Apostle Paul teaches us in Romans 1: 26-27 that the west is effeminate, and lesbian, “..for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature. And likewise also the men burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves the recompense of their error which was meet.” Effeminacy is for a man to fashion himself in the manner of a woman. A lesbian seeks the appearance of a man. Someone once said, “There are two people who have not a beard; boys and women, and I am neither!” Leviticus 19:27 warns, “Ye shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou mar the corners of thy beard.” When Satan’s model which is his spirit contradicts the physical make up of the masses; the population then begins to feel the need to conform or imitate the word, spirit, or communication that Satan is sending out. Most of the communication in this respect conveys the idea that you can’t become what is considered to be beautiful unless you subject yourself to cosmetic surgery. Deuteronomy 22:5 warns, “The woman shall not wear that which pertains unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman’s garment: for all that do so are an abomination unto the Lord thy God.”

The word with worldly men is that youth is found in the appearance of beardlessness making men feel like they’re younger when they shave, but just because you feel an emotion doesn’t actually mean that it’s true! Satan’s communication is saying that you are ugly if you don’t conform to his image of beauty, which hasn’t held much sway in the Middle East in the past because of how Israelis and Muslim men and women have conducted themselves aesthetically. Your word about your beauty, and personality must “shut-down” the contrary word that has been sent out by Satan’s kingdom. The world’s approval isn’t important, what’s important is the approval of God and his word. A blessing is a communication as is a curse.

The word has many functions such as declarative, imperative, interrogative, exclamatory etc. Some appearances are stating, commanding, questioning, and exclaiming. Every word that Satan sends out against you is a contrary word, which is a spirit. Against means to block, stop, or hinder. There’s a doctrine that you must use to combat every word that he has sent to thwart you! The key is to identify what doctrine he’s using, and to identify what word you need to use as a countermeasure. Then to stand on that word! Standing isn’t easy. It’s to not allow yourself to be moved. Satan will try to move you emotionally, verbally, relationally, physically, financially. Spirits have the potential to move us if we aren’t careful. Mark 1:12 says that, “...the Spirit drove him into the wilderness.” To “drive” is to confront, harass, tease, taunt, pull, attract, or threaten. We know that the Holy Spirit is a gentle spirit, but Satan’s spirits aren’t so comforting! People in martial arts practice how to brace themselves in their pivot or position. Especially sumo wrestlers because it’s very difficult for them to recover from a fall. It’s hard for them to get “back up”. Positioning yourself teaches you how to angle and maneuver for mastery in your square of activity.

The game of chess should teach us a lot of lessons. Chess teaches us that life is very much like war. The board symbolizes conquering ground. There are “only” 64 spaces where pieces can land based upon rank and occupancy rules. The pawn teaches us about “frontlines”, promotion after completion, and underestimation. Bishops communicate the danger of not watching people's angular range and "slashing" abilities. Knights communicate the power of monopolizing "area," elusiveness, and skipping steps. The castle communicates the power of "sweeping lanes" and rows. The queen communicates the power of freedom, range, and being granted access because of beauty and intelligence. The King represents power, and the importance of individual moves. The entire objective of chess is to trap the enemy's king! All of the pieces are protecting the king! Chess teaches you to look at all of the alternatives on the board, to respect the pieces, to value the consequences of "moves" and to recognize the closed doors that when opened enable new moves. Life is an exercise in strategy, but strategies must be recognized. Espionage is all about seizing the enemy's communications.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER ELEVEN DANGEROUS TIMES

Matthew 24:29 “Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:”

Everyone plans for their future. The plan determines a person’s relationships. A relationship is an “agreement” to socialize. Some People become easily “attached” to people, places, things, actions, and descriptions. Don’t become easily attached! Attachments create “shared responsibilities and experiences.” Some people don’t want to form attachments because they don’t want to share the responsibility. Amos 3:3 asks, “How can two walk together except they have agreed.” Responsibility is that which you are held accountable for. Everyone is responsible for so many things. We are (trying) to fulfill our responsibilities. “Trying” is another word for “effort.” Trying is noble, commendable, and should be met with encouragement and support! Some people don’t even recognize what it is that they’re trying to do. Anything that you stop trying to do has the potential to “die on the table.” Never stop “trying” to do what’s right or what can positively affect your future!

A code is a message sent in secret language to avoid detection. Codes involve locks, safes, data banks, and alarms. The code is a camouflaged “combination” of numbers, letters, colors, shapes, pictures, sounds, symbols, or clothes. The code is used to prevent “access” to undesirables. The keys are matches and alignments. They are “partial-openers.” Some safes require a consecutive time based series of “cracks.” Each code must have a key that unlocks the mystery. Reoccurring clues identify the “constant” which is the repeated communication, which becomes the thread, anchor, and “glue” that holds the code together! The practical data on the code is the first key. Intelligence is gathered by asking: 1. who? 2. what ? 3. why ?4. when ? 5. where ? 6. how? 7. with which instrument ? In Proverbs 1:6 Solomon speaks of “...the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.”

Everywhere we look there are “walls.” Walls are people, television and computer screens, sound system speakers, pictures, book pages etc. We’re speaking about the boundaries of existence and anything that reflects or shoots forth. Walls project, attract, reflect, and repel. In a movie theatre we sit in front of the projector looking at the wall/screen as if the picture is being projected from the screen when in truth the picture is being projected from the back of the theatre. The wall/screen is merely reflecting that which is being shot at it. The screen is a target, the projector is a gun. The walls are inescapable except when “doors” open. There are doors in the walls. A door is a point of focus based upon metaphysical esoteric properties, and one’s “interest.” A spiritual door will close on one who doesn’t have an interest in the subject or topic. Music equipment shoots forth music but walls reflect “echoes.” Why do we place pictures on our walls? The answer is that we attempt to escape the walls by placing framed art on them hoping to find an open door to meditation and spirituality. A book page is a wall that shoots forth that which was written. The key then is to monopolize your walls and search for the doors that lead to enlightenment.

Everything can be “opened” or “closed” including emotions, sex-drive, and mentality. Things are either “in” or “out”. Location is where something can be “found” or where it is “at.” There are elements. Elements are distinct habitations that are the homes of certain species. Fish live in the element of water. A monkey lives in a jungle element.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Birds live in the heavenly element. God solves every problem but he has given us a mind, and responsibility to solve problems too! There's either neutrality, revealing, or covering. The beginning or ending of anything involves "recognizing" the position of, or being inside of a "curve" that symbolizes change involving the uncovering of the head. That which is equally true isn't always mutually adored! The effect is never greater than the cause because it is the cause that created the effect. Don't mistake effect as being the cause! Who is more powerful; 25 business men who solicit sex or the "one" prostitute who draws all 25 men into her bed?

False expectations and hopes birth a spirit of disappointment, regret, and pain. A victim of "treachery" will struggle with these spirits because treachery is betrayal of trust. The (snake) pretended allegiance to trick you, but you had to trust first. We can also become disappointed with ourselves and others. We shouldn't be too critical on ourselves because mistakes are a part of life. Treachery is dangerous because there are relationships where this spirit works in small corners. A husband can be financially treacherous, a wife sexually, a soldier nationally, a religious person fraternally. It's difficult to pin-point. Treachery isn't a mistake or bad habit! How can the uncanny regularity of (abusive treatment) continually be written off as a mere harmless coincidence? And if your prophetic-compass reveals to you who is treacherous, it's so that you won't find yourself disappointed. We as saints must change all of our expectations and hopes. Expectation is like the happiness that one feels through the season of watching a flower grow, but false expectations are like when the flower dies in maturity.

Monopoly Consolidation is liquidation through computerized digitalization. Physical money, products, packaging, and distribution is being centralized. Multi-task machines such as cell-phones and mini-computers are allowing people to watch, listen, talk, play, text and access the internet. Books, music, films, art, and money are being digitalized creating a technological divide. Digital multiplicity is allowing infinite copying of files. When the Mark of Satan is instituted many people will be governmentally disenfranchised. Revelation 13:16-18, "And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: and that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six."

Intentions are what someone plans to do. The gift of prophesy reveals two things. 1. who will accomplish their intentions. 2. who will not succeed in their intentions. The perpetrator in such a case where he or she is faced with a prophet will without question attempt to defend the wholesomeness of their intentions. The question is, "how can someone be guilty of an intention when they haven't fulfilled it?" The answer is, both, an evil intention and act render one guilty. Intention is an abstract crime that really can't be proven until it manifests materially. Most homicides are the product of emotions such as love and hate. I Timothy 6:10 warns, "For the love of money is the root of all evil:" Love is one's surrender of their complete being for a person, group, place, or thing. It appears as a reaction, admiration, sympathy, and affectionate pleasure founded upon the root of "obedience!" It shouldn't be rooted in beauty, generosity, compatibility, humor, sex, or fraternity. Pretending commitment is treachery. Sinners are obedient on the strength of an authoritative point of reference. The love isn't unconditional it depends on whether or not a person still lives in the same neighborhood, works at the same job, socializes with the same crowd, maintains a certain financial status. Sinners love each other's disobedience!

Last rites are "deletions." A person can go through the rite of (assembling) a gun and loading bullets, but pulling the trigger is the last rite! Kissing and touching is sexual but a (penetrating release) of semen is a last rite. In rituals, the excellence of the performance "turns the lock." The "lock" promises surrender only upon manipulation and mastery. Manipulation involves, "multiple points of tweaking." Why perform a ritual if you can't "fit" through the passage? To "fit" is to meet the requirements of a capacity. The word "rite" is the root of the word arithmetic hence the phrase murder by numbers, or by rituals. A ritual is a series of consummating acts (rites) whose excellence of execution births supernatural effects.

If the aquatic world is the element that represents a fish's culture, culture should be defined as the prescribed activities that are executed within an allocated principality. How can Judeo-Christian culture be considered Greco-Roman when its root and truth is Hebraic. The Hebrews resisted assimilation at the hands of the Egyptians, Assyrians, Babylonians, Persians, Greeks, and Romans! Deuteronomy 18: 9-13 warns, "When you are come into the land which the Lord your God gives you, you shall not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. There shall not be found among you any that makes his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that uses divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord:"

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER TWELVE REMOVALS AND ADDITIONS

Spirituality is all (about) transcendence, faith, strict discipline, investigation, war and prayer. We must view planet earth with heaven's binoculars. The saints represent Jesus' on earth. The scriptures teach us that we are his body and because all things are under his feet all things should be under our feet. Ephesians 1:22 "And has put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church." Pettiness is beneath us!

Superiority is accomplished either by granted power, natural talent or knowledge/revelation. Spirituality is symbolized by operating in a higher dimension. Airplane pilots while descending for landing are granted the privilege of being able to observe "The Grand Scheme" of human civilization, whereas people on earth tend to restrict themselves based upon their own limited observations. Galatians 5:16 reads "This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh." There are (keys, steps, and rites) that enable us to stay ascended. We must keep our spirits high, our souls uplifted, our mentalities victorious, our minds sharp, our hearts strong and righteous, our decisions full of justice! The key word here is HIGH, HIGH, HIGH, HIGH, HIGH, HIGH, HIGH!

Spirituality isn't simplistic. Exaltation occurs in many forms. It manifests through quality, quantity, position, reoccurrence, wealth, fashion, sexuality and beauty. The world is spiritual but the actions that it inspires are LOW. There are many different worlds such as the worlds of gambling, gangs, medicine, politics, sports, theatre, religion, etc. We move in and out of worlds all of the time. They are like vacuums and "attractions" that have the power to suck us in and lock the door. Worlds are full of semantics, devices, emotions, and high or low spirits. An atheistic territory is full of words that are “associated” with godless lifestyles, and contrivances that were created to enhance that culture. Atheism is accompanied by a set of emotions and spirits that function accordingly. Some worlds disintegrate through the passage of time but some survive. Divorce of any kind is a world where “the associated things” are bound. Words are bound to places and “occasions.” Occasions involve moments, seasons and ordeals. Victory, loss, romance, death, and “newness” are occasions. In these occasions and worlds we must identify the semantics and devices associated. The world of anger is accompanied by obscene language and instruments that are immediately recognized as potential weapons. Psalm 119:105 reads “Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.” A traffic light is understood by vehicular operators not to represent a color but rather a meaning symbolized by the color which meaning is to either stop, go, or slow down. The colors are a mere logo or symbol. In the world, sinners try to remove God’s word yet they still follow different styles of instruction.

I received this Revelation from the Book of Enoch which is quoted by Jude but because the book has been corrupted we can’t trust it in its entirety. To examine it from “point blank range” we should see that important things have been “removed” and lies “added”. We as saints can’t afford to allow our spiritual height to be removed, and that could only be accomplished by adding things that are low. Acquisitions are an interesting topic. Police at times plant drugs on people, people steal, and so forth; the methods that people use to obtain things is almost inexhaustible. Some things are easier to acquire than others. Many of us who live holy are attempting to find out how we can REMOVE certain things! Prophetic provisions either appear through our prophetic compass via visions or that manifest in the physical realm literally. These are things that have been provided by God supernaturally for our future benefit. You need certain equipment in order to accomplish certain purposes. What are the things that Satan is trying to put into your hands? What are the things that God is trying to put in your hands? We are in The Last Days! All of the things that Jesus said would appear are now abundantly visible. All we have to do is acknowledge what we see. The law of capacity teaches that when a ceiling or barrier is breached there must be an explosion or “break-through”. In revelation 12:3-4 we learn that Satanic movements can be seen in the heavens. In these last days if we look into the supernatural realms we should see operations being unveiled. Just as every heavenly body is bound by an orbit and can’t be “removed” except by the Word of God: words, things, and people are also bound by an orbit to a certain degree. Everything is a part of a system or “conveyer belt.” There are assembly rules for assembly lines. The potter assembles by using the principle of gravity by spinning a wheel and applying portions of wet clay that congeals as the air that’s generated as it spins hardens it while he fashions it.

The Earth is also spinning, and every physical thing is also bound by this horizontal and vertical gravity. It’s like when we found ourselves stuck to the side of a gravity-ride at an amusement park; a part of the security measure was based upon a law that we were ignorant of! If God has created the earth in a way where certain things aren’t allowed to be moved what makes us think that God won’t make us immovable with respect for certain things, or that he won’t remove certain mentalities, emotions, diseases, and curses from us or add blessings to us. Psalm 55: 22 teaches us to not worry and stress, “Cast your burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee; He will never suffer the righteous to be moved.” Just because sometimes we can feel like the Lord isn’t answering our prayers or acting upon our behalf doesn’t mean that this is the case. King David many times in the Psalms also asked God to awaken to his situation and to bring about salvation. MAY WE PRAY FOR GOD TO RESCUE US FROM OURSELVES, AND OTHERS! Psalm 44:23 reads, “Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? Arise, cast us not off forever.” At times we can feel like King David, but God is with us, as is Iesous and the Holy Spirit that is in us!

Water fills the earth, but clouds drop rain vertically. Why do we need rain if the earth is surrounded by water? When a forest fire takes place why do we need planes to fly OVER the forest and drop water? The answer is because there are “MANDATORY CHANNELS OF DISTRIBUTION.” In the East God planted “wells.” In Egypt the Israelites were receiving horizontal distribution, but in the wilderness God dropped manna and quail from the sky! Luke 17:20-21 teaches us “...The kingdom of God comes without observation: (carnal sight) Neither shall they say, Look!, here! or, Look! there! for, Behold, the kingdom of God is within you.” The Bible teaches us that there is spiritual fire and water. The two sons of Aaron offered strange fire to God and were killed. Water represents an “immersion” that cleanses. Fire represents a cleansing agent, defilement or pure inspiration. Fire represents ergonomics, seating, colors, volume, content, smell, touch, etc. Bathsheba’s position on the roof next to King David’s palace must’ve been fire, her lathered naked body and face must’ve been fire, her full-blown intimacy in public must have been fire! How could something that appeared to be so innocent have been so dirty? David was “burned” by this spiritual fire to the extent that he was inspired to send for her. He as a result enticed her into an adulterous relationship that led to the murder of her husband. Proverbs 6:27 warns, "Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?"

We must acknowledge the truth, WE MUST! 1 John 1:10 reads "If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us." A beautiful woman is attractive, if she has a gorgeous body and face she will inspire admiration. We must discipline our eyes so as not to stare or lust. Matthew 5:28 warns, "But I say unto you, That whosoever looks on a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart." The truth can't be denied. And for women the same truth applies. There are certain truths that some of us don't want to "confront" because of the words, emotions, and things that are attached to them. We can't remove a sinner's beautiful appearance just because they're a sinner! We need to ask ourselves the question "What do we need to remove and what do we need to keep?"

They say that "trust is earned" but I ask, "what tests must be passed?" We don't only trust in people, we also put our trust in things. Satan can manipulate some of the things that we trust in! We must place all of our faith and trust in God that he will keep us safe! Some of the things that needed to be removed were already done so by God! Sinners are waiting for God to do things that he already has done! John 3:16-21 reads "For God so (loved) the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believes on Him is not condemned; but he that believes not is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men (loved) darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For everyone that does evil (hates) the light, neither do they come to the light, lest their deeds should be corrected. But he that does truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest (obvious), that they are worked out and obedient in God.”

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER THIRTEEN THE EXORCIST

Luke 22:32 “And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:”

Jesus was and is an exorcist. Even today, when souls are saved by heaven, the soul is exorcised of any indwelling fallen angels. Possession is accomplished when a fallen angel enters a sinner’s body and transmutes through them. A saint cannot be possessed. There’s a difference between fallen angels and demons. One is a being and the other is a body of spirits. The scriptures inform us that Satan possessed Judas, and that seven evil angels possessed Mary Magdalene before Jesus delivered her and in Revelation 16:13-14 we read “And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, (Satan) and out of the mouth of the beast, (Roman Empire) and out of the mouth of the false prophet (religious pope). For they are the spirits (demons) of devils (fallen angels).

In Luke we learn about Legion who possessed the man who approached Jesus for deliverance, but Matthew informs us that there were two men, meaning that one didn’t consent to be delivered, meaning that the man who approached Jesus did consent and therefore was set free! In Mark we learn that this man was possessed by Legion and he had demons. The scriptures teach us that not only do these evil angels possess human beings but they will resort to possessing animals such as snakes and pigs. Several times in the Bible we are told that possession is recognizable. The woman from Canaan in Matthew 15:22 said “...Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou Son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil (fallen angel). In Mark 9:17-18 a man brings his son to Jesus and informs him that his son is possessed, in Matthew he explained that his son had lunatic tendencies and was accident prone.

Sin is obviously the doorway that leads to possession and demons. Sin, when not confessed leads to transgression. Sinners function in a state of spiritual death. Satan tempts people to do what? The answer is sin! Satan tempted Jesus in the wilderness with three temptations. The first involved turning stone into bread (violating laws to satisfy appetite) the second involved Satanic worship in exchange for worldly prestige, the third involved vain miracles and attempted suicide. Not only does Satan tempt people, he also attacks people, groups, cities, and nations, not to mention ministries. Distinguishing between a temptation and an attack will empower you to respond accordingly.

Possession we learn from scripture is the root cause of many mental ailments and physical diseases, including blindness, deafness, and muteness. (Matthew 12:22) Revelation 16:13-14 teaches us that demons can work miracles and they can travel in the air of their own accord.

Possession many times results in multiple personality disorders. In Acts and Luke a picture is painted revealing to us that possessed people have supernatural strength, they spend their time around the spirit of death, they would rather wear no clothes, they're violent and confrontational. Jesus taught us to Bind and Loose. Possessed people are controlled by a "strong man" spirit. This should teach us that exorcism is a "rite" that must be executed with order and professionalism. Satan's kingdom feels that they have legal rights to possess certain people. The man in Acts gave these evil angels legal right to possess him and speak through his mouth and attempt to murder the sons of Sceva but the man who was possessed by Legion removed those rights which led to them attempting to bargain with Jesus concerning where he would send them. Don't think that possession can only be found outside of the church because in Mark chapter one we find a man in the synagogue who manifested his spiritual state when a fallen angel tried to confront Jesus through his mouth causing Jesus to command him in Mark 1:25 saying "...Hold thy peace, and come out of him." Satan's kingdom preaches a pseudo Jesus, give people a pseudo Holy Ghost and teach a false gospel! Many people are receiving demons and becoming victims of possession through churches. 2 Corinthians 11:13-15 warns "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; For Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. (enlightenment) Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works." First we must distinguish between the real and fake Jesus, Holy Spirit and Gospel as we read in 2 Corinthians 11:4, "For if he who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if you receive another spirit, which you have not received, or another gospel, which you have not accepted, you might well bear with him." Why do you think that Satan attacks the deliverance ministry with every form of fire power that he has? Because we can see him and his kingdom and therefore we have the potential to set the captives free. The Apostle Paul informs us in 2 Corinthians 12:7 that a fallen angel was assigned unto him; Paul called him "the messenger (angel) of Satan". This is called an assignment which is when Satan specifically assigns forces of evil to you in an attempt to thwart your progress!

The saints must protect their mind and heart. We need to protect our heart from demons of lust, greed, pride, envy, fear, meanness, violence, doubt and unbelief. Demons can enter into the heart through masturbation or watching pornography. We also need to watch out for confusion of heart and mind. Satan will attempt to bind our eyes, ears, hands, and feet. Satan filled the heart of Ananias with deceit which led to his death as a result of trying to dupe the early Church.

In Acts we learn volumes about Satanic “activity.” Paul had an encounter with a young woman who was possessed with the Spirit of Python which gave her divination powers. The Apostle Paul being vexed by her occult rhetoric cast the spirit out of her! Peter had to confront Simon the magician who actually did believe, yet still tried to purchase the gifts of the spirit feeling as if they would enable him to become rich quickly. In Acts chapter 19 we learn that occult books were very popular in Ephesus. Occult books worth fifty thousand pieces of silver were burned after a botched exorcism attempt by a group of doubtful Jews. The New Age Movement encourages possession in their books. They invite people to become mediums or channels through which demons can operate. Child possession must be skyrocketing with the current revival in witchcraft films, Joke shops, and magic sets which are given mostly as Christmas presents! Something so seemingly “innocent” as keeping up with your horoscope in the daily newspaper can open up a door to satanic activity. These damning games are packaged and marketed to children as innocent fun.

We are given a glimpse into the mechanics of the spiritual realm in Daniel 10: 12:13 where we read, “Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou did set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. But the Prince of the kingdom of Persia (Iran) withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me;” This should teach us that fallen angels fight against the angels that are sent to assist us! When the angel departed he left Daniel with these words in Daniel 10:20 “and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia (Greece) shall come.” These are the ranks of fallen angels spoken of in Ephesians. Satan himself possessed the king of Babylon (Iraq), the king of Tyrus, (Lebanon), and eventually he will manifest as the Anti-Christ.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER FOURTEEN THE HUNTED

“To pursue with the intent to capture”

Keep your eye on the prize. What is the prize? Everyone wants to feel the sense of accomplishment. Nobody wants to feel like a failure. The prize is the reward. It's the fruit of your labor. God is the prize, and heaven is the reward of your relationship with him. The two greatest points in existence are life and death, and both are forms of consummation. People consummate life through sex and death through reckless living or suicide. Fallen man loves to consummate life because it involves sexual intercourse, but he also loves to hunt because he thinks that it legitimizes his perverse thirst to kill. A “hunting license” is a license to kill. Fallen man hunts women because he wants to dominate them sexually. Sex is an act that is consummated by hunting, capturing, and seizing the opposite sex and then to dominate them with affection. The hunter seeks to dominate the animal of his choosing. Hunters aren't allowed to hunt every animal because some species, like the bald eagle, are endangered. Satan isn't allowed to slaughter Christians unless they violate certain rules, but he has the liberty to hunt Christians and wait for them to violate those boundaries that give him license to attack. What is the animal of the hunter's choice? Whatever animal that the hunter chooses to chase will determine the habitat. Some animals survive in cold, hot, desert, or forest regions. Will the hunter use traps, guns, arrows, poisons, bait, or scents?

Is not searching for romance a form of hunting? What are the things in life that just make us intoxicated? What alters our mood and emotions to the extent that we feel like we are drunk? What do we love if not those things? We might want to revisit those things that inspired certain emotions like happiness, anger, passion, lust, or what have you. We could mistake those triggers as forms of inspiration. What set us on hot fire in some way? Those things, acts, appearances, gestures, gifts, flatteries, and words were “kisses.” A kiss is to touch fire, spiritually speaking. The hunter was kissed by the animal of his liking. He was kissed by the challenge, but also by the specificities of the animal. What hunter doesn’t study his prey? The woman in the Song of Solomon was searching for Solomon. She said, “Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth; for thy love is better than wine.”

Why would a hunter kill what he likes and desires to hunt? Hunters aren’t virgins once they obtain their “first kill.” They don’t love the animal that they’ve targeted. They rather lust to achieve a greater reputation by killing it, and then hanging it on the wall or wearing it. The virgin hunter is afraid to kill the animal because he knows that God created it. Women who are virgins many times aren’t searching for sexually experienced men, because they want to get married to another virgin. The hunters track the scent. Everything has and leaves a specific scent. The woman chasing Solomon said, “Because of the scent of thy good ointments thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee.” Some people feel that they must stigmatize certain things to be a problem so that they can spring into action as being the so called solution. The hunter must make the hunted look like a problem that needs to be solved. The hunter is saying, “This animal is drawing me to it; we are attached to each other on a deep level.” This is how serial killers treat the detectives who hunt them and how many law enforcement agents regard those who are playing psychological games with them. The woman chasing Solomon said, “Draw me, we will run after thee: the king has brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee."

It's ridiculous some of the things we remember as being supposed acts of love, but were really acts of intense hate. We need to recall the true acts of genuine love. The hunted are under a covering. If not, it wouldn't be called hunting. Animals hunt each other; so when a hunter takes part in hunting season, he knows that the animal is already leery because he has other predators who aren't human. The animal kingdom involves predator and prey. The woman chasing Solomon said, "I am black (under the cover of darkness) but beautiful, You daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon." This woman lives behind tents and curtains of clothing, meaning that her tent is her clothing. Where can the hunter find those that he is hunting? He must study the habits and breeding tendencies of his prey. Some animals travel in packs or schools, and some have leaders. You keep your eyes on the prize because you don't want to resort to a second place prize. Everyone wants to take first place. The woman chasing Solomon said, "Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where you eat and feed others, where you rest and cause your flock to rest at noon for why should I be as one who turns aside by the flocks of one of your companions.?"

What you don't know can get you killed! We are under God's grace. Therefore, He protects us, but at the same time, He shows us and teaches us to take heed to certain things. Solomon said to the woman, "If you know not, you most beautiful among women, go your way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids by the shepherd's tents." The hunters track the footsteps just as law enforcement tracks D.N.A. Those who are hunted aren't always unattractive. Stalkers who hunt celebrities many times stalk the attractive ones. You don't want to be mistaken for the hunted. It would be like a ram who dresses up like a deer during hunting season. I don't know if hunters shoot animals if they find them asleep, but that would be "dirty." God protects us when we sleep, but we shouldn't fall asleep spiritually out here in the world. The woman chasing Solomon said, "I charge you, you daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes and by the hinds of the field, that you stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please. The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills. My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold he standeth behind our wall, he looks forth at the windows, showing himself through the lattice."

Hunters while tracking sometimes can receive a "glimpse" of their prey. The hunted might hear a twig snap and flee away. We are looking out, and people are looking in. A person who is searching for a lover is "looking!"

The hunter tries to manipulate the habitat of his prey. Sometimes he removes things that might scare away his prey. He wants the hunted to think that everything is safe and well. The lover also wants to make the opposite sex feel at ease. Solomon said to this woman, "...Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away. For, look, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone; The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land; The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away." Nature is beautiful, and there's nothing more attractive than two people who are in love. However, the scene of an animal that was hunted and slaughtered in the presence of a beautiful environment such as the woods, forests, or flowers is a horrific sight! Who can a hunter ask for directions regarding his prey? Obviously, the animals aren't going to tell him or her where the prey is. The woman asked the watchmen, "Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"

Hunters sometimes accidentally encounter their prey, and they both become startled because a hunter's prey sometimes is a predator who hunts humans. We hunt Satan, and he hunts us. Once a hunter catches his prey, he doesn't let him or her go. The woman said of Solomon, "It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loves: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me." Animals that have been captured many times are placed in cages in a zoo. Humans who fall in love try to protect their loved ones. Some people have hunted lions, buffalo, or whales. Some of the animals that we would regard as prey are actually predators. You can be a predator and still be considered by Satan to be prey. The woman said of Solomon, "Who is this that comes out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all the powders of the merchant? Behold his bed, which is Solomon's, sixty brave men protect it, the valiant of Israel. They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man has his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night. King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon." Animals can't escape in cars and planes as humans do.

What happens when you lose your prey? What happens when you lose your prize? It appears that all hope is lost. People sit around and say, "I told you so; I told you that you weren't hearing from the Lord." It appears that you become visible for all to see with respect for your mistakes. The woman said of Solomon, "My beloved put his hand by the hole of the door, and my belly was moved for him. I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock. I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone; my soul fainted when he spake: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer. The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the wall took away my veil from me."

There are many forms of hunting, and many things are hunted, and death sometimes can appear in the form of losing what you love, or the death of what you love, or you trying to kill yourself because of the death of what you love.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER FIFTEEN CLARIFICATION

To clarify is to remove any doubt from an issue that might be in question. The perfect illustration of “clarification” is when you try to observe yourself in a mirror and realize that the mirror because of dust or other things is obscuring your vision. So, what you do is, you begin to wipe the mirror clean so that you can see. This is to clarify.

Clarification doesn’t only involve issues that are in question, it also concerns the “impressions” and innuendos that people give to each other which is the “root” of many misunderstandings! Once you’ve clarified something that is in question you’ve fulfilled your obligation and anything more that may be necessitated because of outside influences is called “reiteration.” Repeating oneself becomes frustrating because it makes a good communicator feel as if he/she didn’t communicate the message effectively. Chronic repetition in some instances reflects several conditions such as ignorance, inattentiveness, rebellion, incompetency, spite, bound ears, etc.

After we’ve successfully transmitted a message, if the aforementioned conditions aren’t a contributing factor, we might find ourselves fighting against “harassment.” Clarification is a very important aspect of the doctrine of social science, seeing that relationships are founded upon a consent to endeavor into future situations and events that are definitely guided by a person’s religious affiliation. We should call this principle “social clarification.” Even the rude and uncultured clarify their reckless abandon in acting contrary to Godly behavior.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

When seeds of doubt are sown in the heart with respect for clarification (because our job as a Church and Ministry is to communicate) it has the potential to lead us to doubt our effectiveness; because our clarifications weren't affirmed.

Satan's children oftentimes attempt to hustle the saints by using the tactic of foolishness in order to birth underestimation; therefore we must correctly ascertain people's degree of excellence. In Matthew 5:37 Iesous taught us, "Let your communication be Yes, yes; or No, no: For whatever is more than these comes from evil." The key then is to keep on clarifying, and not contradict those important things that we've professed!

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER SIXTEEN GUILT

When people think of “guilt,” oftentimes they associate it with a criminal verdict that places the blame and responsibility of a crime on someone. Then they tend to look for the “emotion of guilt” in the accused person as a sign of confession. Guilt is an emotion and stigma with respect for responsibility.

Guilt is a condemning feeling of regret and hopelessness on the part of a person who “feels” that they’ve victimized someone and wishes to repent, make amends, and bring about peace to the situation, but can’t! There are multiple forms of guilt such as emotional blackmail and moral entrapment.

Satan’s kingdom uses the “Good Samaritan” scenario to their advantage as highlighted in some of the most gruesome homicide cases involving serial killers. One distinct case is Ted Bundy who took advantage of his victim’s sympathy by inspiring guilt, which is one of human being’s most prominent emotional characteristics. Most of us have no problem with helping our fellow man, woman, or child.

Criminal psychologists in their “profiles” of serial killers always describe these people as sadistic intellectuals with a sharp sense of human nature. After all, they do attempt to play games with the greatest minds in criminology and forensic science.

The nature of human beings is in many ways predictable, and even more so with respect for who we have affinities for. What we take responsibility for is extremely important, because these things have the potential to become our burdens “literally.” Humans for the most part are creatures of “habit” who pre-arrange and make reservations.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

This is crucial information because in many cases involving abduction and serial killers, there is a criminal who looks respectable in appearance, and might even feign injury in order to obtain sympathy and guilt. They present an immediate emergency that they claim they need help with, whether it is moving a piece of furniture, or seeking help from a child to retrieve a lost pet. When these unsuspecting victims lend their helping hand they end up realizing that their trust has been betrayed. In most “scenarios” of crime this leads to robbery, rape, or death.

The “helpless victim” game that Satan’s kingdom plays has been in practice for ages. Remember King David’s son Amnon who took council from a friend to feign sickness in order to draw his half sister into his bed chamber and then he raped her!

Where people are currently, is the consequence of where they’ve been, and this is spoken in the broadest sense. This isn’t to say that there aren’t emergencies, but the Holy Ghost will guide us with discretion. Satan will try to use our proclivity to evangelize as an opportunity to draw us into mischievous and dangerous predicaments.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN THE ILLUSION OF CHOICE

The world claims that we think about three thousand thoughts a day! How many of those thoughts are we aware of? They also say that we make about half as many choices. Those choices involve what we're going to do, wear, eat, and who we're going to socialize with etc. If a choice involves a "deliberation" how could we assume that a choice made without deliberation is really a choice? It's rather an instinctual action.

Firstly, we must recognize the truth that "the illusion of choice" has the potential to convince you that there exist alternatives that really don't exist! Controlled environments in a satanic sense involve unwanted alternatives that have been disguised as choices. This type of stealthy presentation breeds such exercises as resorting, compromising, and selling-out. In this world we must create our own choices and alternatives. We as saints have been taught that we must wait for the world to create cultural products for us to choose from; when the truth is that Yehovah told man (saved man) to be fruitful and multiply.

There's a desperate need for us to distinguish between choices, decisions, judgments, and rights. Choices might seem to be frivolous because of the fluent rapidity wherewith we make them, but choices are the doorways into decisions. For instance, your choice of what to wear on any given day will influence where you go, because some establishments enforce dress codes.

A decision provokes more emphasis than a choice because of the importance of a given situation. Successful people are those disciples who learn from their mistakes. They say, "winners never quit, and quitters never win," but this is a lie! Winners quit many times on their road to success, but the difference between a quitter and a winner is that, winners when they quit always come back to win. But quitters always quit and never return. Successful disciples comprehend that failure is birthed from a lack of judicial skill. The word “decision” derives from the etymology (de-to remove/cisio-by cutting.) Your decisions not only reveal your decisions through acquisition, they also reveal that which you have excluded.

Judgments are even more obvious than decisions. Courts decide on a jury, but juries make life and death judgments. Choices affect everyday life. Decisions affect our immediate future, but judgments affect our future absolutely. Divorce, faith, real-estate, residence, marriage, and friendships are judgments. The reason that we as saints have difficulty making judgments is because some of us have been emptied of all apathy. The people that we might have difficulty judging are the same sinners who are at this very moment; partying, playing, swimming, socializing, singing, smoking, drugging, practicing other religions, and having sex. They are talking about how you have made all of the wrong decisions. They claim that it was your loss when you decided to disassociate yourself from them.

Proverbs 35:12-16 reads, “They rewarded me evil for good to the spoiling of my soul. but as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting; and my prayer returned into my own bosom. I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one that mourns for his mother. But in my adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together; Yes! the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did tear me, and ceased not; With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth."

Solomon in 2 Kings chapter two was instructed by his father King David to execute judgment on Israel's enemies who tried to appear as friends. In this chapter Solomon had to execute judgment on four people. Adonijah represents a person who seeks influential seats of power in order to seduce women. Abiathar represents religious clergy who become treacherous and covenant with usurping youth when the man of God becomes an elder. Joab represents a partner who isn't interested in first place. This type of person desires to remain anonymous in the shadows, but who becomes treacherous in the face of elders. Shimei represents a person who tries to hide hidden loyalties that are only tamed with an iron fist but when opportunity presents itself they begin to show hostilities that are rooted in secret affiliations. It's important to ask the question, "who is together?" The chapter ends by stating that Solomon's kingdom was established "after" he made these judgments. When we think of "rights" we usually think of the government or social injustices, but we must regard rights as social laws that affect every aspect of our life every day. When human rights are violated the spirit of man tends to lash out in violent revolt except for the saints who by the grace of God are able to maintain composure. A right is a law that is activated founded upon the exercise of one's privilege.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN FALSE DISCIPLES

There was a marathon runner who crossed the finish line in record time and was celebrated. Yet the race correspondents realized that even though they had commentated on the progress of individual runners they hadn't seen this particular runner during large intervals of the race. They checked the videos and couldn't find the runner, eventually they found out that the runner had "slipped" out of the race and had taken a train to a stop near the finish line and slipped back into the race and won. The runner was subsequently stripped of the medal. This is called a "deceptive parallelism," which is when something appears to be authentic because of a similar appearance. We are speaking of lip-syncing, enhanced athletic performances due to drug inducement, and cosmetic surgery etc.

The marathon is an ancient Greek invention intended to showcase the greatness of the human spirit and physical endurance. The race takes place yearly. Everyone "knows" the schedule. The victor wins money and corporate endorsements. This world class race enables one the opportunity to enter into the annals of history. This runner entered into a spiritual school in a sense- probably read many books, became a disciple of the winners of old, and maybe even studied under a trainer. When this runner was found to be a false disciple it affected the entire marathon community. How could this runner have executed such a sneaky trick in the presence of so many witnesses? We should learn from this historical lesson that just because someone is "in" the race doesn't necessarily mean that they will finish it, or even complete it honestly! In Hebrews 12:1 we read, "Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us," Disciples fraternize for many reasons. Those in government must know that spies are really false disciples. They enter into the "game" to learn secrets. Galatians 2:4-5 informs us, "And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in stealthily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Iesous, that they might bring us into bondage: To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you." A teacher's passion to teach shouldn't be allowed to override his wisdom and discernment with respect for who is "worthy" and honorable enough to be taught. What is worse than being "manipulated" by a false disciple? It's actually to find yourself being disciplined by your disciple. The Hebrew word for "obedience" isn't defined as an act performed after receiving instructions, it is defined as "to attentively listen." Iesous in John 10:27 says, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:"

It's important to comprehend the nature of relationships. This is accomplished by not "denying" that which has been clarified. A spiritual master is offering a doctrine. That doctrine includes truth, books, culture, aesthetics, sexual ethics, etc. A disciple must "believe" in what the master teaches. A school isn't defined by a definite number of disciples, so we must follow Iesous' model as an example. Iesous had twelve disciples. So, there are small schools with several select disciples, but then there are corporate schools with hundreds if not thousands of disciples. Satan wants to infiltrate schools by possessing disciples because we read in Luke 22:3, "Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve." You would think that Judas was a believer because he invested three years of his life in Iesous' ministry. He turned out to be a possessed thief and traitor who committed suicide. Hebrews 4:2 reads, "For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it."

The rebels of Israel experienced miracles and deliverance from Egypt but they didn't believe in God or Moses' leadership. We read in Numbers 16:3, "And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation is holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourself above the congregation of the Lord?" There's a secular proverb that asks, "what do you do when the student surpasses the teacher?" This teaches us that a master should never teach his disciples all of his secrets! In Silent Warfare by Abram N. Shulsky and Gary J. Schmitt we read, "The simplest and most direct method of affecting a foreign government's actions is to use an agent of influence- an agent whose task is to influence directly government policy rather than to collect information. Since an agent who is a high-level official in another government would be in a position to do both, this distinction could be a more theoretical than practical one. In such cases, using an agent whose prime function was intelligence collection to influence its government's policy might not be considered covert action. However, an intelligence service might not wish to jeopardize a good source by having that person try to influence his government's policy if, by so doing, he might call unfavorable and potentially dangerous attention to himself."

Joab was King David's trusted military general, but the story of Joab is a peculiar one. First, Joab's brother is killed because of his own foolishness, which leads to Joab killing the man who killed his brother; thereby destroying a truce between the two factions of Israel that were trying to reunite after the death of Saul. Next, Joab kills David's son Absalom who had tried to "overthrow" David's kingdom. Absalom as a King's son should have been taken into custody, but Joab's greed and unwavering determination led him to yet another murder. Again, Joab kills another man who was given his job because of the immediacy of an uprising that took place leaving not enough time to seek out Joab. Joab was called into the mission late, and found out that his job had been taken by another man, so he sought the leader of the uprising, but while in pursuit he found the man that was given his responsibilities and killed him in "cold blood!" Lastly, when David becomes old he helps one of David's sons make an attempt to overthrow the kingdom. David before his death informed Solomon, the rightful heir to the throne, of what Joab had done and subsequently Solomon had Joab executed! Joab was a type of government disciple to King David, but we learn through scripture that he had his own brand of teaching people lessons. Discipleship is dangerous when it involves a situation where you find yourself teaching your enemies!

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER NINETEEN FAMILY COERCION

Couples either plan to build a family through marriage, or as a consequence of living in fornication. The man is the head of the household, so therefore he dictates the family's confession of faith. 1 Corinthians 11:3 reads, "But I would have you know that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is man; and the head of Christ is God." If the family is planned the man and woman should have agreed to raise the child as a Judeo-Christian, but if the family isn't planned you'll have a tragic ordeal where if the man is saved but the woman is an unrepentant sinner, they will have to judge whether they will cultivate the child as a saint or sinner. If both people are sinners when the child is conceived, but before the child is born the man or woman is granted Salvation by God the woman can separate from the saved man and fight for custody of the child. A saved man can also separate from his unrepentant mate and fight for the child if he feels led by The Holy Ghost to this action. 1 Corinthians 7:12-15 instructs us, "... If a brother has a wife that believes not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away. And the woman which has a husband that believes not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him...But if the unbelieving depart let him/her depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage is such cases: but God has called us to peace."

If one parent is a secular sinner and secretly forbids the child to learn the unadulterated truth, the other parent is going to need enough discernment to withstand the consequences that will ensue if he teaches the child the unadulterated truth. If you betray the trust of a mate who is a sinner whose trust is founded upon them having confidence that you won't teach the child the unadulterated truth, Iesous taught us that they will try to betray you! Luke 21:16 reads, “And you shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends;” Biological parents aren’t shepherds of their children either because they’ve chosen to reject Iesous, or because they’ve been secretly denied the “right” to teach the child. Sinners act like they desire salvation for their children, but their actions prove contrary to their false confession. If a Judeo-Christian parent leaves because they’re being denied the right to save their child’s soul, it’s because they won’t stay in a family where they will only be accepted if they turn a blind eye to the truth and brainwash their own child! In Mark 3:33-35 Iesous asks, “Who is my mother, or my brethren?...whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.”

Iesous was teaching us that if biological parents and associates reject the truth, they’ve not only rejected Iesous, but they’ve also rejected you, because your lifestyle is supposed to reflect the Gospel. This is the predicament even with families and associates that claim to be Judeo-Christians. Philippians 3:18 warns, “For many walk, of whom I have told you often...They are the enemies of the Cross of Christ:” They masquerade as believers, but they’ve really chosen to live as reprobates! Titus 1:16 reads, “They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.” Rather than confronting the conviction that they felt as a result of our testimony they attempted to label our disassociation as strange and crazy. 1 Peter 4:4 reads, “Wherein they think it strange that you run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:”

Iesous was sharp when teaching about negative soul ties. In Luke 9:60 in response to a man’s request to return to his family, Iesous says, "Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God."

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER TWENTY MIRACLES

1 Corinthians 12:4-10 “Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same spirit...To another the working of miracles;”

People are born with talents and gifts, and both of these abilities can be nurtured. Some people are musically or athletically inclined without any tutoring or training. In a worldly sense, a talent becomes noticeable at an early age. For instance, a child will begin to show an interest in something at an early age. The child finds him or herself good at something immediately, and the parents will nurture that talent or talents. Many parents attempt to capitalize off their children’s talents and gifts. A gift is different from a talent. A gift is an endowment that’s regarded not as being passed down through the family line but from God. In the Kingdom, apart from our talents and gifts, God also provides us with “charisma,” which is the Greek word for supernatural gifts. One of the gifts is the power to perform miracles. This gift involves an endowment that enables you to create something out of nothing. It’s to create without any visible building materials. It’s to build by using spirit. It’s to be given access to spiritual building materials. It’s for God to program his creation to respond to your word!

The above quoted scripture uses a Greek word that means “energy” instead of the translated word “working” with respect for “working miracles.” This should teach us that miracles are high powered supernatural events that involve translating energy, atoms, and elements into desired forms.

Ancient technology can be attested to by some of the first miracles performed in the scriptures. The miracle of Moses’ staff can withstand the boast of any modern invention of technology. The text says, “miracles” in the plural. There are different types of miracles. The Hebrew word for “rod” is “mattah,” it’s defined as a branch, which is an extension, but it’s also a device of chastisement or correction. A branch that has been disconnected from a “tree” becomes a petrified stick. A miracle can be performed by using anything that is an extension of God. If it’s God’s will, He will channel his power through that instrument. The rod will become God’s whip in your hands! God at times has been known to supply his “servants” with unconventional weapons. Samson was delivered by using the jawbone of a donkey, and after Samson prayed God made water rush forth from his weapon.

In Exodus 4:2 we read, “And the Lord said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And He said, A rod.” The enemy also has the power to perform miracles, because we see in the scriptures that he imitated many of Moses’ and Aaron’s miracles involving the plagues of Egypt. Moses’ rod turned into a snake! The snake didn’t exist previously nor did it exist after it turned back into a rod. Teaching us that the rod’s molecular structure and D.N.A must have went through an immediate metamorphosis changing into a full grown serpent. It’s interesting, because angels have the power to translate into human form. Satan’s kingdom have the science of metamorphosis. This snake was a real, one-time creature who when translated back into the spiritual realm no longer existed in a sense. The subsequent miracles didn’t involve the rod changing shape, but rather God’s power being shot forth from the rod like a gun.

The next group of miracles involved Elijah and Elisha. Not only can you birth miracles through a rod, you can also birth miracles through prayer! James 5:16-18 reads, “The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much. Elijah was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit." Elijah also multiplied the woman's meal after he left the brook where God sent ravens to feed him. This teaches us that miracles can take place via what we already have. These things can be multiplied like Iesous did with the fish. Elijah also was given control over the elements as was Joshua when he commanded the sun and moon to stand still. When God was pleased with a sacrifice he would enflame the sacrifice as he did with Elijah's sacrifice on Mount Carmel, or like the spontaneous combustion that took place when Aaron's sons offered strange fire. Elijah also called fire from heaven! This miracle involves making fire appear without wood, match, or gasoline. This miracle was God's because it was God witnessing to Elijah's authority. Elijah initiated the miracle. Elijah in 1 Kings 1:10 caused fire to appear and burn 50 men to death. We read, "And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty." Elijah did this twice! Elisha, Elijah's prophet also performed miracles. He made iron swim by casting a stick into the water thereby creating buoyancy which caused the sunken axe head to resurface. Elisha also cursed his counterfeit disciple with leprosy teaching us that miracles can be activated through spoken word. Iesous performed the most miracles in scripture. John 11:47-48 testifies, "Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man does many miracles. If we let him thus alone all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation."

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER TWENTY ONE HARDCORE SATANISM

1 Timothy 5:15 “For many are already turned aside after Satan.”

Satanism is a bonafide religion that is recognized and licensed by the government of America. I visited Salem, Massachusetts several years ago on a novelty adventure. The person that I was evangelizing to was a Satanist who suggested that we visit the city, and we eventually visited the witch museum. I had many preconceived notions about this city that were as the result of its historic past, but I still wasn't prepared for the bizarre things that I witnessed.

When we arrived we merely drove around different neighborhoods sightseeing. After some time we stopped at a park from where we saw the museum, so we decided to entertain ourselves by attending this show, or so we thought! The witch museum isn't a “show.” It's a historical narrative accompanied by theatre and images that recount the witch trials that took place in Salem. That experience seriously impressed upon me the reality of Satanism in the secular world. After the presentation we visited the gift shop and perused through the displays in amazement as people mistook this shop to be nothing more than a novelty. As we crossed the street into the city marketplace I was astonished to see that the city was plagued by satanic businesses. I felt like I was in Hell. It was the Las Vegas of Satanism.

Just recently I decided to revisit Salem on the computer by attempting to view a virtual tour. I couldn't find one, but what I did find was horrifying. I learned that Salem is called “witch city,” and it has an official witch! I also witnessed a street preacher get arrested for preaching the gospel in public. Salem represents hardcore Satanism. The word “hardcore” means, unadulterated, unapologetic, boldly arrogant, and confrontational. There's pornography, but then there's hardcore pornography.

I love and have enjoyed many forms of music. Music is the instrument through which humanity expresses itself via a composite body of rhythm, lyric, image, and dance. There are many styles of religious music. Christianity, Islam, and Satanism have music industries. Satan's music industry creates music to encourage worship for him. Genesis 4:21 teaches us that Cain's ancestors were the inventors of musical instruments on earth, "...he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ." Up until recently, lyrical rhymes over music, (rap) was excluded from the category of Satanism. Secular rap was always satanic, but not explicitly stated. At one time, Heavy Metal and Rock and Roll was the only places where one could find this type of dark music.

Satan has tricked the parents of middle and upper class social status by convincing them that the music that their disgruntled children were listening to was being promoted by responsible Christian record companies. And that the music was merely rebellious art at best (like the films that they watched with their children.) These same fickle parents who chose to forsake their children for the benefits of corporate America are the same ones who ended up getting butchered or shot to death in their suburban homes! Many parents even purchased for their children, Marilyn Manson and Ozzy Osborn music. This malevolently empowering music encouraged these children to murder their parents or themselves. I'm disgusted with watching talk shows where parents sit there after the fact talking about how they can't believe that the deceased parents allowed their children to listen to this kind of dangerous music when their children are doing the same! They say that music calms the savage beast, but satanic music draws out the savagery of flesh hungry party goers. These parents were “blind” to all of the signals. They saw the album covers, and they heard the violent sounds, but they mistook it for an innocent attempt by their children to become likeable and trendy, but they missed the symbolism. Hardcore Satanism can be identified by its symbols. All of the “promotion” was screaming for attention with baphomet, inverted crosses, 666, and skull and crossbones symbols. These parents actually saw the posters hanging on the wall! Nowadays these parents are even allowing their children to get tattoos. Some of these parents were Satanists themselves.

Hardcore Satanism has many branches. These disciples are blood drinkers, nocturnal, they sacrifice animals, make satanic pacts, collect pornography, indulge in extreme body piercing, and wear dark cosmetics and clothes. Psalm 73:6-9 warns, “Therefore pride encircles them as a chain; violence covers them as a garment. Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish. They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily. They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walks through the earth.”

They regard suicide as a noble exit out of this life. They invite angelic possession, that’s why every time we watch a documentary about school shootings or cultic slaughters we become sick to our stomach because of the gruesome nature of the crimes. I recently watched a documentary about three teenagers, who kidnapped, sodomized, stabbed, dismembered, and murdered three little boys, and then hog tied them, and left them in the wilderness! The forms of Hardcore Satanism that you’ve probably seen involve conspiracy theories where these “nuts” teach that there are aliens among us, and that there are 13 illuminati bloodlines. The current overlords in these fields are basically David Icke, and Madam Blavatsky who wrote the occult classic, “The Secret Doctrine.” You’ll hear such names as the Knights Templar, Trilateral Commission, and the Order of Nine Angels etc.

I happened upon a film called The Ninth Gate, and I was shocked by how much reverence and value Satanists place on their secret/private books. In the film a bibliophile hired a book detective to hunt down two copies of a satanic book that he owned to see which one was real. In the film bibliophiles were being murdered over the real book while the fake books were being burned. Rebecca L. Brown in her book Set the Captives Free spoke about how she climbed high into the ranks of witchcraft to the degree where these witches were promised the opportunity to sleep with Satan himself in the form of a young affluent possessed man. She also spoke about how Satanists who are doctors kill their patients. We already see this with regard for abortion, and euthanasia.

Satanism ultimately involves transferring power with respect for “estates.” An estate is the largest private land acquisition allowed to a citizen. Many estates are the size of several football fields, or Vatican City which is a sovereign nation! Satanists hold their Black Mass on Estates. An “estate” is also a person’s body of legal wealth. Estates are comprised of real-estate, antiques, stocks, businesses, jewelry, and book copyrights. Job 24:13-17 reads, “They are of those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof. The murderer rising with the light kills the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief. The eye also of the adulterer waits for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and disguises his face. In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime: they know not the light. For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.”

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER TWENTY TWO DELIVERERS RAISED IN THE ENEMY'S CAMP

Truth or lie? Virtue or vice? Everyone's character is recognized in alignment with the results of their situational ethics. The righteous, when searching for a stranger's identity, doesn't ask questions concerning occupation or material possessions as a prerequisite that supposedly leads to a revelation of one's true self. Those devices, which we obtain as a consequence of our livelihood can never fully testify on behalf of our souls unless our occupation has been honored as beneficial to humanity. Truly inquisitive minds seek a more in depth description. Description involves the mathematical exactness of intense dynamic observation that allows an opportunity for unlimited perception so to speak. Exaggerations, half-truths, and historically accurate fiction when not received as such are lies. What is the motivational trigger that inspires one to give audience to an unproved teacher? King David unequivocally answered this oftentimes unasked question in Psalm 49:13 where he wrote, "This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings." Consenting to a lie renders one an audience-accessory to a crime by the sin of omission. What is truth? Truth is the body of ethical rules that govern the reality of eternal survival. A lie is a deliberately promoted falsehood or unestablished theory that's being asserted as a fact. A lie is a non-reality!

Lies are easily detectable to the trained eye because they lack reinforcing proof to confirm authenticity. Contrary wise, deceptions are painstakingly difficult to solve because they were constructed in a myriad of complex layers in anticipation that the deception might possibly be investigated. They say that discovering deception is similar to peeling off the multiple layers of an onion. A liar is a person who is learning how to become a deceiver. A deceiver is one who has graduated from lying, and has enrolled in the school of fabricating elaborate stories, and then attempts to pass them off as truth. The Apostle John wrote concerning Iesous the Messiah in 1 John 2:4, "He that says, I know him, and keeps not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him."

The Bible warns us that Lucifer is the great deceiver! The "father of lies" is also the pioneer of deception. The Devil, Satan, dispatches corrupters to sabotage the children of God, but Yehovah has deliverers. These liberators are oftentimes raised in the enemy's camp such as Moses. Satan's bodiless, genderless spirit-built kingdom is highly organized and united. They assume an earthly appearance by transmutating their bodies through the people that they aspire to possess. The culmination of their established heritage on this planet can only be explained as "systematic insurrection prevention." The slaughter of the innocence has been sculptured into a modern-day art form. The blackest, most rudely blatant evidence regarding Satan's kingdom is obviously his worshippers who identify themselves as Satanists, and who are recognized and protected by certain governments as a legitimate religion even receiving the license to practice! Because God created Adam and then extracted Eve from out of Adam, women being the vessels that procreate using the sperm seed of man, women are Satan's targets! How can a woman raise a man without a man being present? In the male child there will undoubtedly grow a feminine imbalance.

There are female Satanists who breed children for the exclusive purpose of human sacrifice. In the Black Mass, Satanists execute a child as a replica of Jesus Christ. They are rarely if ever prosecuted for premeditated homicide because they never register the pregnancy in order to evade accountability!

Hospitals are either government, private, or publicly operated. Whosoever helps a woman and man deliver a child into this world's system is strictly commanded by government to supply a birth certificate for public record. Hospitals shut down and relocate, but City Hall is the ultimate source for obtaining one's birth records.

In the Holy Scriptures these Satanists appeared in the form of worshippers of Molech, who sacrificed their firstborn. Where there is no birth record how can a woman or man be formally accused for the murder of an infant, especially seeing that these people purchase portable incinerators for the purpose of cremation?

Life in the secular sense, is evidenced by paper trails and computer entries. Many overconfident charlatans who boldly claim to be born-again Judeo-Christians nonchalantly attempt to substantiate their ridiculous boast by merely pulling out some church sanctioned baptismal record! Because citizenship is legally binding it must be proven by furnishing a birth certificate, social, or identification card. Otherwise a person will be given the social status of "immigrant," and delivered to a deportation agency. The protocol involved with renouncing citizenship or obtaining dual citizenship concerns "naturalization," which is a government sanctioned assimilation program. So in a sense, only documented citizens become the indirect state property of a nation. This traumatizing truth becomes crystal clear when people lose their rights as a consequence of criminal incarceration.

Since times recent there have been global mainframe computers used to meticulously track every facet of civilization, which subsequently gave birth to the world wide internetwork; the Internet! As you should know countries have budgets; and some have a national deficit, which is the result of reckless spending that forces a nation to apply for international loans. These loans are based upon the amount of birth certificates that a country “owns”! This soul-estate is a documented testimony of the might of a nation’s workforce that affirms their promise of debt repayment. There was a law enacted in America that could possibly still be in effect that required all sixteen-year-old males to register for selective service as a prerequisite for employment. Countries don’t only pay for merchandise through imports; they also pay for protection from other nations.

As aforementioned, satanic child breeders murder their infants. However, while most women are pregnant the medical community attempts to stealthily coerce these women into participating in “childrearing” classes, which are designed to teach these women what to do while they are pregnant and after they deliver the child. In the book of Exodus we learn that Pharaoh instructed these child-rearing specialists to murder the babies at birth! These “child psychology” specialists are instructing these ignorant first-time parents to use illegitimate points of reference that are outside of Scripture, but the Bible teaches us in the Gospel of Luke (Luke himself being a physician) that when the Holy Ghost spoke through Mary to her cousin, Elizabeth, that the baby moved with joy in her belly; and that Elizabeth, too, was filled with the Holy Ghost!

Satan’s kingdom is recommending many secular and “fairy tale” based tools to these parents for the purpose of developing these babies in the womb. As a baby begins to grow into a toddler, it is in its greatest developmental stages, meaning that whatever is played as music, Internet, or television becomes an integral part of the child’s collective consciousness because the child’s mind and brain is not completely developed yet. It's a truth that babies and toddlers aren't blind or deaf! As a toddler the child is given "dolls." Both boys and girls are given dolls; it's just that they call a boy's dolls "toys." Dolls are for the purpose of "psycho-drama." You can learn a lot about a child by how they use their dolls and toys. At one time these dolls were promoted predominately as representing the people of whatever land. In America at one time the dolls were mainly European. I don't think that the doll manufacturers in Africa are currently trying to sell European dolls to the extent that people might fancy. It's human nature to lift up the image of your own ethnic group.

We were taught and encouraged to indulge in fantasy from the earliest age, and we were informed indirectly as to who the ruling class was or is. These dolls or toys taught us much about whom we should become and regarding our sexuality. In America, the most famous toys were (and probably are) the green "toy soldiers." With respect for sexuality and gender roles, the girls learned about femininity, and the boys learned about masculinity; but in America, nine out of ten dolls or toys portray man as a beardless effeminate or a masquerading superhero. Why do all of the superheroes wear masks? Were we taught to conceal our true identity through playing these "games?"

The deliverer who was raised in the enemy's camp was given crayons and taught to "give color to life." You remember; the orange fruit you colored orange, and the apple you colored red. We were given puzzles and balls and taken to "amusement parks," but we weren't encouraged to figure out God, Jesus, the Holy Ghost, or angels. We were kept away from those things! We were allowed to watch cartoons about aliens, people, and creatures who executed some of the most violent, sexual, and heinous acts; yet we still have child therapists who might try to make the ridiculous argument that the Bible isn't "healthy reading material."

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER TWENTY THREE CONVERSION

JOHN 4:22 "Ye worship ye know not what: We know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews."

The East is the cradle of civilization. The Bible, up until the book of Acts, was essentially written in the East. The Holy Land is called so for a reason. The centuries' long work of recording God's Word and modeling the Holy Culture was given to the Jewish Hebrews. The Apostle Paul writes in Romans 3:1-2, "What advantage then hath the Jew? Or what profit is there of circumcision? Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God." How could a people who promised the Messiah give birth to a Christ who wasn't himself a Hebrew? Jesus was Jewish! Yehovah, speaking to the nation of Israel, affirms in Deuteronomy 7:7, "The Lord did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people..." The Greek word for Gentile is "ethnos," which refers to any ethnic group that hasn't converted to Judeo-Christianity.

What is a Jew? What is a Hebrew? The word "Jew" originates from the Hebrew word "Yehuwdiy." It's a derivative of the name Judah, which means praise. The word "Hebrew" comes from "Ibriy," which is derived from a word that means "on the opposite side" or "to cross over." The first appearance of the term "Jew" can be found in the Book of Esther. The spirit of this word, as used in Esther, gives you a sense that the writer was trying to communicate that this term is a negative epithet, almost a homonym that is used by the enemy referring to a Jew who has assimilated or who they attempt to force into assimilation by stigmatizing this name. The first appearance of the term "Hebrew" can be found in Genesis 14:13, where Abraham is identified as a Hebrew. The first mention of both terms, both in Genesis and Esther, reveal to us the meaning of both terms. Abraham is called the Hebrew because he obeyed God when God instructed him to forsake his family (even though he took Lot) and culture by relocating to a land where God promised to bless him. Mordecai and his brethren, on the other hand, are relentlessly and consistently referred to in Esther as Jews.

The enemy has attempted to ruin the term Jew, but those who have obtained the appropriate degrees of spirituality recognize that even though the terms “Jew” and “Hebrew” can be used interchangeably, a real Jew is one who achieves the degree of a Hebrew. I guarantee that you haven’t heard anything negative about a Hebrew because the name represents respect, honor, religious observance, and conquest. Jewry represents an ethnic group, a nation, and a religion (Hebrew is also a language). No other ethnic group’s name encompasses or is associated with all four of these attributes. For instance, Europeans have a nation called Europe, but you can’t associate the term European with any religion. Obviously, you can’t convert to an ethnic group, but you can obtain citizenship in a land outside of your own. You can become an Israelite, which the Bible instructs us to do essentially. We find this injunction in Ephesians 2:11-12, “Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past, Gentiles in the flesh, who are called uncircumcision by that which is called the circumcision in the flesh made by hands; That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the Commonwealth of Israel...”

In the Torah, it states that the nations can convert to Judaism based upon specific stipulations. Ruth was a convert to Judaism. Judaism should actually be called “Messianic Judaism” because the Old Testament prophesied the new covenant, and the New Testament fulfilled the Old Testament. Anti-Semitism would have you believe that Judaism is an evil monster that must be removed from your Bible, even to the extent of some ministries handing out only the New Testament. You can become an Israelite, and you can convert to Messianic Judaism. The Apostle Paul writes in Romans 2:28-29, "For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh; But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God."

Culture is the heart of a people. Culture is revealed by your fashion, by your aesthetical obedience to sexuality, which violation I deem to be the fruit of "aesthetical coercion." Education, entertainment, and athletics are the products of culture. The word "culture" means "to cultivate" or "to build up into a product." Religions are cultures. Judaism practices Hebrew culture, but Christianity practices Greco-Roman culture.

I'm sure that you've heard of the "diaspora." This word is used in the Epistles in the original Greek when referring to the twelve tribes that were scattered abroad. This word means "to scatter seed abroad." The Hebrews had to preserve their culture in hostile environments. The early believers were Judeo Christians; they were Jewish believers. Some of them could not worship in the synagogue because of the persecution that would follow, and those who did create churches attempted to model the churches after the synagogues in many respects; but they chose to forsake the Jewish culture, which led to the deterioration of morality and ethics.

If faith without works is dead, as the Apostle James taught us in his Epistles, religion without culture is also dead! The reason why people are so attracted to Islam is because it comes with a culture. Muslims are easily identified, but fake Christians aren't. Let us not forget that Muslims are the descendants of Abraham through Ishmael.

There are also cultural wars. When two nations go to war against each other, how could you think that it doesn't involve cultures? Armies wear different uniforms, speak different languages, and play different music. A major aspect of war involves music. In the Bible, you read about Israel blowing the ram's horns and trumpets, and the Psalms of David were read and chanted to music. Satan, we learn from the Book of Revelation, has ultimately claimed Greco-Roman culture as his own. In the Book of Acts, we read about the "Council of Jerusalem," where we learn that Paul and certain clergymen were called into question at Jerusalem with regard for the validity of the Torah and Jewish customs and culture (Acts 15).

All throughout the Scriptures, we learn about Satan's attacks on the Hebrew people, from the slavery in Egypt to the Persian and Babylonian captivities. The word "Christian" was used first in Antioch according to Acts 11:26, but before this we were called disciples and then Nazarenes. The Apostle Paul was accused in Acts 24:5 and addressed as thus, "For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:" How are we going to circumnavigate "assimilation" if we don't first recognize "mass religious deception?"

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER TWENTY FOUR OUTLAWS IMMORTAL

In religious circles, we often hear the term “deliverance.” We usually associate it with spiritual warfare or salvation. Deliverance is to remove from harm or death. However, what about deliverance in the secular sense? There are too many forms of deliverance to name here such as people, things, places, and institutions. Deliverance is sought, received, and given founded upon the kind of help that is being promoted by whom or whatever! People who seek secular deliverance suffer from the obvious inadequacies but also from the “ex” factor. They are now known within the system as an ex-drug addict, ex-gambler, ex-psychotic, etc. Secular deliverance tends to place people in disrepute. Satan wants to discredit his enemies. Jesus was the deliverer in the Middle East two thousand years ago, yet his own people delivered him to Rome for execution. This means that Israel looked to Rome for deliverance. Jesus’ deliverance wasn’t labeled ministry; it was stigmatized as crime and illegal activity! The Jews said to Pilate in John 18:30, “...If he were not a criminal, we would not have DELIVERED him up unto you.” Deliverance of any sort isn’t always obvious; sometimes it’s indirect, secret, or difficult to detect. The Mark of the Beast or the Mark of Satan will appear to be a form of deliverance.

To carry your cross is to run the risk of being labeled as a criminal who is offering false deliverance. Capital punishment is a sentence rendered to criminals who are said to have committed the ultimate crimes. Jesus was a victim of religio-political Satanism. Corrupt governments legislate corrupt laws! Jesus knew that Israel was going to look to Rome for deliverance from him because in John 18:32 we read, “That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die." Was Jesus a man, prophet, apostle, criminal, Son of God, or a lunatic? Jesus asked His disciples in Matthew, "Who do men say that I am?" Today the world knows who Jesus is whether they choose to admit it or not. The world will allow you to retain certain titles that are associated with the Church, but they won't allow the influence of that title to operate in secular circles because they separate Church and State. Pilate asked Jesus in John 18:33, "...are you the King of the Jews?" Pilate obviously didn't respect Israel's so-called theocracy because Herod was their king, and Rome was occupying the land. This is probably why Pilate sent Jesus to Herod to see if Herod would charge Jesus with trying to usurp his kingly office! Pilate didn't ask Jesus in that text if he was the Messiah because that would have immediately placed him (Pilate) and Rome in subjection to their Lord and Savior! The cross involves you not being recognized with respect for your official title and authority. Loss is painful, especially a loss that is fabricated. The saints whom God saves, Satan attempts to remove all acknowledgment with respect for his kingdom towards that person. This teaches the saints the source of much of the notoriety that they experienced and bathed in, in their past lifestyle. It's actually something that they should've never experienced. In a sense it was fake fame, family, friends, women, and men.

Loss must reach the point where it's no longer loss but rather gain in this situation. Pilate tried to act like he had never heard of Jesus as if Jesus didn't have a reputation. What happens when you lose your reputation? When a person acknowledges your reputation, they have to place themselves in line with who you are. Pilate felt that he couldn't acknowledge Jesus because that would have been to say that Jesus was who he claimed in a sense based upon his reputation reaching the ears of top government officials.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Jesus lets Pilate know that He knows that Pilate knows Him. In John 18:34 Jesus asks, "are you saying this thing of yourself, or did others tell you of me?" You really can't force someone to acknowledge the fact that they know you. God has ways of anointing us and making us a light so that regardless of people's feigned ignorance, their conscience will bear witness to who we are. Who can deny an angelic anointing on a saint's face? The Bible says that Stephen's face shown like an angel! The cross is the loss of so-called family, children, friends, and the reputation associated with them. Matthew 10:34-36 reads, "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to bring peace, but a sword. For I am come to SET A MAN AT VARIANCE AGAINST HIS FATHER, AND THE DAUGHTER AGAINST HER MOTHER, AND THE DAUGHTER IN LAW AGAINST THE MOTHER IN LAW. AND A MAN'S ENEMIES SHALL BE THEY OF HIS OWN HOUSEHOLD."

The cross is to preach and proclaim the end of this planet and its earthly system. There are groups who are trying to preserve this planet as if their efforts will have eternal effects as if humans will live on planet earth forever. They don't have a problem with the possibility of an individual afterlife because that doesn't affect the planet, but when you start speaking of global destruction, that speaks of the end of the human race. The Bible calls man "anthropos," which is a word that speaks of a creature or species. Basically, we're speaking of living zombies. Sinners are protective over their sins and sinful positions. In John 18:36 we read, "My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be DELIVERED to the Jews; but now is my kingdom not from here."

To carry your cross is not to be understood. Rome believes in reason not truth. Truth is the prescribed principles that guide action, but reason is what motivates an action. Actions are either motivated by instinctive reason or truth. When you carry your cross, the world won't comprehend the truth behind your actions because they will mistake them for instinctive reasoning. Truth is higher than reason. In John 18:38 Pilate asks Jesus, "What is truth?"

The cross is to watch worldly causes and missions be elevated to levels of prestige that would make you think that God commissioned them! It's to watch criminals who have been labeled heroes or who were rendered innocent when they were actually guilty be set free. Rome releases so-called revolutionaries in order to appease the so-called rebels. Criminals feed the judicial system. If the deliverers have the power to stop crime, then law enforcers are out of a job. Obviously, Israel and Rome felt that Barabbas was good for business! In Rome, murderers slaughter and torture victims and are made famous, protected, and given trials where no trial is needed, while the righteous are tortured. To torture is to hold captive and then to inflict excruciating pain with no intention to kill but to only inflict pain for however long. Pilate acts like he's not in partnership with Israel who made the move that Rome was afraid to make which was to execute Jesus, but yet he has Jesus tortured. In John 19:1 we read, "Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged (tortured) Him."

To carry your cross is to suffer the theatrics of actors. People who meet for social engagements fall into role playing games. The soldiers, by dressing up Jesus as Caesar with a crown of thorns representing Caesar's laurel wreath and purple gown, were in essence manifesting a spirit of theatre. They were saying, "If you are the Messiah, that means that you are our Caesar, but we don't respect you as our Messiah."

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

To carry your cross is to wrestle with status symbolism. The Jews don't respect gentiles who wear kippers, the streets don't respect saints who wear gang clothing, and police don't respect saints who feel the need to stop crime. You must create your own identity. The Roman guards attacked Jesus' identity by adorning him in clothing that wasn't representing what a Hebrew King should wear. John 19:2 reads, "And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe."

To carry your cross is to suffer mockery. Mockery is to devalue by theatrically exaggerating, making fun of, or making a caricature of something that deserves to be respected as sacred in this sense. Rome attacks perfection and imperfections.

To carry your cross is to face bold-faced contradictions. Pilate was acting like he was on the Jews' and Jesus' side which is a "spirit of politics," but he still presented Jesus as "prepared" by his soldiers. How does the appearance of Jesus with Pilate, tortured, bruised, and bloody, dressed in a real royal gown that's being used as a costume supposed to inspire the sympathy of the crowd? Pilate was trying to use dry humor and blasphemous levity. In John 19:5 we read, "Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate said unto them, Behold the Man!" To carry your cross is to be a MAN. Rome ripped out Jesus' beard. If we are to model Iesous, we must wear a beard like he did.

To carry your cross is to suffer the portrayal of those successful people in the world who claim that they are the children of God and try to back up their claims with the splendors of materialism and financial wealth. When the Jews told Pilate that Jesus claimed to be the Son of God, Pilate became afraid because Caesar held the title of Son of

God. In John 19:8 we read, "When Pilate heard THAT saying, he was the more afraid;"

To carry your cross is to fight against "humiliation." The Old Testament also instructed the nation with respect for capital punishment, so I feel safe saying that there are honorable ways to die and to judge. Jesus was stripped, not only of his life, but He was also robbed of his clothing. Crucifixion was instituted by Rome as a deterrent. It was fashioned to frighten potential enemies. It is said that Roman citizens weren't to be crucified. Crucifixion was to be stabbed through the hands and feet, thereby stapling the victim to the cross, but then they were hanged. Jesus basically bled to death! Then they desecrated his dead body by stabbing him again!

To carry your cross is to live a life of moderation. Iesus was so famous that the Romans bickered over his five pieces of clothing to the extent that they gambled in order to settle the dispute. They regarded His clothing as some form of celebrity token. Rome's spirits consist of the worship of Law, Police, Politics, Theatre, Mockery, Masquerades, Contradiction, Brutality, Gambling, and Money! They made Iesus carry the instrument of His death. It would be like if today at an execution the victim is forced to pull his own execution switch. Iesus taught us to carry our cross, NOT THEIR CROSS.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER TWENTY FIVE THE POWER OF THE BLOOD

The Hebrew word for sin is “chattah.” It means to miss the mark. The mark is the bull’s eye. Why is the Hebrew word for sin associated with archery? When we speak, are we shooting words at people’s ears? When we get dressed, are we shooting fashion into people’s eyes? Are our actions really shots that we take at goals? If this is true, it means that God has instructed us with respect for what we should shoot at. Obviously, to miss the mark is to offend God. The argument can be made that sinners who sin against other sinners aren’t offending God; they are only offending their fellow human beings, but all souls belong to God. Ezekiel 18:4 warns, “Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sins shall die.” There are sins of the soul, spirit, and flesh. Prayer is an act of the soul and spirit.

In archery, the target has a bull’s eye that’s surrounded by a field-range which helps the archer to understand the mathematics with respect for how “close” he was to hitting the bull’s eye. To miss the mark can be regarded in two ways. It can mean to sin or to be within the range of perfection. Jesus says in Matthew 5:48, “Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.” God wants us to hit the bull’s eye. The opposite of sin is obedience. This teaches us that the principle of placement is of eternal importance. When our actions aren’t accurately projected, they offend God and humans. Sometimes to miss is to hit because in the Garden of Eden, God instructed Adam to miss Satan’s mark which was the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Adam and Eve hit the wrong bull’s eye! God gave Noah the exact measurements for the ark. If Noah would have missed the mark with his inaccuracy, the entirety of human civilization would've been in jeopardy. God instructed Moses to return to Egypt. However, on the way there, he began to doubt and God was going to kill him. Exodus 4: 24-25 explains this, "And it came to pass by the way in the inn, that the Lord met him, and sought to kill him. Then Zipporah took a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband you are." God demands that the flesh be removed from the reproduction process (circumcision.) This teaches us that blood is also the consequence of obedience in certain predicaments. Hebrews 12:4 reads, "You have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin." Moses was moving in the similitude of obedience as if he was heading back to Egypt to hit the mark, but he missed the bull's eye because he didn't want to shed blood as a consequence of obedience. Zipporah's accuracy was a form of intercession for Moses. God's accuracy in Egypt saved Moses and Aaron's life in the presence of Pharaoh because if the miracles wouldn't have worked Pharaoh would've probably had them killed! Obviously, Moses gravely sinned by not circumcising his son.

The world shoots at different targets. Almost every "sport" known to man involves putting a ball in a basket or net or running it over a finish line! Satan has taught the gentiles to swing at hell's piñata. 2 Corinthians 4:3-4 reads, "But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them."

Sin leaves you naked. Nakedness is defenselessness. Adam and Eve's protection involved them remaining obedient by not indulging in Satan's forbidden treat. We learn from Genesis chapter three that sin has an immediate impact. The consequences of some sins take a season to manifest, and some have an immediate impact. Sin demands blame and punishment. Adam and Eve were cast out of the garden, and their flesh was cursed with temporal death. So, why was an animal sacrificed to clothe them? Animals do sin because God cursed the snake, but nowhere in Genesis does it say that the animal that was sacrificed had sinned. This animal was righteous just as the animals that the Israelites brought to the altar of sacrifice were blameless. This teaches us that all sacrifices aren't founded upon the sins of the person or animal but rather on the benefit that others will receive from the sacrifice.

The Hebrew word for blood is "dam." It means, "that which when shed causes death." Satan in his twisted religions, especially voodoo and Satanism, indoctrinates people into believing that they should sacrifice an animal and smear themselves with the blood as if their salvation is attached to this perverse act. God didn't cover Adam and Eve with the animal's blood; he covered them with the fur or skins, but the shedding of blood was necessitated to bring about the appropriate covering. We are covered by the Blood of Jesus, but His blood represents our righteousness. We become righteous when we believe that the price for our past, present, and future sins have been paid for by Jesus' Blood! Jesus was a substitute for us, He took our punishment. His Blood was shed without cause; He was sinless. Our righteousness is ultimately in confessing that we are sinners saved by grace.

The main damning principle that traps sinners is in the fact that they don't admit that they're sinners. If we are sinners and sinners are sinners, what makes us any better than them? The answer is faith and confession! We strive to refrain from sin and they don't and because we believe in Jesus' person and blood we are forgiven and they aren't. The key here is that Satan performed the sacrifice! Jesus' Blood witnesses to the unrighteous judgments that Satan makes on sinners and attempts to make on saints. The Blood of Jesus is evidence that testifies of our guiltlessness. We sin, but the penalty of our sins is wiped clean by the Blood. The Blood cleanses our soul and spirit. In Revelation 1:5 concerning Jesus we read, " ..and washed us from our sins in his own blood,"

It's interesting that both Abel and Cain understood the need to offer sacrifices to God. Even people in the world try to attach their so-called good deeds to the principle of sacrifice in the hopes that God will respect their deeds. Who is the recipient in such a case, the person in need or God? Some people don't care about God or people; they perform generous acts for their own conscience sake. Some people help people and don't care what God thinks about it. And some people think that they're doing it for God and could care less about the people that they're helping. Cain's offering was for conscience sake. Abel brought the blood of the firstlings of his flock because he understood what pleased God. Because the sacrifices were "presented," there was a chance that they wouldn't be accepted. The scriptures say that God had "respect" for Abel's sacrifice but not for Cain's. The first homicide in the Bible involved jealousy over a sacrifice. Ironically, after Abel's death God questions Cain about Abel's blood! God said to Cain, "your brother's blood is crying for justice from the grave." Cain had a problem with Abel's blood sacrifice and then he didn't understand that blood cries for justice.

CHAPTER TWENTY SIX MINISTRY

1. Rapture 2. Tribulation/Mark of Beast 3. Iesous wins Armageddon 4. Satan imprisoned/Millennial reign 5. Satan released, eternally damned/Eternal kingdom of Heaven

The ministry is the organizational bureaucracy of God's Kingdom on earth whose responsibility is to introduce Salvation to lost sinners. Every saint has a ministry of soul-saving. The strongest ministry is that of the "elect" which are those whom God chooses. Those who repent can lose their salvation by forsaking their ministry like Judas. The Apostle Paul speaks of those who aren't elect in Hebrews 6:4-6 "For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame." Those souls whom God chooses find themselves repenting after they were chosen, whereas the repentant repent first. One receives the Holy Ghost first and then repents the other repents first and then receives The Holy Ghost. The Apostle Paul was elect because in Acts 9:15 God tells Ananias, "...Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name.."

We learn from The Gospels that Iesous and His apostles kept a bank in the form of a treasury bag. Nowhere in the scriptures are we informed that Iesous' ministry charged money for their services, but they did receive financial blessings from people who felt compelled to do so. Financial entrapment manifests when people in pseudo ministry find themselves controlled by the people in their church who dictate the preacher's message by monopolizing tithes and gifts based upon their approval of that which is being taught. The preachers feel that if they offend the congregation by telling the truth they will lose their financial support. Some ministries are for hire. They operate like a commercial business. Iesous taught in John 10:11-14 "I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd gives his life for the sheep. But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, sees the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep, and runs: and the wolf catches them, and scatters the sheep. The hireling runs, because he is an hireling, and cares not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine."

The four fishermen: Peter, Andrew, John and James forsook their careers to follow Iesous as did Matthew when he worked as a tax-collector for Rome. Even though the other seven apostles aren't mentioned with respect for the careers that they forsook we know that they did forsake worldly employment to enter into the ministry. Ministry doesn't involve living a hypocritical double-lifestyle. There's a price to pay and Iesous taught us that the price is great. The decision to enter into ministry could possibly mean the loss of all things that one might consider to be valuable before one becomes mature in the faith. Luke 14:26 reads, "If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple." One might have to walk away and forsake their family and children!

The Apostle Paul spoke sternly to those in Corinth who didn't understand ministry and were questioning the duties of clergy not understanding that ministry is hard work in 1 Corinthians 9:6-7 " Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to refrain from working? Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges?" In verse 11 he asks, "If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?" In verse 14 he makes the truth abundantly clear stating, " Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach The Gospel should live of The Gospel."

Many people believe that true certification and authentication isn't represented by souls, but rather by letters of recommendation. This causes one to place their trust first in the piece of paper rather than the person. What if an authentic saint is being denied the certificate? The Apostle Paul asks in 2 Corinthians 3:1 "Do we begin again to commend ourselves? Or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?" This ministry isn't about a piece of paper hanging on the wall it's about God witnessing for those whom he has chosen. Isaiah 61 reads, " The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord has anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, the garment of praise instead of the spirit of heaviness;" When Iesous returned from John's Baptism to his hometown of Nazareth and revealed his ministry by reciting the aforementioned passage they became enraged and attempted to throw Him off of a cliff not understanding that God's will, will be done!

The commercial "idealistic" utopian ministry of the world hires marketers and advertisers who assist them in calculating the best way to attract lost sinners without offending the world. That's why at times you might notice candy coated advertisements on trains or elsewhere that lack the punch of genuine evangelism. Most sinners regard these advertisements like they would a fitness club promotion. The world's church succeeds if we can call it that, by corporately and indirectly falling in line with each other's doctrine. The Hebrews and gentiles of Iesous' day we are told in scripture were "astounded" at his teachings and doctrine. It has become so bad that the truth appears to the unlearned to be some form of heretical apostate doctrine. When you enter into ministry The Holy Ghost will teach you the doctrine. The Apostle Paul writes in 2 Corinthians 4:1-2 "Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not; But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling The Word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God."

Because ministry involves hierarchy certain people are placed in positions of subservience. A boss in the world who doesn't assume his role of authority will be treated like an employee and there will be someone who seizes control indirectly by either instructing people or the boss him or herself! When people change, the people around them must change. Haters and scoundrels don't like this principle of growth because it forces them to act right. There's a time to humble yourself and a time to stand upright in your authority. In Acts 6:1-4 we read, " And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Greeks against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministrations. Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave The Word of God, and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of The Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint ever this business."

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Depending on whom God chooses to enter His ministry, His choice at times inspires fear as we read about Paul in Acts 9:22-23 “But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ. And after that many days were fulfilled the Jews took counsel to kill him:” In verse 26 we read, “And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.” Even in chapter 13 where the prophets and teachers of Antioch are listed Saul who changed his name to Paul when he entered the ministry is listed last.

There are different ministries. There’s the preaching, teaching, healing, pastoring, art, film, empowerment, book, music, and miracle ministry etc. The Bible teaches us that the ministry in one sense is authenticated by The Holy Spirit and the Gifts of the Spirit. 1 Corinthians 12:4 reads, “Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.” We are told that Satan creates pseudo ministries so therefore he must be able to imitate the gifts. The gifts are listed as 1. The Word of Wisdom 2. The Word of Knowledge 3. Faith 4. Healing 5. Miracles 6. Prophecy 7. Discerning of Spirits 8. Tongues 9. Interpretation of Tongues 10. Love

The best gift we are told in chapter 13 is love, “Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling symbol. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could move mountains, and have not love, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not love, it profits me nothing. Love suffers long, and is kind; love doesn’t envy, love doesn’t boast itself, is not proud, Does not behave itself indecently, seeks not its own, is not easily provoked, thinks no evil; Rejoices not in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; Bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails." The Apostle Paul named all of the gifts and rendered them useless when not governed by Love!

The ministry is a body. 1 Corinthians 12:18 teaches us, "But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased Him." It's not about where you want to be, but rather where God is pleased to place you!

It seems that Paul struggled with his place in the ministry because all throughout his letters we can see that Satan through people were trying to discredit and disrespect his ministry. Before you can respect your own ministry you must realize that you have one! In Philippians 1:15-16 we read, "Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and Strife; and some also of good will: The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my imprisonment: But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defense of The Gospel." Modern day apologetics has turned into a watered down debate where so called clergymen assume the role of being defensive while propagating arguments and excuses instead of the truth!

It's not that Iesous didn't want to invite his family members into ministry (because his brothers Jude and James eventually did write Epistles) but rather they were trying to discourage Him from functioning in His ministry by trying to bring Him home. We learn from scripture that His family practiced Judaism.

Those whom Satan's kingdom use at times are possessed by fallen angels and work in ministry, but when one of their family members is granted true salvation these angels of light won't invite them into ministry (if the person in question would even be foolish enough to join!) Philippians 3:18 reads, "For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:" The worldly church doesn't preach the cross of persecution. They preach a prosperity gospel.

There's a rank in ministry that has remained a mystery until this day but was understood in times past. The Musterion Adelphotes involves "secrets granted via silence imposed by initiation into religious rites." The security of the ministry resides in its secrets. In the original languages of scripture certain people are called angels, not in the sense of spiritual angels seeing that these men and women of God still operate in the flesh, but in the sense of achieving an apostolic angelic rank. Everyone when it is all said and done will either become a fallen angel in Hell or an angel in Heaven. Revelation 1:20 reads, "The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches:" Paul went so far as to say in Galatians 4:14 "but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus."

The world has a ministry. There are spiritualists and gurus who guide their goats. When one ministry clashes with another it creates a conflict of interest. Iesous taught us in Matthew 7:6-7 "Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again to tear you." Worldly people regard the truth as a component of secular conversation where people when they become too frustrated with illusions seek to argue religion and God without pulling out a Bible. They won't mind having an argumentative conversation about religion with us; knowing that they themselves are joking but that we are dead serious! Paul gives us the description of these people in 1 Timothy 6:3-5 "If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Iesous the Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof comes envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, perverse disputings, of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself."

When we speak of ministry we are speaking of a "corporate spirit" just as there are "national spirits." Matthew before he received his vocation was a part of Rome's tax collection ministry which forced Israel to finance their own oppression by paying Rome taxes! How can someone claim to be a Christian and pay taxes/tribute to a culture that uses that money to finance abortions, euthanasia, homosexual marriage, and secular public schools which I call "soul condemning institutions"! Iesous paid Peter and his own taxes as a show of wisdom. The worldly ministries must do business with secular wholesale distributors. In my dealings with Hebrew Culture I realized that I don't see Hebrews partaking in many gentile ministries. I don't see Hebrews at athletic events, nightclubs, movie theaters, public schools, etc. The ministry is supposed to usher the gentiles who wish to receive Salvation into Hebrew Culture. The Bible is God's Word not the Jew's book! Holy Culture is God's culture not the Jew's culture! In Galatians 2:14 we read about a fall out between Paul and Peter where Paul asks, ..."if you, being a Jew, live after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why do you compel the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?" This turns into a matter of who is converting and teaching who?

Everyone is not looking for answers. Some people think that they know it all and that they are on good terms with God.

Satan attacks ministries. He doesn't want souls to get saved and receive deliverance. He especially doesn't want souls to enter deep into the spirit world. At the deepest levels of ministry we are dealing with supernatural powers that function in a supernatural realm. The Greek word for energy is (en-inside & ergon-working) the word means, “the power that works inside of things.” We have an energy working inside of us through The Holy Spirit. Hebrews 6:1-3 teaches us that at some point it’s detrimental to re-lay a foundation that was already established because this means that something is wrong. The text reads, “Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on to perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of the resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. and this we will do, if God permit.”

Acts 4:32-5:10 “And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own: But they had all things common...Neither was there any among them that lacked: For as many as were possessors of land or houses sold them, and brought the price of the things that were sold. And laid them down at the Apostles’ feet. And distribution was made unto every man according as he had need...But a certain man named Ananias with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession and kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the Apostles’ feet. But Peter said, Ananias, why has satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Ghost. And keep back part of the price of the land?...and Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost:” His wife was also judged with a death-sentence! The ministry is a “personal” organization. Those so-called clergy and ministries who “promote” themselves as “cold” and impersonal aren’t authentic.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER TWENTY SEVEN FIGHTING FOR SUCCESS

Popular people whom we call “stars” are the people’s choice. These celebrity’s careers are controlled by their fans, supporters, or sponsors. When the fans feel that a celebrity is no longer inspirational, they have the option to no longer support him or her. That which is published becomes public domain. Investors in the truest sense understand the power of their influence which catapulted certain people into prominent positions. And when they feel as if they aren’t being recognized as such, they have ways of letting these celebrities know who really holds the power, or so they think! Jesus during his earthly ministry kept many aspects of his ministry private with respect for not becoming commercially secular. He constantly warned people not to spread his name around regarding the miracles that he performed on them. But as they ignored his wise instructions his fame became public. The crowds began to feel as if Jesus was their creation and commodity. Pilate nurtured this aspect of social and political science by allowing the crowds to choose once a year the prisoner of their choice for release from prison. Luke 15:6 regarding Pilate, reads, “Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.” There was a prisoner named Barabbas who was awaiting a death sentence for committing murder in an insurrection. The crowd coerced Pilate into releasing this murderer while cheering “Crucify him” with respect for Jesus their Messiah! They felt like they had made him so therefore they could destroy him.

King Saul was also the people’s choice. He was ceaseless in his pursuits to murder David. Saul’s reign was obviously solidified by his supporters who delighted in his compromise. God's choice is called his "elect." How does a child of God feel when he or she isn't the people's choice but is rather God's choice? Is the world's rejection more impactful than God's love? The world's financial affection towards people which leads to what some would consider nondescripts becoming icons is merely a form of temporary exchange and justification unless the person becomes a pillar of the business. In such cases, the celebrity's shelf life is secured, even after they've retired in the show business sense of refraining from projects which subtly leads to public obscurity; which many times forces industry insiders to begin to use words like "recluse" when referring to these stars who might feel like they've mastered the game!

King David before he was thrust into the spotlight because it was his time, and Israel had lost its leader, was shepherding sheep. God recognized David as a king while he was still preoccupied with a profession that many people might've looked down upon. When God sent Samuel to anoint David as King instead of Saul, David's family didn't even respect him enough to invite him to the feast as if his presence wasn't important at this gathering. Some people will attempt to undermine the importance of your presence! When people aren't invited to meetings and festivities it tends to foster in people a sense that they're either unworthy, unnoticed, or that they're missing out on something special. But what happens when the meeting wasn't established on their behalf? When they were invited on behalf of your credentials and they didn't even invite you? Samuel asked David's father Jesse in 1 Samuel 16:11 "Are here all thy children?"

When is the last time that you noticed that something important was missing? In ancient Israel, one of the most blessed things that could happen to an Israelite was for him to get anointed by a Prophet! It would be similar to a person signing an entertainment contract today? The anointing process symbolized the fact that God had recognized someone and therefore sent his prophet to anoint this person. In today's terminology the prophet would almost appear to be a talent scout. The shepherd boy from Bethlehem whom every one considered to be an underdog with no hopes of future greatness was now being anointed in front of his family. God doesn't hide what he does for you from others because of what they'll think about it. God doesn't care if they approve! What do you do when your family knows that you've been anointed king but they still attempt to treat you like a shepherd boy? Sometimes this treatment is birthed through ignorance and sometimes the root is spitefulness. Joseph suffered the same abuse from his brothers who were going to kill him but chose rather to throw him into a pit. We aren't supposed to apologize for who we are and have become in Christ. 2 Corinthians 5:17 reads "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

Everyone isn't oblivious to who we are. When the anointing departed from Saul, his inner circle began to describe to him a young man who was a man of war, musically gifted, poetic and honorable. King David was acknowledged for his abilities but not as king, neither was he utilized until they needed help. His family didn't stand behind what they had witnessed which rendered only him and Samuel as true witnesses of his kingship? When you find yourself incorrectly identified and therefore used for the wrong purposes you must maintain your composure and not allow yourself to enter into an identity crisis. An identity Crisis manifests when you find yourself contradicting who you are by what you do. David found himself treating his servant like a king and he, himself a king, being treated like a servant! We must strive to remain humble. Pride is the sin of Satan. 1 Timothy 3:6 speaks with respect for granting the office of Bishop “Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.”

Deliverance takes time, in some cases, years! Sinners don’t need deliverance they need to repent first. Professionals in the medical community I can imagine are familiar with the truth that symptoms disappear and reappear. Progress, it seems, wavers at times giving the illusion of backsliding. Saul relieved David of his ministerial duties, which duties didn’t belong to him in the truest sense. When you welcome a relief from a false duty instead of acknowledging the travesty for what it is, you will become grateful for being relieved from something that you weren’t supposed to do, not because you will never indulge in it again but because you were thanked for your involvement! David returned to his father and Saul remained sick. People who have low self esteem and who nurture an inferiority complex feel as if they aren’t worthy of their position which makes them feel like they’re stealing that position. The master doesn’t want to feel like he’s dependent upon the slave. The threat of a role reversal had Saul feeling like he had to send David home. Ageism doesn’t only concern itself with the elders it also involves youth.

Satan has his own versions of a David that he dispatches against the giants of the kingdom of God! The giants represent the alleged insurmountable odds that cause self professed brave hearts to shake in their boots. Giants are bigger, better, smarter, quicker, and richer. Goliath revealed himself to Israel frequently over a period of time, boasting of his superior qualities and not without merit in a satanic sense. How do you react when someone has a good argument with respect for their elitist position in Satan’s kingdom. We can respond “maybe so, but you’re going to go to hell if you don't repent." But what if they don't care about hell? Not only is Goliath a giant but he is also overly armed. His protection is excessive and he has an armor bearer. We must discern the capacity of things. The Apostle Paul instructed us to "Put on the whole armor of God" but that doesn't mean excess to the extent that we trip over our resources! We also need to be careful with regards for who we allow to become our armor bearers. Jonathan Saul's son had a good armor bearer unlike Goliath's who ran when he saw that David had slew his master. With all of his fortified regalia Goliath was still struck in the head with a smooth stone. The battlefield is the mind. Satan has some "smooth stones" as well as fiery darts to launch at the saints.

We must not venture to kill other people's giants when it doesn't concern the kingdom. The pulpit is for the purpose of lifting up Jesus, not furthering our political and worldly aspirations. We also must not slay giants for the crowd's response. Whatever happened to self respect and dignity? We aren't civil servants or slaves of public needs. I don't believe that David was upstaging for the crowd, I believe that he felt that he represented Israel and therefore he took on the responsibility. The "motivational factor" wasn't money or women even though they were promised to the man who would kill Goliath. Saul had offered a false reward in that when David killed Goliath he didn't receive what was promised unto him! We should be on the lookout for false rewards so that we don't end up disappointed or frustrated over not being compensated, especially when involving something that we shouldn't even be doing! The counterfeit church is desperately seeking the acceptance and love of the world and much of what they do is in vain because the Bible teaches us that the world hates the church. 1 John 3:13 reads "Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you." I'm sure that you've heard of the expression "put yourself in their shoes.” When we’ve been saved for a long time some of us have the tendency to neglect the exercise of viewing things from the perspective of sinners. We find ourselves disappointed when things don’t work out as we expected, meaning that if we don’t expect certain things we won’t become disappointed. There’s nothing worse than acting upon an unachievable fantasy that was instilled in someone first as a false hope. After the emotional high of killing Goliath, David finds himself back in a bad place. David is again ministering deliverance to Saul. We need to monitor our level of backsliding. Just because we are under grace and not under the law that doesn’t mean that we have a license to sin or that we will never backslide in certain areas. There are always things “lurking” in this spiritual war. The Devil is just waiting for an opportunity. If David would’ve had ulterior motives for his actions he would’ve felt like he missed an opportunity which in turn would’ve caused him to become irate at the fact that he was demoted back to the position of ministering to his enemy Saul. This time, when Saul realizes that his need for deliverance is real he begins to throw spears at David. What do you do when the people that claim that they need your help try to hurt you badly?

David had to become elusive. You shouldn’t just undermine such overt actions of fatality as someone’s small problem! David repeatedly returned into this madman’s presence. When he was away from Saul he found himself dodging the sniper’s scope. Not only did Saul use physical weapons, he also used his family in the form of his daughter. Satan will send women your way. Some people work for what they obtain but some people are granted free access and fluent flow right down “easy street.” Saul informed his team that he was going to make David believe that he (Saul) was going to give him a free ride down easy street! This involved Saul giving David his daughter in marriage. He admitted that his Daughter Michal would be a “snare” to David. A snare is a monkey wrench so to speak, it’s something that jams up progress and causes severe aggravation. Saul told David that in order to secure the deal he would have to bring him several hundred foreskins of dead Philistines. Dangerous requirements reveal hidden plots and the problem is compounded when the reward is also booby trapped!

Spiritually speaking we shouldn’t try to circumcise the dead. Sinners are dangerous to themselves and others. When David finally broke away from the conspiracy he found himself in solitude. He established a soul tie with Saul’s son Jonathan, who naturally sided with his father but wouldn’t betray David which led to Jonathan’s death that must’ve affected David severely. What do you do when you know someone who knows the truth but chooses to play the game? While in solitude the outcasts of Israel began to “flock” to David. Some of these people such as Joab became major players in David’s kingdom but we learn from scripture that even people who were once loyal can become treacherous. We shouldn’t give people the benefit of the doubt unless our spiritual discernment instructs us otherwise. There are loyalists and traitors and we need to monitor the pathology of both. Friends can become enemies and enemies can become friends! David finds himself in the wilderness searching for his place in God’s kingdom and looking for answers. He visits a community of priests who assist him and this causes Saul to feel as if these men of God are plotting against him. Saul has the entire community executed. Satan will try to attack those who help you because he considers them to be traitors. We must intercede through prayer for those who help us. David also ran to the enemy for help even feigning insanity as if the enemy didn’t recognize him. There's only one path of righteousness. Psalm one teaches us not to walk, stand nor sit around the ungodly, sinners, and scorners! The saints and the wicked cannot cohabitate socially, athletically, sexually, educationally, or religiously for long periods of time.

As David suffers from near death experiences his faith increases because he sees God's hand over his life and feels the anointing comforting him. One day a man approaches David with Saul's crown and bracelet in his hand and gives it to David. This man assisted Saul with his suicide. People are supposed to encourage, and inspire us to live but this man helped Saul commit suicide! When he explained to David exactly what it was that he had done David tore his clothes and mourned. Then David realized that this man was an enemy and David instructed his soldiers to kill this man. This foreigner obviously thought that he would be rewarded for his part in the suicide. We need to be careful when we're dealing with people who serve Satan because they regard our victories as a threat to themselves. The enemy will try to hand us the crowns of our enemies with the hope that we will befriend these agents based upon these "tokens" and false pledges.

Success means many different things to different people. Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ was successful in his earthly ministry that led to his death on Calvary and resurrection, but the world looks at the cross as foolishness. 1 Corinthians 1: 18 reads "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness;"

CHAPTER TWENTY EIGHT SECRET COUNSEL OF THE WICKED

There are two men in scripture who never tasted death, they are Enoch and Elijah. Jesus was actually dead for three days and rose on the third day. The rapture teaches us that death isn't promised to everyone yet almost everyone fears the threat of losing their life. The thought of an afterlife doesn't resound in the minds of reckless men and women who have become renowned for their death defying stunts that rarely if ever appear in the form of public spectacles but rather manifest through their every day actions! Heaven and Hell it seems is only a motivational factor for the faithful and believing. Death comes in many forms such as accidents, diseases, and natural that's why humans are so intrigued with "assassinations." An assassination is a planned murder or premeditated homicide. The public respects assassinations because they understand that the execution wasn't the product of an ill temper or chance. Assassinations are generally regarded as being reserved for the rich and famous which is a misconception.

How can a group of people gather for the sole purpose of planning someone's execution without there being one voice of reason present to try to attempt to stop the plan? Fans assume that the idols of their affections are invincible. Princess Diana's death in a car accident is still being hailed as a conspiracy just as Michael Jackson's overdose is being questioned. When we think of assassinations we can't imagine a preacher being placed within the cross hairs of a sniper's scope. Was Martin Luther King an assassinated civil rights leader or an assassinated preacher? We still don't have credible information as to who was involved with the King assassination, but it makes me think of the uproar that would be caused if the government were found to be guilty of plotting the assassination of preachers! In the Gospels we read about the death of John the Baptist. There are many "How to?" books on the market but when you venture into the higher degrees of spirituality and government these techniques become classified. There's a famous saying, they say "The Devil is in the details." 2 Corinthians chapter three teaches us that "the letter kills but the spirit gives life." We must read the spirit beneath the text. If Satan tempted Adam, Eve, King David, and Jesus in the wilderness and possessed Judas Iscariot why would we neglect to investigate the assassination of John the Baptist? John was Jesus' cousin, did not the kingdom of darkness know about this relation? Not only were they related but John was Jesus' promoter! Why was the Baptist preaching in the wilderness when his father was a priest in the temple and his mother a daughter of Aaron? When religion becomes established on the grounds of tradition and false doctrine the true saints are forced to conduct their ministry in the world.

The public isn't governed by the Church but the Church is governed by the State meaning that sinners are judging saints for actions that aren't even sins! Righteous indignation has caused the death of many men. John was arrested essentially for defamation of character which was a false accusation because Herod had married his brother Philip's wife. What do you do when speaking truth to power can land you in jail or get you assassinated? Political figures and priest-kings obtain office not by allowing their opponents to speak the truth about them, or to slander them, but by calling the truth slander or defamation of character. Herod's reputation wasn't good from the start. Men oftentimes welcome the title of lady's man or gigolo but women have a strong tendency to guard their reputations more securely. Herod's stolen wife wasn't as calm about

John's preaching with respect for her social climbing whoredom! Herodias had a "vendetta" against John. A vendetta is an unsettled score or irreconcilable difference that is demanding attention but can't be resolved immediately because of outside factors. Did John consider the fact that his enemies were powerful and numerous? Sometimes we think that the regularity of our actions when unchecked means that there will be no repercussions. The wicked don't believe in rewarding truth they believe in punishing it! Obviously, Herodias had influence in Herod's life. Influence is the amount of persuasion that a person has in another person's life that affects a person's decisions, judgments and actions. Who was more offended by John's preaching and who had more influence? Herod had the power and Herodias used her influence to manipulate that power. Herodias influenced Herod to have John arrested and not only arrested, but "arrested" with no trial, and thrown into a prison. Is this how you silence a preacher? Even in prison John was sending messages to Jesus via his disciples. The wicked too, send messages from prison into the world, and oftentimes these messages are orders that are to be followed regarding assassinations.

With polygamy and incest in the air we can sense the presence of Satan as Herod with his team of advisors begin to plan his birthday party. How many people are assassinated at parties, clubs, sporting, and public events? Safety isn't guaranteed by walls, places, and people. Only God can save you in any predicament. The "company" of people or "guest list" at this party was extremely important because their prestige had to be of such a caliber as to force one to keep his word and monitor his conduct. Sometimes in life we can be in situations where there are people in positions of power who have the power to change our lives without us even being aware of this kind of legislation. At this party "entertainment" involved more than just singing, dancing and acting. In the spiritual realm this almost appears to be a "snuff film." The main course involved John's head being served on a silver platter.

Is it entertaining to watch two men in a ring beating each other to death? Herod, obviously had been watching his stolen wife's daughter because he asked her to dance for his guests. Since when do grown folks ask under aged girls to dance at their parties? In these modern times I would call this a form of prostitution where the parents are fame-whores who are exploiting their children. They say that you should never dance with the devil. This girl's dance led to the murder of a prophet. We shouldn't be receiving visual pleasure from under aged girls or boys. This is called child pornography and incest! Some parents intentionally dress up their children sexually even calling it "cute."

After this "dance with the devil," as a display of power, Herod asks this young girl to make a "wish." He promised her that he could make any wish that she had come true! How many people end up getting themselves killed by the very people that they assumed would be able to grant their wishes? He or she who grants wishes also has the power to place you in a dangerous position of subjection! This girl was so young that she didn't even know what she wanted or what to ask for. She eventually ran to her mother and asked her what she should ask for and her mother instructed her to ask for the head of John the Baptist. Is not a mother instructing a child to ask for the murder of a preacher "Satanic Ritual Abuse?" This girl must have been ritually abused because the mother felt comfortable answering her daughter with this request. And the daughter felt that this was a good request because she "ran" to the king and assured him that she knew "exactly" what she wanted! Imagine the look of surprise on Herod's guest's faces when she made this criminal request! This was a public incident and private execution! Through tacit consent no one at this party "objected" to this premeditated murder!

Who has an "Executioner" on hand? Herod sent a hit man to kill John in the prison. We know that the mafia enlists hit men and we know that Government agencies enlist assassins for special purposes whether we speak of snipers or killers who drop bombs from planes. The assassins that we have a tendency to ignore are gang members who have been initiated into these small mafia families as killers who go on "missions" and who "put in work." In spiritual warfare there aren't too many deaths that happen by chance, most of them are meticulously orchestrated assassinations! (Mark 6:14-29)

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER TWENTY NINE ACTION IN CONCENTRIC CIRCLES

The universe is God's spectacular creation. The heavens contain the sun, moon, planets, and stars. When man found out that the earth isn't "flat" he realized that planet Earth is in space, so therefore, he lives in space. "Space" is an area that is absent of any defined thing. Every creation has a shape, and everything within that bordered area is called "ingredients" or "doctrine."

You can't become impregnated by nothing! Impregnation leads to the growth and birth of a planted seed, but intoxication is to impregnate not with a seed of birth, but rather of a substance that influences, causing a chemical imbalance. The Greek word for "witchcraft" is "pharmakeia." Witchcraft is to create a concoction that alters perceptions of reality. Magical illusions also alter perceptions of reality! How many people are "drunk" with optical illusions and graphic animation?

There are mandatory channels of distribution. There are worlds, and each principality is defined by that which it contains which is the furnishing of its creator, or creators. The grand scheme can only be viewed from an elevated platform. The world says that people who do drugs are "high." This spiritual state is said to cause addicts to "express" themselves openly without the normal apprehensions. How can Satan's poison be attributed to any form of beauty with respect for the social sciences? These addicts are merely justifying their secret sickness by spewing out the cyanide that they drink into their spirit every day. Every "platform" is a "table." Isaiah 28:7-8 reads, "But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment. For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean."

In life we witness change all around us every day. The world aggressively pushes the doctrine of secular progressiveness. Satan through "territories" encourages "change," but within one's native circle. How come Americans collectively don't become Muslims? How come Israelis collectively don't become Americans? How come Saudi Arabians don't become Canadians? Your confession of citizenship and nationality isn't meaningless! Each race contains distinctive characteristics in its genetics. Many times in academia education isn't received because of ethnicity. Is it wrong for an ethnic group to request to be taught by their own race in special situations? Change involves movement. How often is movement noticed? There are cameras everywhere. Movements are watched when they "cross lines." God helps us to "withdraw" from toxic devices and snatches us away from danger. Albert Einstein introduced the world to the "theory of relativity." Experience is a body connected by "links." Breaks in the link destroy the "chain." What is a habit? It's a chain of repetitive behavior. Isaiah 28:9-10 "Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts."

Some people love Satan, and embrace death. You don't want to drive yourself crazy by trying to figure out the reason behind people's decisions. A police officer has a general knowledge with respect for criminal psychology which can't help but cause him or her to become "personal" in their profession. Institutionalized evil is shocking and appalling to novice's who have yet to "confront" evil. Evil in the world manifests in the form of "contracts." The wicked hide in the dark. They shield themselves behind lies. Their sinking titanic moves at neck braking speeds caused by workers who smash devilish “oars” into oceans of sin while the “passengers” find themselves splashed with urine and excrement! People always ask, “Why do bad things happen to good people?” The answer is that there are no good people! Isaiah 28: 15 reads, “Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves.”

Satan’s media doesn’t call a tsunami, earthquake, hurricane, tornado, or meteorite a judgment of God. They call it Mother Nature! The Book of Revelation “lists” a body of judgments that will ultimately destroy this planet! Satan and mankind have crossed the line that God drew in the heavens! Lines don’t only “represent” boundaries they also highlight projected pathologies. How strong is your line? A weak line is like a harpoon in the hands of a fisherman who dreams of catching a whale only to find himself thrown into the sea once he hits his target! God says in Isaiah 28:17 “Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plum-line:”

It’s important to identify “circles” of activity, because then you will begin to learn about the doctrine within it. Don’t form a mind- state that REJECTS THE TRUTHS OF EVIL by obnoxiously believing that you’ve seen all that Satan’s kingdom can execute, or that platforms, genres, and arts can’t be “mixed.” Satan will try to attack you with a “MIXED BAG!” The world is a bed that’s too small for you to sleep in, and its fabrics aren’t real armor! Isaiah 28:20 reads, “For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.” Doctrine literally means, “ingredients.” Every natural fruit, vegetable, grain, meat, and dairy is cultivated within its own boundary. Isaiah 28:24 reads, "Does the plowman plow all day to sow? Does he open and break the hard-lumps of his ground? When he has made suitable the face thereof, does he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cumin, and cast in the principle wheat, and the appointed barley and the rye in their place."

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER THIRTY THE SIN OF PEDOPHILIA

The word “pedophilia” is defined as someone who is a “child-lover.” A pedophile is first, a pervert who derives sexual pleasure from visually indulging in minors who depend on adults for their survival. Everyone loves children but not in the sense of “eros” which is a Greek word that speaks of erotic desire. The ancient Greeks and Romans nurtured this spirit through the dress code enforcement of gymnasiums, which was birthed via their worship of youth and the human body. Pedophilia was first introduced through art, sculptures, and statues. Pederasty was an educational system that encouraged sexual intercourse between teachers and students.

The question is, at what age does a child become an adult? An adult being someone who is independent, and therefore responsible for their own actions, because of their ability to make educated decisions. The word “age” means, “defined by longevity, and measured by degrees of limitation.” The aging process involves “seasons.” Anything that hasn’t matured is unripe. We learn from nature that you don’t remove the fruit from the tree or taste it until it has fully developed. Ecclesiastes 3:2 teaches us that there is a, “time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted.” The qualifying factor in sexual relationships isn’t a fully developed body; instead it’s age, experience, soul, spirit, and mind. The Apostle Paul asks in 2 Corinthians 10:7 “Do ye look on things after the outward appearance?”

Pedophiles attempt to appeal to the gullibility and silliness of youth by behaving childishly. They shave their beards in order to assume a more youthful appearance. In 1 Corinthians 13:11 we read, “When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when

I became a man, I put away childish things.” Molestation is a matter of power, and control. Men who feel inferior might try to convince themselves that their inadequacies are less visible to a child. They attempt to exploit ignorance. Obviously, molestation removes virginity. Even sex amongst youth is perverse because two teenagers have yet to learn the difficulties of maintaining a relationship in a fallen world. Collectively they’re incapable of providing clothes, sustenance, and shelter for a child. A Pedophiliac seeks someone who is defenseless, both physically, mentally, and financially. Some people believe that they can be “redeemed by association.” They believe that others will esteem them as being young just because their partners are young.

Not only are there pedophiles but there are also children and young adults who pursue adults. Lot’s two daughters were so perverted from their experiences in Sodom that they drugged and raped their father, thereby both became impregnated! Some of these youth are looking for authority figures and “sugar daddies.” In the West we usually don’t witness predicaments where women vehemently chase after men, as we read in the narrative of Joseph, but it does occasionally occur. 2 Timothy 2:22 warns, “Flee also youthful lusts:” They even have names now for elder women who prefer younger men.

Regardless of Satan’s laws with respect for the age of sexual consent, we must obey God’s law and wait until the harvest when the fruit is ripe and ready.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE DOMINIONS OF ARRESTED DEVELOPMENT

Isaiah 59:19: "So shall they fear the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him"

Astute observers are blessed with the constant awareness of dominion. There are gamblers who visit Las Vegas, and value the vacation as merely an opportunity to have a good time, but they don't comprehend the fact that they're entering into a dominion. Their estimation is false and costly. They feel as if they can pay the price, but they really don't understand the cost. The word "dominion" means, "to master all of the degrees within a defined space." My illustration of dominion would involve a square with four big black dots that block the four corners which represents exits. There would be one dot in the middle called a "rover" which represents a loose tracker who chases the person imprisoned within the square.

In the ancient days an army would use these styles of mathematical geometry to create a dominion in a land that they were "trying" to conquer by establishing garrisons. A garrison is a station. Before they ever had the opportunity to set up a garrison they used what are called "standards." A standard in the traditional sense is a presented and accepted normality, but a military standard was and is an emblem or logo that represents the seal and authority of a nation. America's current standards are the flag and eagle. From reading Josephus Flavius I learned that one of the most disrespectful things that a person could do in the ancient days was to knock over or defile a standard because it represented those who erected it. The standard was the precursor to the garrison. We have standards and garrisons all around us today, we are surrounded by them. Both are inadvertently and intentionally intimidating. They represent real-estate. We all have heard of the phrase “this is God’s green earth,” and it’s true, yet the government and citizens have the liberty to either seize or purchase land, and to dedicate it to the State or the public. Rome in Iesous’ day attempted to conquer Israel and dedicate the land to Rome. They set up standards and garrisons, and made Israel pay tribute in the form of taxes.

An intimidating presence tends to strike fear in the hearts of the weak willed. Dominion is paralyzing and dreadful, it discourages action and forward movement. It is created in order to captivate an audience. The root of the word captivate is captive. A member of an audience is one who either assents mentally, or whose attention has been arrested. The danger lies in the truth that the threat might be legitimate thereby rendering one ignorant if they ignore the dominion, but then it might be fictitious rendering one foolish. So, should we allow ourselves to become captivated by dominion? The answer lies in the truthfulness of the situation.

In Islamic countries the dominion is taken a degree further because not only do we see modern day standards and garrisons but this theocracy also propagates religious chants at different times of the day in order to identify hours of prayer. These chants are blown across the city via loud speakers and minarets. This is an audible accompaniment to the visible dominion.

The Bible teaches us that Satan is the god of this world, and the prince of the power of the air in the earth realm. What is it exactly that we are witnessing? We are an audience to something. The answer is we are an audience to his kingdom’s standards and garrisons! The Hebrew word for matrix is “rechem,” it means womb. A matrix isn’t a maze or labyrinth as much as it is an incubator. An incubator is any environment that births, nurtures, and cultivates into adulthood. We are talking about a “mother.” The streets, suburbs, and high class society cultivates souls. Many of us were given snacks and placed or imprisoned in front of a television set. The Television and Computer became our shepherd.

The world of television is controlled by broadcast networks. The term broadcast originally was coined from the agricultural practice of sowing seed by tossing seeds onto a broad area of land. The word television itself is derived from two words, (tele- across an expanse & vision-to embrace a mental perception.) Television is defined as sowing a vision across a large expanse of territory. The key is that television and computer screens are really doors and portals. They call them “channels.” When we view these mediums we are seeing people’s appearance, it’s almost like a hierophant. These people aren’t there per se physically, but they are there in appearance and spirit!

If you are a worshipful collaborator of multi-media you are wrestling with idolatry. To worship is to pay attention, listen to, and obey. An audience is obedient. A member of an audience becomes so, because he connects with those who are on the stage. Politicians, thespians, and hosts are esteemed as authority figures. These people attempt to connect with the audience, and the audience has the same aspirations. With live theatre the connection is natural because both parties are present in the flesh, but with multi-media the connection is spiritual. You have ascended spiritually to whatever program you are watching, and they have consented to allow their image and likeness to be projected to your home, computer, or phone. Broadcasting involves two forms of presentation which are “real-time” which means, “live” or they project “re-enactments”. A re-enactment is to capture or record a theatrical performance for future observance. The reason why people enjoy theatre is because the thespians must be that much more professional seeing that they don’t have the opportunity to edit their performance. People in their homes who suffer from loneliness oftentimes try to convince themselves, or they are deceived into believing that they are in the company of people, just because they keep the television on all day. The internet is utterly destroying the pleasures and sanctity of human interaction.

Iesous had a lot to say about pretenders and hypocrites which is an ancient term for actors. An actor isn’t justified in his role just because his profession calls for him to assume characters. Did we not learn how to act from the thespians on television? How many re-enactments of murder, rape, and robbery have we witnessed on television? They are re-presenting it. If each station is a garrison that promotes a standard, this means that the dominion tactics of old have been transformed into a type of audience slavery! Don’t captors force and beat their captives into a submissive audience state? There are two extremes with respect for life and they are aggression and passivity. They are feminine and masculine traits. To watch is a passive state, but to do is an aggressive state. We’re speaking of voyeurism and execution. The ancient and modern standards and garrisons are “will-breakers.” Your will is the strength of your determination to act. Of course the Holy Spirit and gifts of the spirit move us at times because these are the roots of inspiration.

Dominion currently is being orchestrated by marketers and advertisers. Billboards are standards. We are living in a day of indirect spiritual slavery. People are walking into the enemy’s telecommunication jail cells and slamming the door shut, and plugging their brains into his venomous psychological intravenous systems! The key to elusiveness with respect for dominion is to build the kingdom of God. Build your own dominion!

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER THIRTY-TWO CONNECTIONS

Have you ever noticed that people enter into spirits? They enter into seasonal and holiday trances. Spirits are similar to spells. To be under a spell is to be under the influence of a subliminal power. We all move in different spirits. A spirit is like a programmed organism that seeps into a person or crowd and begins to work through them. Each social group is creating and moving in a spirit. Spirits can sweep people away, just as a strong wind has the power to toss a feather into the sky! Iesous told his disciples when they requested that He destroy the Samaritans for not receiving them, "You don't know the spirit that is working through you." Jesus continued to teach them, saying, "...the Son of Man came to save souls, not destroy them."

You might've heard of the expression, "I'll be with you in spirit." It's true! If you find yourself under house arrest because of your lack of opportunity in the world or in the Church, you are operating in a prison spirit. People who go camping can "tap" into the same spirit that homeless people operate in. The campers are in a tent, and homeless people are under bridges using sheets as a tent. Campers cook on a campfire. Homeless people generate heat by burning trash cans. It's the same spirit but not the same reality. Spirit and reality are different. The person who is a prisoner in their home obviously isn't facing the same reality as a prison inmate, but they are in the same spirit. The reality of the prisoner is that he or she can't leave the compound. However, a person who is housebound can leave his or her house. A gang member is moving in the same spirit as a soldier in a war. Acknowledging this truth is of paramount importance because it allows you to recognize what individuals or groups are bound to each other in spirit.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Religions move in very similar spirits. Spiritual warfare is a spirit that closely resembles the spirit of detective and police work. There are corporate and individual spirits. Satan uses both to his advantage. The key then is to learn how to attach or disconnect from spirits.

In life, unbeknownst to some, we are ceaselessly aspiring to keep things connected. Think about all of the things that are threatened by a disconnection on a routine basis? To name a few, we can speak of eviction, employment layoffs, job terminations, cell phones, internet access, lifelines where people are hooked up to machines in hospitals, and divorces. What connects things? A chain is as strong as its weakest link. Iesous keeps us connected to God through the Holy Spirit.

Have you ever noticed how many services are available in the world with respect for connections? Dating services, travel agencies, ticket sellers, guidance counselors, pastors, friends, and parents all connect people. People say it all of the time, "Yes! I can hook you up." What are they really saying? They're telling you that they are willing to connect you to whatever you need to be connected to. These people and agencies are really "matchmakers."

Satan the Devil knows how to create "circles" in the sense of social witchcraft. Think for a minute, if you will, about everyone that you've ever met and how you were "introduced" to them? There might be people and agencies that you are or were involved with, but you didn't realize that you were never "formally" introduced. Social science teaches us that relationships progress in stages. If they don't, then this means as in literature a person has skipped the introduction and has rushed into the body and is heading towards the end. Relationships begin with a befriending or a subtle form of request as it pertains to a new adventure with a stranger who will become a good friend. To understand connections as one thing is not enough because the concept involves a body.

How many things need to be connected appropriately in order for a plane to fly correctly, for a car to drive smoothly, for a bike to work efficiently, or for a marriage to last? What happens to a sky diver when his parachute doesn't open up at all? He falls to his death.

Ecclesiastes 12:6 warns, "Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern." The key word in this scripture is "be." In Hebrew, the word "hayah" means "becoming." What are the things that are becoming disconnected in your life? The Bible commands us to disconnect from the world and sinners.

We need to stay connected to inspiration. We need those things that are effective and that work. The world teaches us that when people die, that's it. There is nothing else. Spiritual gurus who teach about reincarnation say that we come back to earth as someone else. There are many religions and doctrines that are inspirational, and this is why many sinners fall into the snare of damnation.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CHAPTER THIRTY THREE ANATOMY OF EVIL

Is not intercourse with snakes and pigs the crime of bestiality? There's no greater form of intercourse than possession. Should we not call fallen angels who are thousands of years old but who impregnate and have children with women, the ultimate and most disgusting of pedophiles. Seven of Satan's angels seized and possessed Mary Magdalene, so doesn't this make his kingdom the worst of rapists? We know that he encourages family members to kill each other from the narrative of Abel and Cain.

Satan is also a hitch-hiker because in Job we are informed that he travelled to heaven with God's angels. Obviously the angels were reporting and Satan felt compelled to sit in on the session. He informed the God who expelled him into the earth realm that he was conquering back and forth. He claimed that he was running circles around human beings. Obviously Satan doesn't care about what human's think or how they feel about his "nasty" presence. If he will visit heaven might he not visit you!

Job being aloof to an attack that originated in Heaven began to receive reports not knowing that it wasn't for any bad thing or sin that he had committed but rather because of his obedience. Satan's kingdom either "used" or possessed a group called the Sabeans who are allegedly from Ethiopian descent. They were "swordsmen." Satan sent them to rob Job's children of their "products" and to stab to death his children's employees! We learn from Job that contrary to popular belief Satan "likes" to leave one witness alive to tell the story. The world of crime is full of possessed souls.

Satan attacks in rapid succession because immediately after the first attack another messenger informs

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Job of another tragedy. Satan used lightning to strike and kill sheep and some more employees. He conjured the natural elements, turned them into lightning and then shot them with the lightning. Think about everything that is associated with “evoking,” “programming,” and electricity. We’re talking about computers, internet, phones, power-grids, banking systems, traffic lights, etc. He has power to influence nature and technology.

Then he goes back to his possessed gangs. He uses or possesses the Chaldeans and sends them to rob “vehicles” in the form of camels and to stab to death more employees. Stabbing is a personal crime of rage and passion.

Then he resorts back to nature again by evoking a strong wind and aiming it at the house of Job’s children thereby knocking the house down upon them killing the men. We’re talking about controlling weather!

The last attack involved disease. If Satan can create a disease and then administer it to his enemies is not he some kind of sick doctor, if we can use that term?

Let’s evaluate his character. He is a 1. Possessor and User of Robbers and Murderers who specialize in weapons. 2. Programmer and User of lightning and technology. 3. Programmer and User of weather. 4. Possessor and User of Robbers of vehicles (camels.) 5. Doctor of disease. 6. Accuser and Slanderer!

How many people really understood what was going on during this tragic ordeal? If it wasn’t for God’s grace Job wouldn’t have survived the trial and we wouldn’t have a record of what transpired. Obviously, Satan’s kingdom know how to keep a secret. Did Satan want the Church to know what he did to Job? I don’t think so! How many of us have ever really faced evil?

CHAPTER THIRTY FOUR LUCIFER

What inspires us to survive? The objects of our desires, wants, needs, and hopes fuel our will to fight through each day. We live to seek God. Psalm 42:1-2 reads, "As the deer panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God:" The respect and honor of achievement encourages us as we expect, anticipate, and wait for fulfillments. Proverbs 13:12 reads, "Hope deferred makes the heart sick: but when desire comes, it is a tree of life."

The first thing that Satan and his fallen angels attacked but God restored was hope! God speaks through Ezekiel in 28:12 to the king of Tyrus who was possessed by Lucifer saying, Chatham Ma'al Ha-Tokniyth. "You seal up the sum." The Hebrew reveals that Satan calculates the consummation of a thing and then attempts to close up or make an end of the person or group's success. Satan accomplishes his attacks by "sealing" the spiritual aspects and roots of the objective, co-operators, desire, and willpower of the protagonist. This (closing) is orchestrated in the "world of the spirit." The Bible tells us that there are three levels of heaven: 1. God's paradise 2. Intermediary Spirit World above Earth 3. The Earth realm. 2 Corinthians 12:2 "...such an one caught up to the third heaven." 12:4 reads, "How that he was caught up into paradise,"

If Satan wars where we live spiritually, we endanger ourselves when we "sink" into our flesh. How many people do you know who don't walk where they live? We fight spiritually in the spirit world. Galatians 5:25 instructs us, "If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit." God encourages us in Isaiah 54:17 with these words, "No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord."

Satan's name means "accuser." He is also called diabolos-via balls. The thru-thrower attempts to throw thru! He tries to seal up the sum because Ezekiel 28:12 tells us that he is -Mal'e chokmah, "full of wisdom." He's pregnant with knowledge, truth, and skill of application. Wisdom is the intelligence to perceive the interrelationship of things and the ability to apply knowledge that won't be recognized until the harvest. How do you defeat a wise enemy? You use your resources and pray to the God who sees all. God is omnipresent and omniscient. One of His names is Yehovah Sabaoth, meaning "God of War." Pray to God, and ask Him to reveal to you the areas where the enemy is operating in your life. Proverbs 15:3 reads, "The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good."

Our enemy we are told in Ezekiel 28:12 is Kaliyl Yophiy. He's perfectly beautiful with a bright appearance and attractive features. So, why did he disguise his true appearance by appearing to Eve inside of the body of a snake? Obviously, he felt that his natural body's impressiveness wouldn't have efficiently persuaded Eve to disobey God. 12:13 tells us that he was in, Eden the Garden of God. Eden means, "to live voluptuously," and Garden is defined as, "fenced" or "protected." Satan was possessing God's serpent inside of God's garden. Galatians 6:7 warns, "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap."

In the garden we witness a fallen angel reasoning with an innocent opponent. The enemy uses his dark talents of manipulation to bring about the fall of humanity. 28:13 tells us that Satan had, Kowl Yaqar Eben Hayah Mecukkah-"Every precious stone for a covering." The Hebrew reveals that he was secure in the capacity wherewith he was created, the building blocks of his character being precious and rare. He isn't god he's a created creature who is "missing" infinite divine attributes yet was still created to be a powerful being. Matthew 21:42 reads, "...The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner:"

CHAPTER THIRTY FIVE TEMPTATION IN MARK

The private life of Iesous the Messiah isn't included in Mark's Gospel. Theocracies possess less of a stark contrast between public and private life. Privacy entails the dignity that some require with respect for veiling their actions. Sex, and bathing are acts of privacy. Conversation of a classified sort will obviously be removed from what one might term a public "hearing." Exclusion is a security measure. Do we as students of The Word feel a sense of entitlement concerning Iesous' private life? Do we assume that He did things in private that He would've been ashamed to do in public? It's not always easy to recognize beginnings or endings.

The Good News of eternal salvation was a one time crucifixion at Calvary whose message, teaching, and doctrine had to be made public seeing that humanity, we should assume, wanted to witness a Messiah operate on a world stage. God the Son became man and lived a private life for thirty years before "starting" a public ministry. Mark 1:1 reads, "The beginning of the Gospel of Iesous the Christ, the Son of God."

We as humans have a limited memory. History and knowledge itself is beneficial to us only because of the vast wealth of written, recorded, and programmed articles that have been preserved in churches, museums, libraries, and archives. The question then becomes, "What is worthy of preservation?"

Prophets are inspired men of God who in one respect inform us of future events. Sinners in the world pride themselves in their ability to stay informed regarding current affairs. The word (news) is "new" with an "s" attached, meaning essentially "new information." Prophecy is futuristic news that was written in ancient books. The oracles of the prophets were preserved in writing.

The prophets warned us to be on the lookout for the “forerunner” who would be a sign that the Messiah had arrived. Are we to really believe that both Messiah and Prophet who identified themselves using Scripture didn’t in their youth find in these passages their identity and purpose?

Mark is telling us that The Baptist was meant to be a sign. The beginning of John’s ministry signaled the beginning of Iesous’ ministry. Mark 1:2 reads, “As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.”

The citizens of the world ceaselessly allow themselves to be deceived by corporations who blanket the globe with empty promises energized by illustrious images. Their utopian concept of efficiency is a soul condemning machine that annihilates individuals while promoting the success of the system and majority rule. There are many voices jockeying for position in the world. The Bible teaches us that the property value of the world and its accommodative first class treatment and territorial business services are vain at best.

A “religious marketer’s” dream would be to find him or herself called upon to spearhead a campaign of repentance with Jerusalem as the showpiece. According to history, Herod’s Second Temple is pictured as his claim to fame and a capstone on his fetish for architecture. Iesous revolted in the temple, turning over the money changer’s tables and using a whip. He called them “a den of thieves.” He prophesied the destruction of the temple in 70 A.D. It’s no wonder that John’s ministry was in the wilderness. A truthfully attractive voice proclaiming salvation in a place absent of worldly hindrances. Doesn’t the world pat itself on the back when it speaks of five star restaurants and highly frequented “hot spots” that attract celebrities?

John reclaimed the true path of truth and maintained it, handing it over to Jesus like a lap sprinter passing his baton to a faster runner who waits with his arms stretched out as the sprinter maintains a progressive rhythm. Mark 1:3 reads, “The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.”

Divine rituals birth supernatural effects. Israel’s sacrificial system was changed. God changed the rite from faith in the blood of a sacrificed animal to sacrifice of self through immersion in miraculous water and faith in the sacrificed Messiah’s blood. John preached the new baptism ritual to Israel. Repentance is conversion instigated by the pain of violating one’s moral conscience in surrendering oneself to sin. Since the rite changed, the requirements for forgiveness changed.

Forgiveness isn’t only pardon for sins; it’s also removal of the temporal and eternal consequences. Mark 1:4 reads, “John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.”

Satan doesn’t appear in the Gospels until thirty years after Jesus is born! In Mark the individual temptations aren’t even mentioned as if to say; ultimately there are innumerable temptations and they can manifest anywhere at any time. What is the psychological effect of experiencing peace for thirty years but then to have the Devil appear suddenly?

Matthew calls Satan “The Tempter.” The temptations of the flesh are complicated in that we have a sin nature that is being suppressed by The Holy Ghost. If the truth were to be told Jesus revealed what is inside of man’s heart in Mark:21-23 “For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: All these things come from within, and defile a man." To conquer the sins of the flesh we must crucify the flesh! Romans 6:6 reads, "Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin." The first degree of spirituality we learn from the wilderness temptation is that of overcoming the temptations of the flesh. We should also learn that temptations can manifest in a desolate place, they don't only appear in cities or nightclubs. Matthew 4:3-4 reads, "And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread." Satan was ultimately saying that it is good to impose one's will over something that has an absolute identity whether that article be a rock or someone who has chosen to be a "stone" with respect for choosing hell instead of heaven! To change something that was created to function with a certain purpose, or a person who used their free will to become who they are is a form of rape. The text reads, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." There's no need to change that which you don't need to use or which doesn't want to be used with respect for humans. The necessity births the action, so why act where there's no necessity. Men die every day in an attempt to stay well fed, but saints fast and feed off of God's word and live long lives if God permits!

Satan continues his temptation in Matthew 4:5-6 "Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple, And said unto him, If you are the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning you: and in their hands they shall bear you up, lest at any time you dash your foot against a stone.” The real temptation that was “interweaved” within this passage is one of “composure.” It takes great control for a creator to tolerate the feigned ignorance of the creature! This second degree involves the testimony of the so called church. Iesous had an infallibly impeccable testimony but yet they still crucified him. Satan’s second temptation was two-fold; he was saying, “ If you jump it won’t be suicide because the angels will catch you based upon scripture and it will birth a testimony in religious circles.” In both temptations we notice an attempt to force unnecessary actions. So, we are wrestling with the temptation of the flesh, testimony, and lastly Satanic pacts. In the last temptation we read, “Again the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.” Satan is the ultimate blasphemer!!! Not only does he want God’s worship he wants yours too, and he’s willing to pay for it. Mark 8:36-37 warns, “For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?”
